Activating the Consciousness

Book II

Compiled by Chanderhas Kumar (Soul)

Waking up #Soulfamily

I feel privileged to be connected to people of different natures from all backgrounds and over all parts of the world who are feeling a connection to my work. Their views, shares and comments have helped me continue the amazing journey of presenting spiritual knowledge of the old in a different way. I hope it is helping light up people's hearts and lives.

I hope this second smaller book Waking up #soulfamily-Activating the consciousness will help people understand the depth of knowledge in ancient literatures.

Many are presenting the spiritual knowledge in their own way to the waking population. My guidance and encouragement comes from those who resonate with me and I with them. I dedicated this book to that #soulfamily on LinkedIn and elsewhere that keeps growing. It would not have been possible without you.

With love and Gratitude

Chanderhas Kumar

1. POWER OF ASSOCIATION WITH DEVOTEES

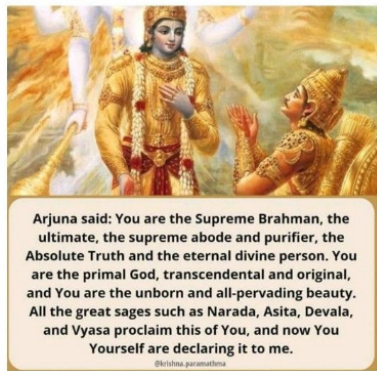

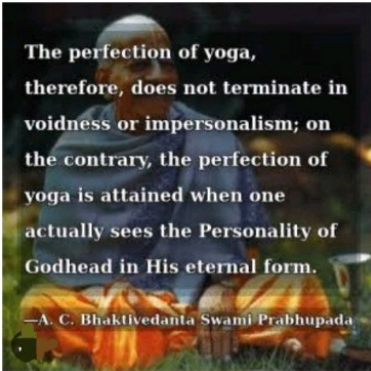

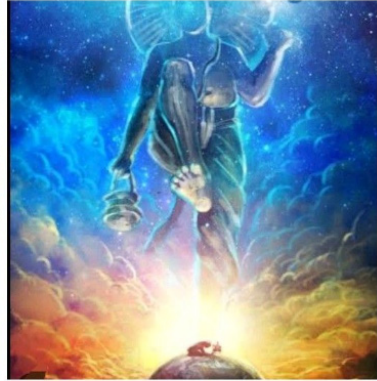

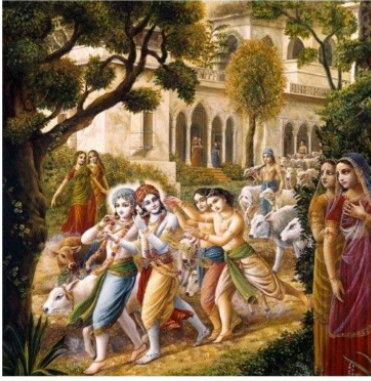

"The Supreme Personality of Godhead said: My dear Uddhava, by associating with My pure devotees one can destroy one's attachment for all objects of material sense gratification. Such purifying association brings Me under the control of My devotee. One may perform the aṣṭāṅga-yoga system, engage in philosophical analysis of the elements of material nature, practice nonviolence and other ordinary principles of piety, chant the Vedas, perform penances, take to the renounced order of life, execute sacrificial performances and dig wells, plant trees and perform other public welfare activities, give in charity, carry out severe vows, worship the demigods, chant confidential mantras, visit holy places or accept major and minor disciplinary injunctions, but even by performing such activities one does not bring Me under his control.

In every yuga many living entities entangled in the modes of passion and ignorance gained the association of My devotees. Thus, such living entities as the Daityas, Rākṣasas, birds, beasts, Gandharvas, Apsarās, Nāgas, Siddhas, Cāraṇas, Guhyakas and Vidyādharas, as well as such lower-class human beings as the vaiśyas, śūdras, women and others, were able to achieve My supreme abode. Vṛtrāsura, Prahlāda Mahārāja and others like them also achieved My abode by association with My devotees, as did personalities such as Vṛṣaparvā, Bali Mahārāja, Bāṇāsura, Maya, Vibhīṣaṇa, Sugrīva, Hanumān, Jāmbavān, Gajendra, Jaṭāyu, Tulādhāra, Dharma-vyādha, Kubjā, the gopīs in Vṛndāvana and the wives of the brāhmaṇas who were performing sacrifice.

The persons I have mentioned did not undergo serious studies of the Vedic literature, nor did they worship great saintly persons, nor did they execute severe vows or austerities. Simply by association with Me and My devotees, they achieved Me.

The inhabitants of Vṛndāvana, including the gopīs, cows, unmoving creatures such as the twin arjuna trees, animals, living entities with stunted consciousness such as bushes and thickets, and snakes such as Kāliya, all achieved the perfection of life by unalloyed love for Me and thus very easily achieved Me.

Even though one engages with great endeavor in the mystic yoga system, philosophical speculation, charity, vows, penances, ritualistic sacrifices, teaching of Vedic mantras to others, personal study of the Vedas, or the renounced order of life, still one cannot achieve Me." - Srimad Bhagavatam 11.12.1-9

2. PUBLISHING THE EBOOK

I wanted to offer you a Christmas Gift #soulfamily. To help you Build Back Better a more awake and God conscious life.

This is why I put together all my posts in one big book so that you can read about our journey in correct order. Free of all errors (I hope). I am extremely grateful for your tolerance of my typos and grammatical errors along the way. The daily downloads and the quick dumping of post after post, day after day takes a toll on one's accuracy. Some 500+ in one and a half years.

I have fixed these errors and used the liberty to add more words to be clearer in the presentation of concepts. I hope it will help.

The book has the journey from active anti you know what to the evolution along the way. I thought it was important to keep that history.

In the world of AI and digital deepfakes etc. I thought it was good risk management to include screen shots so that the history is accurately represented. The loss of history is not a new thing.

"Until the lion learns how to write, every story will glorify the hunter."- African Proverb

That said the evolution of thought is key and therefore all the related awakening images and videos that I found useful have been included. There is much to be gained from listening to them.

"Again there are those who, although not conversant in spiritual knowledge, begin to worship the Supreme Person upon hearing about Him from others. Because of their tendency to hear from authorities, they also transcend the path of birth and death."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 13.26)

The link to the eBook online is as below. You may try the respective link for your country or search for the title if any issues.

Not everyone may like reading books online via eBook or Kindle. I like hard copies. I have free versions available on my site www.wakingupsoulfamily.com

You are welcome and encouraged to share the copy as you see fit. This is not a money-making endeavour. I started writing to help wake people up. So I hope with your likes, shares and comments we will be able to achieve that #soulfamily.

In your service

And as always your support is always appreciated.

4. REPTILIAN BRAIN

Not sure why they call it a reptilian brain perhaps it is because they are in the mode of Fear all the time and remain hidden deep underground or hidden out of sight. Any direct confrontation results in flight (ironically) to darker/ safer areas. If unable to fly away, then they have no option but to fight. But don't all creatures behave this way when they encounter potentially hostile beings? Are we humans not hostile beings?

True beings of love may be those that have never known fear and like innocent children who are curious and friendly. They cannot live in hostile environments hence they always remain in high vibrations and live in matching vibrational state worlds.

Then there may those that have descended to ascend in consciousness. Knowing fear or other lower vibrations but to eventually rise over it to place themselves in love and kindness #soulfamily. For love they do many things- some fight and some preach in service of others. We can convert everything in God consciousness state when we dovetail it with loving devotion. This spiritualises everything we do as discussed in following lecture by Srila Prabhupad.

"I consider that one whose intelligence is constantly disturbed by his falsely identifying himself with the temporary material world can achieve real freedom from fear only by worshiping the lotus feet of the infallible Supreme Lord. In such devotional service, all fear ceases entirely.

Even ignorant living entities can very easily come to know the Supreme Lord if they adopt those means prescribed by the Supreme Lord Himself.

The process recommended by the Lord is to be known as bhāgavata-dharma, or devotional service to the Supreme Personality of Godhead.

O King, one who accepts this process of devotional service to the Supreme Personality of Godhead will never blunder on his path in this world. Even while running with eyes closed, he will never trip or fall.

In accordance with the particular nature one has acquired in conditioned life, whatever one does with body, words, mind, senses, intelligence or purified consciousness one should offer to the Supreme, thinking, "This is for the pleasure of Lord Nārāyaṇa/Krishna "

Fear arises when a living entity misidentifies himself as the material body because of absorption in the external, illusory energy of the Lord. When the living entity thus turns away from the Supreme Lord, he also forgets his own constitutional position as a servant of the Lord. This bewildering, fearful condition is affected by the potency for illusion, called māyā. Therefore, an intelligent person should engage unflinchingly in the unalloyed devotional service of the Lord, under the guidance of a bona fide spiritual master, whom he should accept as his worshipable deity and as his very life and soul.

Although the duality of the material world does not ultimately exist, the conditioned soul experiences it as real under the influence of ..." - Instructions of the Nine Yogendras, Srimad Bhagavatam 11.2.33-38)

5. FALLEN KINGS

"The land along the Sindhu River, as well as the districts of Candrabhāgā, Kauntī and Kāśmīra, will be ruled by śūdras, fallen brāhmaṇas and meat-eaters. Having given up the path of Vedic civilization, they will have lost all spiritual strength.

These barbarians in the guise of kings will devour the citizenry, murdering innocent women, children, cows and brāhmaṇas and coveting the wives and property of other men. They will be erratic in their moods, have little strength of character and be very short-lived. Indeed, not purified by any Vedic rituals and lacking in the practice of regulative principles, they will be completely covered by the modes of passion and ignorance.

The citizens governed by these low-class kings will imitate the character, behavior and speech of their rulers. Harassed by their leaders and by each other, they will all suffer ruination."- Srimad Bhagavatam 12.1.38-41

"Anyone who does not render service and neglects his duty unto the primeval Lord, who is the source of all living entities, will certainly fall down from his constitutional position." - Srimad Bhagavatam 11.5.3

"When the moon, the sun and Bṛhaspatī (Jupiter) are together in the constellation Karkaṭa (Cancer), and all three enter simultaneously into the lunar mansion Puṣyā — at that exact moment the age of Satya, or Kṛta, will begin." - Srimad Bhagavatam 11.2.24

"Thus I have described the royal dynasty of Manu, as it is known on this earth. One can similarly study the history of the vaiśyas, śūdras and brāhmaṇas living in the various ages.

These personalities, who were great souls, are now known only by their names. They exist only in accounts from the past, and only their fame remains on the earth.

Devāpi, the brother of Mahārāja Śāntanu (Moon dynasty), and Maru, the descendant of Ikṣvāku (Sun dynasty), both possess great mystic strength and are living even now in the village of Kalāpa.

At the end of the Age of Kali, these two kings, having received instruction directly from the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Vāsudeva, will return to human society and reestablish the eternal religion of man, characterized by the divisions of varṇa and āśrama, just as it was before.

The cycle of four ages — Satya, Tretā, Dvāpara and Kali — continues perpetually among living beings on this earth, repeating the same general sequence of events.

My dear King Parīkṣit, all these kings I have described, as well as all other human beings, come to this earth and stake their claims, but ultimately they all must give up this world and meet their destruction.

Even though a person's body may now have the designation "king," in the end its name will be "worms," "stool" or "ashes." What can a person who injures other living beings for the sake of his body know about his own self-interest, since his activities are simply leading him to hell?"-

-Srimad Bhagavatam 11.2.35-40

NEVER IN THE HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSE HAS AN ENTIRE PLANET CHANGED ITS FREQUENCY AND VIBRATION TO SHIFT INTO ANOTHER DIMENSION. IT IS UP TO THE INDIVIDUAL BEING LISTENING OUR FREQUENCIES TO MAKE OUR OWN PERSONAL DECISIONS OF WHICH PATH TO FOLLOW.

— DR. BRUCE GRANTON —
THE UNIVERSE CHANGING

The Brahma Purana has words spoken by Lord Krishna to Mother Ganga just before the beginning of the Kali-yuga (the age of quarrel and hypocrisy). This Kali-yuga began approximately five thousand years ago, and it has a duration of 432,000 years, leaving us with 427,000 years until the end of the present yuga. We are 5,000 years into Kali-yuga and its duration is 432,000 years, so there are still 427,000 left before a new cycle (Satya-yuga) is inaugurated. However there is a Golden Age in Kali-yuga that lasts for 10,000 but only happens in the Kali-yuga Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu appears in, which is only in 'one' Kali-yuga out of every thousand! This means Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu comes 'once' every 8 billion 640 million human years!

The global food crisis: consequences and solutions

Today, the world is witnessing its most high-angled and confounded global food crisis triggered by heavy inflation, supply chain disruption, and the Russia-Ukraine conflict.

The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated. I hold that the more helpless a creature the more entitled it is to protection by man from the cruelty of humankind.

6. VOLUNTEERS, STAR SEEDS, ANGELS AND CHOSEN ONES

People are divine beings. This is only because they are qualitatively one with the Supreme being who has infinite amount of potencies. We are quantitatively not at the same level as God. The thought is what is considered envy and is the cause of fall down to material platform, where we need to be schooled again. Schooled not by God but by his servants, the high commanders who control matter. We are bound in matter which is clearly not of spiritual quality and hence we struggle.

"The living entities in this conditioned world are My eternal fragmental parts. Due to conditioned life, they are struggling very hard with the six senses, which include the mind. " - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 15.7)

There is the highest Commander, the Supreme being who has Supreme authority and accountability and thus provides freewill and consequences through Karma.

Nityo nityānām cetanaś cetanānām eko yo bahūnām vidadhāti kāmān (Kaṭha Upaniṣad 2.2.13)

"Amongst all the eternal & conscious, there is one supreme, that Supreme Personality maintains them all."- Katha Upaniṣad 2.2.13

If there are volunteers, Angels or starseeds then they must be here under the supervision of a higher authority. No one jumps to rescue others without a harness for themselves. Is that not the rule on flights too? Save yourself first before you try to help other's?

Then there are the Chosen ones #soulfamily, who chooses the chosen ones if they are not the volunteers? Whose bidding do the chosen ones take on? This is not a matter of faith alone. It is a science and will of the Supreme being - always.

yam evaiṣa vṛṇute tena labhyaḥ'

"The Supersoul can be realized by that person whom He chooses." - Katha Upaniṣad (1.2.23)

If we do not want to be servants of the Supreme then that is our Freewill and we can be wanderers from one body to another. Thinking we are God's with ability to travel the endless universe in spaceships out of curiosity on the strength of non spiritual technology.

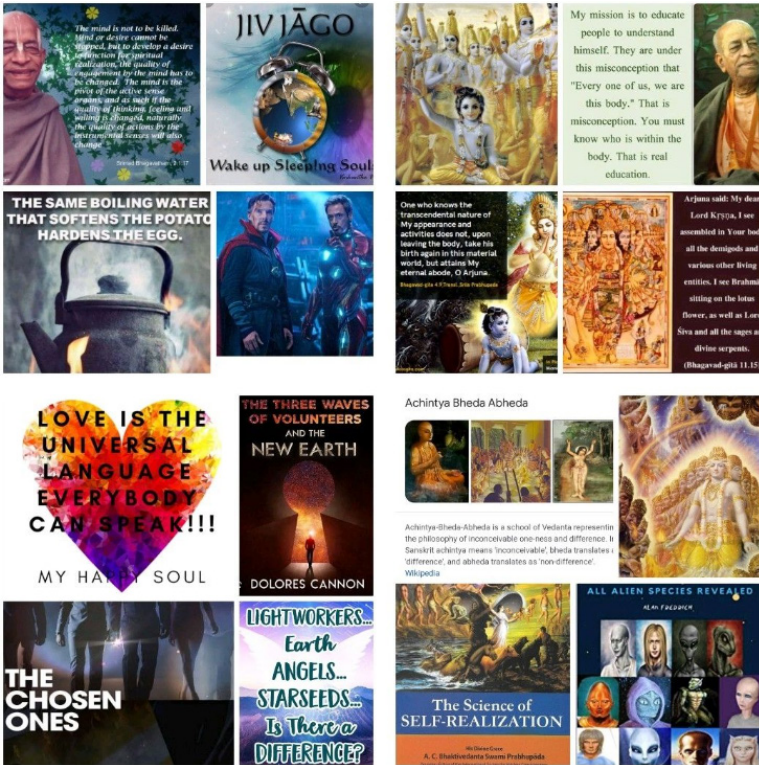

"You are the supreme primal objective; You are the best in all the universes; You are inexhaustible, and You are the oldest; You are the maintainer of religion, the eternal Personality of Godhead.

You are the origin without beginning, middle or end. You have numberless arms, and the sun and moon are among Your great unlimited eyes. By Your own radiance You are heating this entire universe. Although You are one, You are spread throughout the sky and the planets and all space between. O great one, as I behold this terrible form, I see that all the planetary systems are perplexed.

All the demigods are surrendering and entering into You. They are very much afraid, and with folded hands they are singing the Vedic hymns.

The different manifestations of Lord Siva, the Adityas, the Vasus, the Sadhyas, the Visvadevas, the two Asvins, the Maruts, the forefathers and the Gandharvas, the Yaksas, Asuras, and all perfected demigods are beholding You in wonder." - Arjuna (Bhagavad Gita 11.18-22)

8. SWAMI- MASTER OF SENSES

I shared this lecture in the comments for a recent post. In case you missed it then , it is here again. This lecture is important!!

Spiritualists continue to talk about losing False ego, not Real ego to be compassionate or loving towards others. But people do not understand and peace continues to be hard to achieve on the Earth planet on material planes. This is why we can see wars happening here all the time. Hence the first step is to stop identifying with the body. Then you will eat to raise your vibrations. In the healthier body state, you will raise your consciousness.

Raised consciousness means our emotions (energy in motion) are under our control. Then we do not act due to being out of control or carried away by emotions. Rather, one acts from an enlightened state to do what is required. When your senses and emotions are in control then we have truly lost our false ego. But we keep your identity. A type of rebirth or ascension if you will by shedding the old skin.

In heightened state of awareness materialism is not very attractive or even desirable. Rather, the association of it is distracting. Hence the enlightened ones or yogis live austere lives and close to nature to keep the consciousness high.

“In the minds of those who are too attached to sense enjoyment and material opulence, and who are bewildered by such things, the resolute determination of devotional service to the Supreme Lord does not take place.”- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.44)

There is plenty of evidence out there to show some of our material technology is making us sick. More natural ways may be better. The spiritual ones even better. The spiritually advanced yogis of God consciousness have spiritual technology but live simple lives as they do not want to descend into a lower level of reality. The reason Swamis descend is to help the world!!

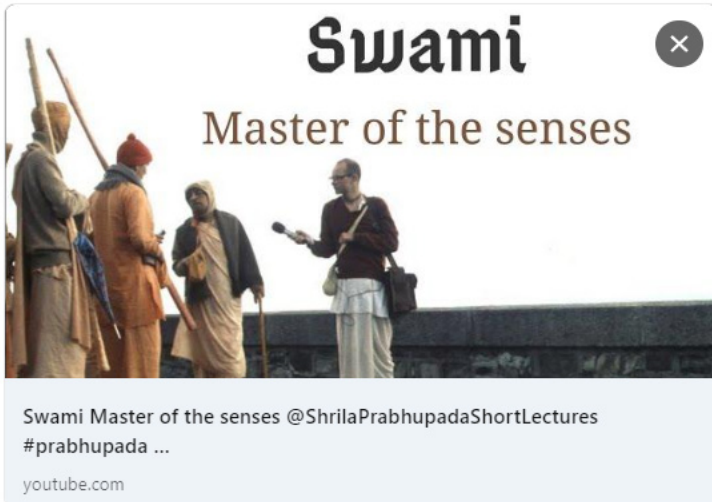

This war between demons and demigods also called Dev-Asur Sangram in Vedic literature continues using humans as pawns in greater spiritual warfare. Playing wars on higher planes of consciousness instead of the normal 3D version that we see #soulfamily

Spiritual technology is advanced too but devotee Yogis with powers are humble and controlled because they live in service of the Lord. Lord Siva is one such great devotee who is God amongst Demigods and Yogis. In service of Lord Krishna, he descends to save the world by drinking dangerous poison and yet is also destroyer of the worlds. For himself he lives with bear minimum and with snakes as jewellery.

"Lord Shiva himself is Mahesha (one of the three great gods), his son is Ganesha (remover of obstacles), his friend is Dhanesha (lord Kubera, treasurer of demigods) and his father in law is Nagesha (lord of the mountains and mines); but still he is wandering for alms for no reason other than to satisfy the wish of the Lord." - Subhashita Ratnakar

I hope you are starting to become Master of Senses #soulfamily

9. ANCIENT VEDIC CIVILISATION

If you are looking to do research on ancient civilizations and their knowledge then 'Forbidden Archaeology' book series are a great start #soulfamily.

We have also discussed the science and spiritual advancements from the Vedic concept in great detail.

Michael Cremo a renowned author, brings a strong academic rigour to the study of Vedic and some other ancient civilizations.

Links:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SwDjpusg1PY>

10. EXPLORING CONSCIOUSNESS

Many scientists are exploring the field of consciousness. What is learnt and shared in this space is limited for the common man. Perhaps common man is less interested in spiritual knowledge. Hence, what is basic knowledge in certain parts of the world becomes esoteric in other parts #soulfamily.

Imagine if you will, the Sun that spreads light in every direction. The sun is not physically present in our room but the light from the sun is. By the presence of the light in the room we are aware of the sun shining outside. Similarly, consciousness pervades all the cells of our body but the Sun of the body is the soul whose presence results in spread of consciousness all over the body. This is why all the cells of the body are alive. If the sun disappears all life on the planet disappears as well. Just as when the one soul in the body leaves the body, all the living cells of the body die as well.

"The working senses are superior to dull matter; mind is higher than the senses; intelligence is still higher than the mind; and he [the soul] is even higher than the intelligence."- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 3.42)

Now extrapolate this train of thought to the Supreme consciousness of God/Krishna. He creates all realities by thought alone and needs no external technology to manifest anything. For him all that is within the scope of the light of his consciousness is also within him, as he is the sole creator. He is conscious of all bodies that exist in all realities and at all times. Unlike AI, God's network is not limited to those that are connected to the network of internet of things. His network is organic and inorganic Space.

And because he creates the Matrix with Time as a dimension, he is always conscious of the past, present and the future as discussed in the following lecture.

We are a small part of that Supreme consciousness like individual cells of the body and are limited to the knowledge of our own body. Because we are not God we are not conscious of any other bodies.

"Furthermore, O Arjuna, I am the generating seed of all existences. There is no being – moving or nonmoving – that can exist without Me.

O mighty conqueror of enemies, there is no end to My divine manifestations. What I have spoken to you is but a mere indication of My infinite opulences.

Know that all opulent, beautiful and glorious creations spring from but a spark of My splendor.

But what need is there, Arjuna, for all this detailed knowledge? With a single fragment of Myself I pervade and support this entire universe." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 10.39-42)

Happy Sun day!

11. MERCURY TO GOLD

Mercury can be turned into Gold by alchemy; spacecrafts can be built to travel into space by physical technology. The yogis can do similar by their yogic powers of consciousness but God does need to earn any technology or develop any power as discussed in following lecture.

If you meditate you will have realisations. But you will not become God. God is not manufactured by any scientific process or by any yogic spiritual power. He is God and he has nothing to do and nothing to prove. He is there at all times and at all places simultaneously. He has no deficiency or void that needs to be filled. He is complete in all ways, in all incarnations/Avatars that he takes at different times and different parts of the world. He does not belong to one country, religion or race.

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, who is inaccessible to the Vedas, but obtainable by pure unalloyed devotion of the soul, who is without a second, who is not subject to decay, is without a beginning, whose form is endless, who is the beginning, and the eternal puruṣa (person); yet He is a person possessing the beauty of blooming youth." - Brahma Samhita 5.33

He incarnates to show the lost path again and again, to show leadership so people can follow. The process of creation and destruction is not for the world per se rather to destroy the ego that prevents humans from realising the highest purpose of life.

All the material attractions of Gold or space/time travels are not conducive to spiritual growth and spiritual ascension #soulfamily. We need to live in the present and follow spiritual leaders to rise in God/Krishna consciousness.

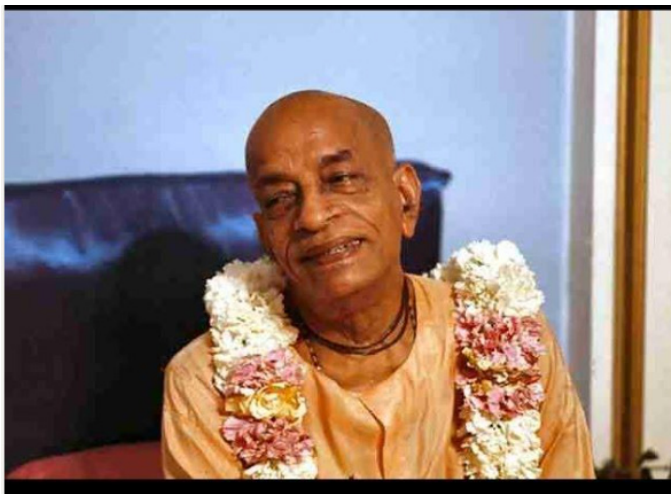

That is the best way to reach immortality in the future and happiness in the now. This transformation of heart is the alchemy we need.

"Whenever and wherever there is a decline in religious practice, O descendant of Bharata, and a predominant rise of irreligion – at that time I descend Myself.

To deliver the pious and to annihilate the miscreants, as well as to reestablish the principles of religion, I Myself appear, millennium after millennium.

One who knows the transcendental nature of My appearance and activities does not, upon leaving the body, take his birth again in this material world, but attains My eternal abode, O Arjuna."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 4.7-9)

Violence is checking someone else from discharging their duty. Important lecture this one!

12. THE FOUR YUGAS

If everything is frequency or energy then clearly some are more observable than others and some are less perceivable. Frequencies of matter are denser and therefore easily perceived, Frequencies of light and sound are even less perceivable by our naked eyes. This is why we need technology gadgets to perceive that reality. We use T.V, Radio or internet to download this information from the ether. Some frequencies of thought and prayers is even less perceivable. We don't think they work but they work wonders in different ways.

There is more information in the Ether that we could access to change our view of reality. But we are limited by our lower vibrations. This is because of our bad karma created by our free will. We need to work hard to ascend in union with other higher conscious worlds.

We use our freewill/choice to ascend in consciousness by four paths to Yoga/union with God as stated in Bhagavad Gita. Raising our vibrations to by our own actions.

Some may have been doing meditation and inner work (Dhyan Yoga), some may have been service to others (Karma yoga) or raised their vibrations by cultivating knowledge for the benefit of society (Gyaan yoga) and some as devotees who have been spreading the holy name to raise the vibrations of the world (Bhakti Yoga) and the need to unite the world in God consciousness. They have all raised their vibrations/consciousness, and if the Earth was to ascend into higher consciousness it would be because of them. Those in lower frequencies could struggle to live in a different world of higher consciousness so they may have to be attuned slowly through slow disclosures of science of spirituality.

Ascension of consciousness into a new reality happens through God/Krishna consciousness. There is no other way to ascend. One cannot ascend towards God without some degree of love or fear #soulfamily. It is hate of God that leads to devolution. The undecided stay on 3D version of the material plane t, whereas others move to the lighter realities based on their consciousness levels. Consciousness that they have chosen by the choice and actions.

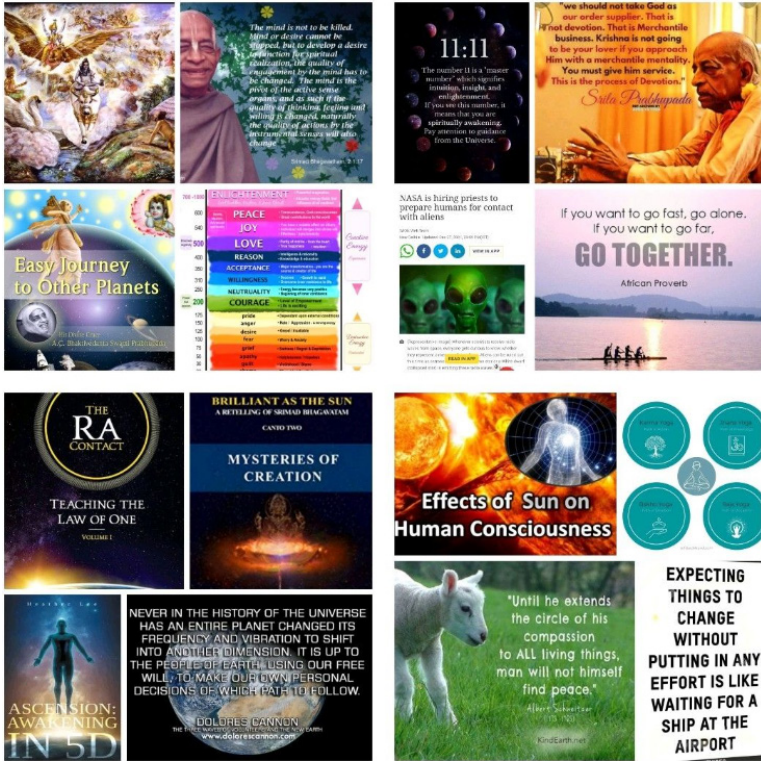

"Those situated in the mode of goodness gradually go upward to the higher planets; those in the mode of passion live on the earthly planets; and those in the abominable mode of ignorance go down to the hellish worlds."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 14.18)

The shortest and quickest path to an ascension of consciousness is through devotion to God/Krishna. This happens when we realise we are not the body and stop engaging in religion of service to self. As a soul we engage in service of Krishna/God.

"Abandon all varieties of religion and just surrender unto Me. I shall deliver you from all sinful reactions. Do not fear." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 18.66)

"In this age of quarrel and hypocrisy, the only means of deliverance is the chanting of the holy names of the Lord. There is no other way. There is no other way. There is no other way."- Chaitanya Charamrita Madhya 6.242

13. ONE WORLD!

The history of Mahabharat is the history of the planet. We have discussed this in previous posts. After the greatest battle, the world split up and the history was lost.

The great battle was part of the divine plan as always and Krishna personally came to oversee the deliverance of his devotees and annihilation of the wicked as discussed in recent posts.

All that happens, happens on the strength and sanction of God alone. When we realise this being free of envy and false ego we begin to understand our connection with God, and our place on this plane of existence. There are civilizations on the planet and there are those that are off planet among many levels of the Matrix. As above so below. We are a copy of the higher worlds. To understand the extent of Lord's power by science alone is not possible. We can only surrender #soulfamily. The following are the words one of the greatest warrior in history after Krishna decided to wrap up his pastimes on material planes and leave for Spiritual world.

"Arjuna said: O King! The Supreme Personality of Godhead, Hari, who treated me exactly like an intimate friend, has left me alone. Thus my astounding power, which astonished even the demigods, is no longer with me.

I have just lost Him whose separation for a moment would render all the universes unfavorable and void, like bodies without life.

Only by His merciful strength was I able to vanquish all the lusty princes assembled at the palace of King Drupada for the selection of the bridegroom.

With my bow and arrow I could pierce the fish target and thereby gain the hand of Draupadī.

Because He was near me, it was possible for me to conquer with great dexterity the powerful King of heaven, Indradeva, along with his demigod associates and thus enable the fire-god to devastate the Khāṇḍava Forest. And only by His grace was the demon named Maya saved from the blazing Khāṇḍava Forest, and thus we could build our assembly house of wonderful architectural workmanship, where all the princes assembled during the performance of Rājasūya-yajña and paid you tributes.

Your respectable younger brother, who possesses the strength of ten thousand elephants, killed, by His grace, Jarāsandha, whose feet were worshiped by many kings. .."- Srimad Bhagavatam 1.15.5-9

"The Lord cannot be known by copious logic, intelligence, or deep study of the scriptures. But He reveals Himself personally to the soul who, having become eager to engage in His devotional service, prays to Him for His mercy." (Kathopanisad 1.2.23)

14. NEW FUTURE

So, some people are waking up to more facts about various things, realising the true history, uncovering the secret hidden agendas, technology and other disclosures. What then?

They say when one is in the middle of a burning house its not the time to investigate the cause of the fire rather to get out and save oneself first. The saving can come from God via natural events, or good guys. But we need to extend our hand also. The saving has to come from inside #soulfamily. What we are going to do with the new information? Are we going to rise above duality of the material 3D world? Are we with knowledge and God/Krishna consciousness act according to our nature? That nature of response or calling is your true nature, laid bare by the emotional vibrations we hold. That nature is the basis of our much-discussed Varna-ashram Dharma. The nature will show the Devotees, the intellectuals, the warriors, the businessmen and the supporters. This dis-ease of duality is created by us not acting in our nature. Our karma to be yoga and sinless must be done with detachment. How detached and calm are we? Can we consciously raise our consciousness in all circumstances?

"Therefore, O Arjuna, surrendering all your works unto Me, with full knowledge of Me, without desires for profit, with no claims to proprietorship, and free from lethargy, fight.

Those persons who execute their duties according to My injunctions and who follow this teaching faithfully, without envy, become free from the bondage of fruitive actions.

But those who, out of envy, disregard these teachings and do not follow them regularly are to be considered bereft of all knowledge, befooled, and ruined in their endeavours for perfection.

Even a man of knowledge acts according to his own nature, for everyone follows the nature he has acquired from the three modes. What can repression accomplish?

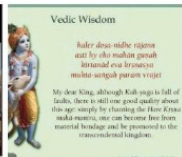

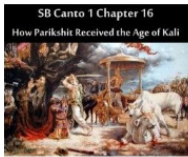

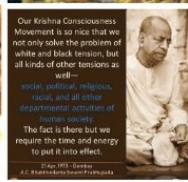

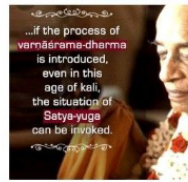

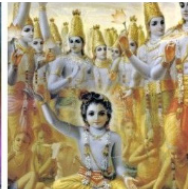

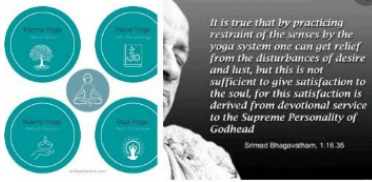

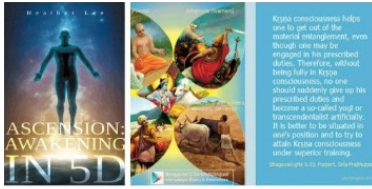

There are principles to regulate attachment and aversion pertaining to the senses and their objects. One should not come under the control of such attachment and aversion, because they are stumbling blocks on the path of self-realization.

It is far better to discharge one's prescribed duties, even though faultily, than another's duties perfectly. Destruction in the course of performing one's own duty is better than engaging in another's duties, for to follow another's path is dangerous."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 3.30-35)

In the Kali-yuga, we have been in a burning house for a long time. Bhagavad Gita chapter 18, discusses the modes of nature. You can judge where you stand.

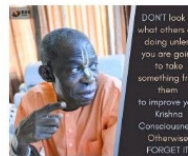

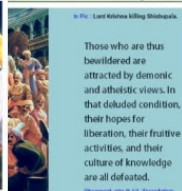

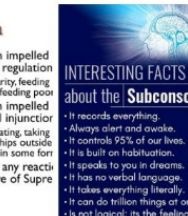

"In the Age of Kali only one fourth of the religious principles remains. That last remnant will continuously be decreased by the ever-increasing principles of irreligion and will finally be destroyed.... greedy, ill-behaved and merciless, and they fight one another without good reason. Unfortunate and obsessed with material desires, the people of Kali-yuga are almost all śūdras and barbarians."- Srimad Bhagavatam 12.3.24-25)

Karma, Akarma, Vikarma

- Karma or sakarma (action): Action impelled three modes but as per scriptural regulation
 - Performing one's prescribed duty, charity, feeding poor
- Vikarma (forbidden action): Action impelled three modes but against scriptural injunction
 - Cheating, exploiting, abortion, meat eating, taking intoxicants, stealing, physical relationships outside marriage, watching forbidden actions in some form
- Akarma (inaction): action without any reaction
 - Action carried out for the pleasure of Supreme Lord Krishna

16. CIA KNOWS ABOUT..

"Although perceived, the transformation of even a single atom of material nature has no ultimate definition without reference to the Supreme Soul. To be accepted as factually existing, something must possess the same quality as pure spirit — eternal, unchanging existence.

There is no material duality in the Absolute Truth. The duality perceived by an ignorant person is like the difference between the sky contained in an empty pot and the sky outside the pot, or the difference between the reflection of the sun in water and the sun itself in the sky, or the difference between the vital air within one living body and that within another body.

According to their different purposes, men utilize gold in various ways, and gold is therefore perceived in various forms. In the same way, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is inaccessible to material senses, is described in various terms, both ordinary and Vedic, by different types of men.

Although a cloud is a product of the sun and is also made visible by the sun, it nevertheless creates darkness for the viewing eye, which is another partial expansion of the sun. Similarly, material false ego, a particular product of the Absolute Truth made visible by the Absolute Truth, obstructs the individual soul, another partial expansion of the Absolute Truth, from realizing the Absolute Truth.

When the cloud originally produced from the sun is torn apart, the eye can see the actual form of the sun. Similarly, when the spirit soul destroys his material covering of false ego by inquiring into the transcendental science, he regains his original spiritual awareness.

My dear Parīkṣit, when the illusory false ego that binds the soul has been cut off with the sword of discriminating knowledge and one has developed realization of Lord Acyuta, the Supreme Soul, this is called the ātyantika, or ultimate, annihilation of material existence.

Experts in the subtle workings of nature, O subduer of the enemy, have declared that there are continuous processes of creation and annihilation that all created beings, beginning with Brahmā, constantly undergo.

All material entities undergo transformation and are constantly and swiftly eroded by the mighty currents of time. The various stages of existence that material things exhibit are the perpetual causes of their generation and annihilation..

These stages of existence created by beginningless and endless time, the impersonal representative of the Supreme Lord, are not visible, just as the infinitesimal momentary changes of position of the planets in the sky cannot be directly seen.

..For a person who is suffering in the fire of countless miseries and who desires to cross the insurmountable ocean of material existence, there is no suitable boat except that of cultivating devotion to the transcendental taste for the narrations of the Supreme Personality of Godhead's pastimes."

17. BLUE BEINGS

Bhagvad Gita and Srimad Bhagvatam is not a fantasy, or mythology, it is documented history of important facts. It covers incarnations of the source of all incarnations (Avatari)- Krishna and glorifies true spiritual knowledge. Some of the context has even inspired fantasy movies for disclosures. There is some truth in them too. Interestingly, blue beings are in vogue in recent blockbusters.

Higher consciousness reality is about working in God consciousness for no matter what you do. It is all about dovetailing.

To raise consciousness we need to act in knowledge and let go of lower emotions. Raising vibrations is also about forgiveness #soulfamily. And God knows we have come a long way on the fighting path. We cannot proceed to higher consciousness whilst anchored to negative attachments. The only way is to move forward is to let go of the anchor.

"One who thinks himself lower than the grass, who is more tolerant than a tree, and who does not expect personal honor but is always prepared to give all respect to others, can very easily always chant the holy name of the Lord."- Sikshatakam

Everybody takes one body after another body, with each comes a different dimension of reality. Each has its own world and dualities. With knowledge we can see the different dimensions of various bodily experiences. But those who cannot, see it as birth and death. We have discussed so many inspirational stories on this.

"For the soul there is never birth nor death. Nor, having once been, does he ever cease to be. He is unborn, eternal, ever-existing, undying and primeval. He is not slain when the body is slain." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.20)

We need to believe to see the transition, most people want to see to believe. This is a matter of faith as discussed in the following lecture in comments. Faith in God and power of devotion raises our vibrations as we are in direct association with God. This enhances spiritual enjoyment within this world and spiritualises all karma. This qualifies us to go back to Spiritual planets so we may engage in similar activities in God/Krishna consciousness.

While we are here and we should see God in everyone, it is just easier when everyone is a devotee. Even the most backward tribal society has a religion and some God consciousness, we must take advantage of it. There is unconditional love when we see God in everyone, in nature and its workings. Then all negative thoughts are slowly dissipated as all senses are engaged in God consciousness. It is the atheistic view of material enjoyments that has binds us to material attachments.

"It is lust only, Arjuna, which is born of contact with the material mode of passion and later transformed into wrath, and which is the all-devouring sinful enemy of this world." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 3.37)

God is source of love and light. Once that is put in the centre of the heart it lights up the body. This light allows us to see everything for what it truly is - will of God. There can be nothing else.

18. FORGOTTEN LEGENDS

"And some things that should not have been forgotten were lost. History became legend. Legend became myth. And for two and a half thousand years, the ring passed out of all knowledge."-
The Lord of the Rings

Not sure what your take is on Darwinian Evolution theory #soulfamily but this is an interesting documentary on temple supposedly built in Satya Yuga.

"By human calculation, a thousand ages taken together is the duration of Brahma's one day. And such also is the duration of his night.

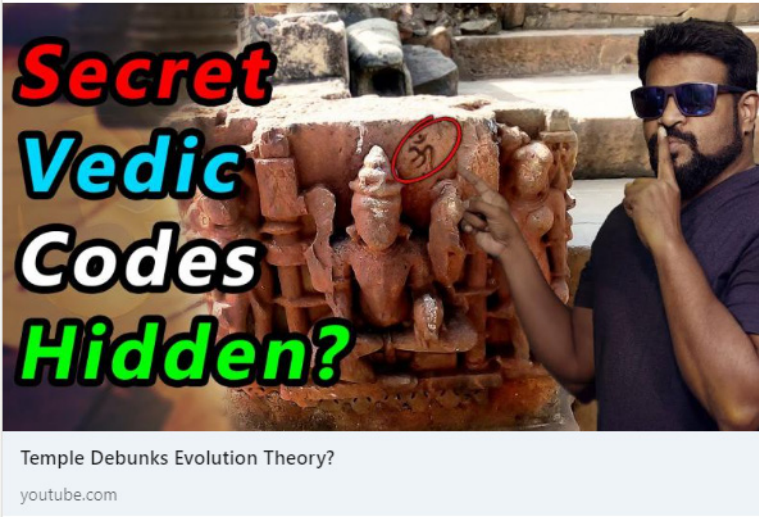

When Brahma's day is manifest, this multitude of living entities comes into being, and at the arrival of Brahma's night they are all annihilated

Again and again the day comes, and this host of beings is active; and again the night falls, O Partha, and they are helplessly dissolved.

Yet there is another nature, which is eternal and is transcendental to this manifested and unmanifested matter. It is supreme and is never annihilated. When all in this world is annihilated, that part remains as it is.

That supreme abode is called unmanifested and infallible, and it is the supreme destination. When one goes there, he never comes back. That is My supreme abode.

The Supreme Personality of Godhead, who is greater than all, is attainable by unalloyed devotion. Although He is present in His abode, He is all-pervading, and everything is situated within Him."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 8.17-22)

19. KING JANMEJAYA

"Hearing that his father had been fatally bitten by the snake-bird, Mahārāja Janamejaya became extremely angry and had brāhmaṇas perform a mighty sacrifice in which he offered all the snakes in the world into the sacrificial fire.

When Takṣaka saw even the most powerful serpents being burned in the blazing fire of that snake sacrifice, he was overwhelmed with fear and approached Lord Indra for shelter.

When King Janamejaya did not see Takṣaka entering his sacrificial fire, he said to the brāhmaṇas: Why is not Takṣaka, the lowest of all serpents, burning in this fire?

The brāhmaṇas replied: O best of kings, the snake Takṣaka has not fallen into the fire because he is being protected by Indra, whom he has approached for shelter. Indra is holding him back from the fire.

The intelligent King Janamejaya, hearing these words, replied to the priests: Then, my dear brāhmaṇas, why not make Takṣaka fall into the fire, along with his protector, Indra?

Hearing this, the priests then chanted this mantra for offering Takṣaka together with Indra as an oblation into the sacrificial fire: O Takṣaka, fall immediately into this fire, together with Indra and his entire host of demigods!

When Lord Indra, along with his airplane and Takṣaka, was suddenly thrown from his position by these insulting words of the brāhmaṇas, he became very disturbed.

Bṛhaspati, the son of Aṅgirā Muni, seeing Indra falling from the sky in his airplane along with Takṣaka, approached King Janamejaya and spoke to him as follows.

O King among men, it is not fitting that this king of snakes meet death at your hands, for he has drunk the nectar of the immortal demigods. Consequently he is not subject to the ordinary symptoms of old age and death.

The life and death of an embodied soul and his destination in the next life are all caused by himself through his own activity. Therefore, O King, no other agent is actually responsible for creating one's happiness and distress.

When a conditioned soul is killed by snakes, thieves, fire, lightning, hunger, disease or anything else, he is experiencing the reaction to his own past work.

Therefore, my dear King, please stop this sacrificial performance, which was initiated with the intent of doing harm to others. Many innocent snakes have already been burned to death..

This is indeed the Supreme Lord Viṣṇu's illusory energy, which is unstoppable and difficult to perceive. Although the individual spirit souls are part and parcel of the Lord, through the influence of this illusory energy they are bewildered by their identification with various material bodies." -Srimad Bhagvatam 12.6.16-29

As Humans we can be very powerful; the power rests in our spiritual potency not technology. It's just that sometimes we get cursed and sometimes we accept a humble circumstance to learn our lessons in the 3D reality. Sometimes it is for ourselves and sometimes for others. There are many worlds. Are we waking up to our true spiritual identities and goals #soulfamily?

20. SOCIAL MEMORY COMPLEX

Everyone becomes a part of a social memory complex based on their level of consciousness. Some fall to the level of animals and some becomes part of a Galactic federation, the world without is the world within.

"The human form of life affords one a chance to return home, back to Godhead. Therefore every living entity, especially in the human form of life, must engage in devotional service to the lotus feet of Lord Viṣṇu/Krishna. This devotional service is natural because Lord Vishnu/Krishna, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, is the most beloved, the master of the soul, and the well-wisher of all other living beings."- Srimad Bhagvatam 7.6.2

As all Time exists simultaneously, there is no past, present or future. All that remains is the ever changing Now, and changing timelines in the eternal consciousness. Some are Service to self and some are Service to others, but God consciousness pervades all and is thus service to all. Lord Vishnu is the maintainer of all created beings.

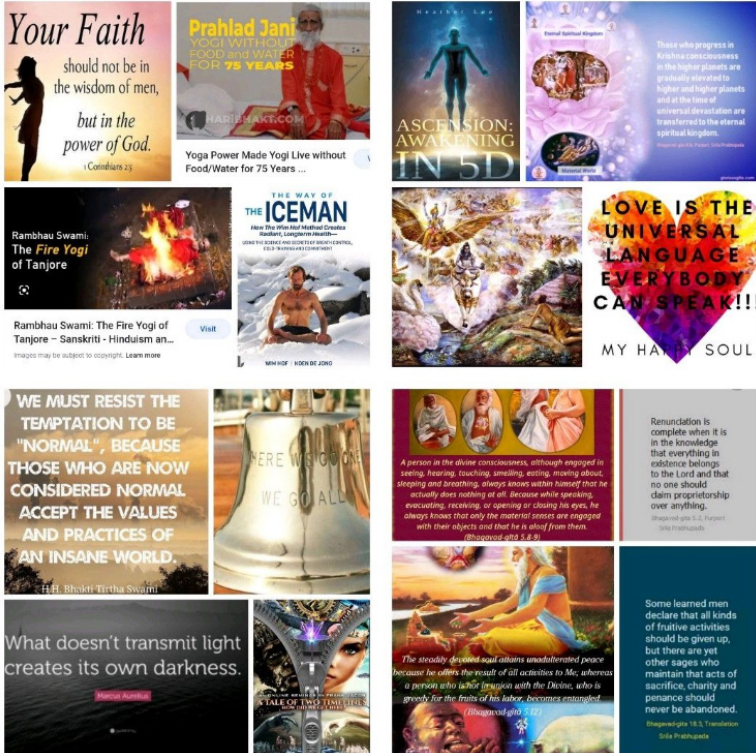

Everything material is just a layer of filtering that is used to do the mission we have for us. The true spiritual self is always the lighter side of Life. Our organic lifestyle keeps us more light bodied and inorganic makes it heavy. The lighter we are, the freer we become from diseases/hate, and the more connected we become to each other almost Telepathically. Thus, we ascend organically and are connected with others based on same vibrational level from a different Multi-dimensional perspective. Accessing infinite knowledge through tapping the Akashic records. This is our organic social memory complex. We see a fragment of God in all of us- divided yet united. Thus, we are delivered to the highest level of consciousness.

As we detox, so does mother Earth in Yuga cycles of time, cleansing the body and the mind of hate and division. To ascend into a higher density we will also need to become raise our consciousness. This will match our vibrations to that of the Earth. Anything that pollutes the internal/external atmosphere, be it technology, actions or emotions is of little use. This is a slow upgrade and has to be done through hard work and austerity. There are no shortcuts to Spiritual path #soulfamily. We choose our path by our karma. Is it where we go one we go all vs. the two timelines? What are we aiming for by our actions? God or no God?

By chanting the transcendental vibrations of the holy name we can raise the vibrations of the planet Earth higher and higher.

“Glory to the Sri Krishna Samkirtan which cleanses the heart of all the dust accumulated for years together. Thus the fire of conditional life, of repeated birth and death, is extinguished. This Samkirtan movement is the prime benediction for humanity at large because it spreads the rays of the benediction Moon. It is the life of all transcendental knowledge, it increases the ocean of transcendental bliss, and it helps to have a taste of the full nectar for which we are always anxious.”- Sri Sikshashtakam

21. NIGHT VISION

In Darkness/absence of light our ability to see is limited by the capabilities of our eyes. The night vision goggles do not emit light like a torch but enhances the ability to collect it for better visibility. Animals have similar abilities as well.

If everything is just a frequency then many non-visible things manifest in different dimension that perhaps we cannot see, but animals can. If we could then how would we deal with this ability? We are just conscious of the Matrix in 3D Wi-Fi we are tuned into #soulfamily.

Those who are seers of the truth have concluded that of the non-existent (material world) there is no endurance, and of the existent/soul there is no cessation. This seers have concluded by studying the nature of both. - 2.16

Is it possible that raising by our consciousness or raising our proverbial antenna by spiritual practices, could we access these higher/other selves on different dimensions/time? Their can be many levels and varied experience in past and future. We are from the future and past simultaneously but they are hidden realities that we are not be fully cognizant of for our own sanity. Space and time are not relevant to connect to our own consciousness at higher levels (past, present or future). This powerful feeling often leads people to know their spiritual identity but some think we become God's and completely sovereign. But God controls all yuga circles of time and we can only ascend higher in service of him. Only then are we gifted spiritual knowledge. How can then we be Gods? Service to self is path in wrong direction.

We can raise consciousness by cultivating spiritual knowledge which is only possible in human form of life- it requires ascension towards God consciousness. Human birth is rare.

"Eating, Sleep, Fear and Sex ; these habits are common between human beings and animals. It is the Dharma/God consciousness which is the special quality of the human beings. Without the Dharma, they are similar to the animals" - Mahabharat

The spiritualist on the path (future and past) of Dharma and God conscious understand that there exists a higher nature. The strength of their faith and spiritual knowledge is always tested. By their training and values they become Brahmanas/intellectuals.

"Peacefulness, self-control, austerity, purity, tolerance, honesty, wisdom, knowledge, and religiousness-these are the qualities by which the brahmanas work."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 18.42)

Its now time that the impersonalist Brahmanas of Kali-yuga, wake up to the personal aspect of God

"And I am the basis of the impersonal Brahman (all pervading energy of the lord) which is the constitutional position of ultimate happiness, and which is immortal, imperishable and eternal." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 14.27)

Effects of Sun on Human Consciousness

HEALTH AND LIGHT

We have a body, but we also have a subtle body, a body of energy that looks like our physical body. The subtle physical body is made up of energy, of light that vibrates at a very high rate so the human physical eyes can't see it.

The soul already has a spiritual body, which material body covers. My material body grows upon me—my spiritual body—but my material body is unnatural. The real body is spiritual. I am accepting various bodies that are unnatural to my constitution. My real, constitutional position is to be the servant of Krishna.

Los Angeles, May 13, 1973

The perfection of yoga, therefore, does not terminate in voidness or impersonalism; on the contrary, the perfection of yoga is attained when one actually sees the Personality of Godhead in His eternal form.

22. NIGHT VISION 2

Continuing from last post - when you begin to see God in every person and treat them accordingly then you may begin to see God in everything including the animals and elements. We are all connected.

Perhaps you may note that there are millions of elementals demigods running this school of material world on behalf of God as discussed in Vedic literature. And they have various departments under their control. They control these departments all over the world and are known by different names. Perhaps they can cover all regions/space because they can travel in time. One demigod day is 6 months on Earth. Travel in space is also travel in time. Space travel is time travel by the demigods and we have discussed many Vedic stories to support this. I believe Marvel's serial called Loki is an attempt to explain these workings.

The gathering of various demigods from a different timelines into one timeline would be a very rare event. Now how big and important an event would it be for God to incarnate here personally #soulfamily. So big that all the demigods would come to offer their prayers in ships/person.

"Whenever and wherever there is a decline in religious practice, O descendant of Bharata, and a predominant rise of irreligion—at that time I descend Myself.

In order to deliver the pious and to annihilate the miscreants, as well as to reestablish the principles of religion, I advent Myself millennium after millennium." - Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 4.7-8)

The opportunity would be so grand that some incarnate with him, some watch from the sky on their ships, some even take the form of plants and animals to be around him as in Vrindavan. Even the demigod fortunes cannot match the spiritual favour granted to the devotees of Earth. Gifted with scientific and spiritual abilities they could produce their own spacecrafts or travel without them.

"We are now living in the heavenly planets, undoubtedly as a result of our having performed ritualistic ceremonies, pious activities and yajñas and having studied the Vedas. However, our lives here will one day be finished. We pray that at that time, if any merit remains from our pious activities, we may again take birth in Bhārata-varṣa as human beings able to remember the lotus feet of the Lord. The Lord is so kind that He personally comes to the land of Bhārata-varṣa and expands the good fortune of its people."- Srimad Bhagvatam 5.19.28

The demigods described are the servants of God/Krishna placed in their positions for different roles. Their duty/work carries no karma so they cannot earn merits to progress higher into spiritual worlds. This is why many devotees light workers, star seeds etc. various other planets/realms come here to help with God's incarnation or missionary work.

If people want to study true ancient history then why do they not read Srimad Bhagvatam and Bhagvad Gita from 5000 years ago #soulfamily?

"Abandon all varieties of religion and just surrender unto Me. I shall deliver you from all sinful reactions. Do not fear."- Krishna (Bhagvad 18.66)

23. EASY LIFE

We are looking to make life easier and easier so that we don't even have to do anything or move anywhere. Perhaps the next step would be to let us experience the world from exactly where we are sitting - living in a Metaverse. Perhaps we are already in a 3D version of it?

Instead of going further into the digital world we should be aspiring for spiritual ascension by using our activities in the material world. Our modern civilisation has interest in exploring the universe out there. But ancients already described their connections to the stars.

There are rules to follow to go higher in consciousness #soulfamily. There is work to be done.

"This threefold austerity, performed with transcendental faith by men not expecting material benefits but engaged only for the sake of the Supreme, is called austerity in goodness." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 17.17)

I hope my posts have been insightful, inspiring or educational. Perhaps they helped answer some questions or raise some more and encouraged some to do research, analysis and introspection on your part.

I have managed to print the book WAKING UP #Soulfamily and it is now available both in eBook and paper back. The paperback is maxed to 830 pages as permitted by Amazon. Everything is printed in colour to be as clear as it can be.

Again, A free versions are available of www.wakingupsoulfamily.com. Your support to wake up the #soulfamily is much appreciated.

25. LI-FI OF THE SUN

Ascension is about raising the consciousness so that the consciousness of the planet can be raised #soulfamily. We can understand the nature of creation or being and God in this human form alone. To take in more God energy, there is a process of purification of body, mind and soul. We cannot force anyone down a path. We can help them reach higher states of consciousness by their free will to help them practice discernment.

To be enlightened we need to purify the body, mind and soul by austerities. Sometimes the opportunities austerities come sought

"The unsuccessful yogi, after many, many years of enjoyment on the planets of the pious living entities, is born into a family of righteous people, or into a family of rich aristocracy." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 6.41)

..and sometimes they come unsought due to adverse circumstances. Our hardships bring us closer to God.

"O best among the Bharatas [Arjuna], four kinds of pious men render devotional service unto Me—the distressed, the desirer of wealth, the inquisitive, and he who is searching for knowledge of the Absolute." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.16)

To be in service of others can bring pride. Humility comes from surrender to God. Hence our leaders need to be God conscious.

"Abandon all varieties of religion and just surrender unto Me. I shall deliver you from all sinful reactions. Do not fear." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 18.66)

That's why the devotees/ star seeds came to Earth, to help raise consciousness of Earth by raising our own God/Krishna consciousness. Bharat varsha used to refer to this planet now it has been restricted to India.

"We are now living in the heavenly planets, undoubtedly as a result of our having performed ritualistic ceremonies, pious activities and yajñas and having studied the Vedas. However, our lives here will one day be finished. We pray that at that time, if any merit remains from our pious activities, we may again take birth in Bhārata-varṣa as human beings able to remember the lotus feet of the Lord. The Lord is so kind that He personally comes to the land of Bhārata-varṣa and expands the good fortune of its people."- Srimad Bhagvatam 5.19.28

They say our ability to manifest increases with raised consciousness so it should be stated in unity and in God consciousness. Some unite the world and some divide it. The opposing forces sustain the Matrix for those who live in it. Once enough of us see past the duality the Matrix crashes. Surely not everything you see on T.V is true!

Could the ancients have inferior weapons but far superior temples and air crafts? They know not the power of higher consciousness of those times. They feel inferior because we are bent on destruction.

The polarity of time in the cyclical duality, sometimes becomes hellish and sometimes heaven. God loves all his children- he does not punish them. He let's them choose the path of reality they want to live in.

Work for unity in God consciousness #soulfamily

26. CONSCIOUSNESS VS. BODY

Supreme Consciousness vs Spiritual body. Both possess equal powers but one is in manifested stage and the other is unmanifest. Just like Radha and Krishna. There is no difference between the energy and energetic. Yet, Krishna is served and Sri Radha is the devotee.

The existence of soul continues perpetually. God conscious in impersonalism wish to be in stasis of light- Bramhajyoti. In bliss but see no point of any action while the Personalist devotees will do any action for the pleasure of God. Therefore, it is important to understand that the deity concept of God as state you desire to be like and serve in person or not. Of the 5 types of liberation one is merging into light. Rest 4 are personal.

Krishna does not like impersonalism either because he wants personal interaction hence

"Whatever you do, whatever you eat, whatever you offer or give away, and whatever austerities you perform – do that, O son of Kuntī, as an offering to Me." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 9.27)

The Bramhajyoti desires become the light of spiritual world, whereas the Personalist interact with Krishna/God with various incarnations of God. Everyone eventually is service to others and Krishna.

"That supreme abode of Mine is not illumined by the sun or moon, nor by fire or electricity. Those who reach it never return to this material world."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 15.6)

We are co-creators of material world also. How can we create a reality that we cannot even conceive or believe? Hence faith in the words of scriptures is a prerequisite. Conceive- Believe- Achieve.

As by tasting a few drops of sea water we can judge its quality but not its quantity. Similarly, we are divine because as we are part of God. Our ability to manifest a taste/potencies comes from our source. We just cannot just vibrate feeling of enlightenment 'like we already have it'. Even Lord in his incarnations had to earn his respect and love #soulfamily. But when it comes to giving he was magnanimous. We can earn a little but our capacity to be magnanimous like the ocean does not exist.

"Lord of the Raghus gave Vibhishana the same wealth which Lord Shiva had bestowed on Ravana when he had offered to sacrifice his ten heads to Him."- Ramcharitmanas Sundarkand doha 49

True unity happens only in God consciousness. The form he takes depends on our type of devotion. The war between Dvaita and Advaita is lot older than any other Spiritual war but it is in higher consciousness. Those who believe in personal God vs those who believe in an impersonal formless God in form of light. We can agree to disagree as long as we unite to believe that God exists. We can unite to help raise Gaia through God consciousness on the planet. We cannot organically ascend in Supreme God consciousness if we don't believe in God at all. Science based AI is after all- Artificial intelligence.

The organic ascension is growing new abilities. Can you build a story from 4 images?

Achintya-Bheda-Abhedha is a school of Vedanta representing the philosophy of inconceivable one-ness and difference. In Sanskrit achintya means 'inconceivable', bheda translates as 'difference', and abhedha translates as 'non-difference'.
 Wikipedia

Is the Prime Directive a good idea?

As a guiding principle, the Prime Directive seems good—one society interfering with and imposing its will upon another is generally bad. But the Prime Directive cannot be treated as an absolute rule. There are some exceptions where interference is warranted.

<https://www.wondriumdaily.com>

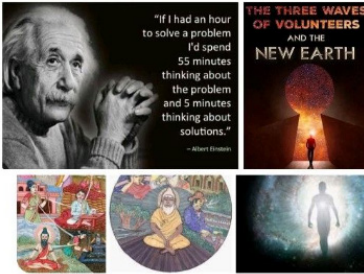

International Humanitarian Law (IHL), also known as the rules of war, applies to armed conflicts. It protects people caught up in armed conflict who aren't directly involved in it and restricts some of what participants in armed conflicts can do in war. IHL does not regulate whether a state may use force.

Infiltrate vs Invade - What's the difference?

IHL basics
 The rules of war are universal. The Geneva Conventions—critical to IHL—have been ratified by all 196 states. Very few international treaties have this level of support.
 Everyone fighting a war needs to respect IHL, both government forces and non-state armed groups.

As verbs the difference between infiltrate and invade is that infiltrate is to surreptitiously penetrate, enter or gain access while invade is to move into.

Reincarnation is the religious or philosophical belief that the soul or spirit, after biological death, begins a new life in a new body that may be human, animal or spiritual depending on the moral quality of the previous life's actions.

27. PETROL AND BATTERIES

Why is there a need for petrol or batteries? Because we want to go somewhere in shorter amount of time. But why are we running out of time? For the sake of inorganic material objects and vanity.

Can cars be started without electric batteries? and can engines run on water or other free energies - maybe something as easy as grass? Where is the need for factories to manifest so many unnecessary things? What is the need for so much money. Money is only an instrument of trade. If we think of our happiness first then we should do what we love. And trade in the things we love to make or enjoy doing. Money is just an added motivation.

But is that what happens today? Crying to work in traffic in our flash cars!! Many work from home, some don't want to go to work anymore. There is no love in what we do. What if AI took all the big paying jobs? What then do we have to do? Machines doing everything and we are only consumers. This is why we had the Vedic system of Varnas (classes/divisions) in the society. To engage the population in occupation of their nature. Equating simplicity to poverty of wealth and lack of wisdom is naivety #soulfamily. Conservation not Conversion is key to protecting nature.

What is the point of life? To work? To sleep? To play? Which child ever learnt by doing any one thing alone? The highs and lows of life keeps us alive and growing in a more wholesome way. Challenge yourself, but don't work for anything you don't like, don't be at dis-ease. All that you do you; do out of love. That is why it's important that we ascend in love and the only way to ascend in love is to be in God consciousness.

Then everything is really a service as God is in control. The true powers that be create synchronicity and everything is manifested in just the right time.

"The spirit soul bewildered by the influence of false ego thinks himself the doer of activities that are in actuality carried out by the three modes of material nature." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.5)

With growing light/Sun vibrations/knowledge we are connecting by our nature to our soul families and growing together in our collective consciousness. With Telepathic connections to those of matching vibrations we have come together as birds of a feather or one Varana/class of the Vedic society.

Hermits or Wizards, Priests and Sages
Same bird in different cages
In a spiritual war they must fight
Warrior monks then show their might

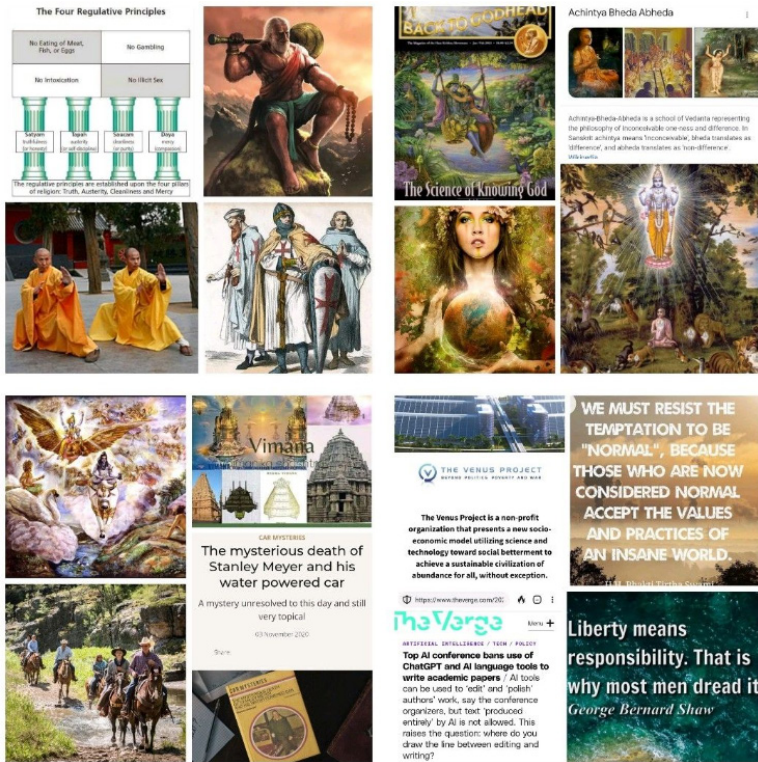

Bringing together science with spirituality
Focusing on a higher mentality
Holding Fort for God to win
Any other way would be a sin.

Where we go one we go all and everywhere
Challenge 'Achintya behda abheda' if you dare
There is Lord in all his Glory
In every Please Thank you and Sorry

All you have to do is see
Through some truth, cleanliness, purity and mercy
Ascension by realisation
this is the subtle Qperation

Unity and harmony is then only a matter of time
With love fear does not rhyme
Thus grows spirituality everywhere
A higher world of golden age we can all share

And so it is

28. DHARMO RAKSHATI RAKSHATAH

Imagine that you are the best scientist and magician combined. You can manifest anything instantly. You decide to play God and create new creatures by mixing human DNA with the animal DNA to create new more intelligent species. The creator beings only modified existing beings. Perhaps the shining ones were on borrowed light and genetic material. Are we from monkeys or Aliens or from God?

God is one and he is the source of all with no other causes. He is most beautiful consciousness taking the most beautiful form that is attractive to all species. That is All attractive God - Krishna.

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, who is inaccessible to the Vedas, but obtainable by pure unalloyed devotion of the soul, who is without a second, who is not subject to decay, is without a beginning, whose form is endless, who is the beginning, and the eternal puruṣa; yet He is a person possessing the beauty of blooming youth." - Brahma Damhita 5.33

He is complete in all his beauty and abilities and doesn't need a maternal womb to create from his seed.

"I am the goal, the sustainer, the master, the witness, the abode, the refuge and the most dear friend. I am the creation and the annihilation, the basis of everything, the resting place and the eternal seed." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 9.18)

His body is spiritual with all its glory. We are in his image too but not in all his Glory.

"Kṛṣṇa who is known as Govinda is the Supreme Godhead. He has an eternal blissful spiritual body. He is the origin of all. He has no other origin and He is the prime cause of all causes."-

Brahma samhita

We are all dependent beings on that one scientist. We have the ability to co-create more and yet everything is a part of his spiritual being. Krishna is in control at all times because we have his spiritual DNA without which life is not possible. He connects to us via the Li-fi of the Sun, thus awakening the seekers. His creations creating, maintaining and destroying continuously, yet he remains totally renounced. So inextricably connected yet so aloof.

"The Personality of Godhead is perfect and complete, and because He is completely perfect, all emanations from Him, such as this phenomenal world, are perfectly equipped as complete wholes. Whatever is produced of the Complete Whole is also complete in itself. Because He is the Complete Whole, even though so many complete units emanate from Him, He remains the complete balance." - Sri Isopanishad

Are you waking up to advanced technology of God? The material technology is not a match.

"You are without origin, middle or end. Your glory is unlimited. You have numberless arms, and the sun and moon are Your eyes. I see You with blazing fire coming forth from Your mouth, burning/lighting this entire universe by Your OWN radiance." - Arjuna (Bhagavad Gita 11.19)

What is the biggest Vedic symbol on the moon? What is the biggest Vedic symbol on Earth #soulfamily? What are the 4 pillars of Dharma?

29. BHAGAVAN- SUPREME PERSONALITY OF GODHEAD

People like to see God in themselves but not see God in others or God as independent Personality. They think of their higher selves but not of Supreme. Serving a higher self means trying to follow the instructions of the higher self because that planet/realm is the higher matrix we come from. If some of you are talking to God a lot, then you probably are already in the Spiritual world.

“I am in everyone’s heart as the Supersoul. As soon as one desires to worship some demigod, I make his faith steady so that he can devote himself to that particular deity.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 7.21)

The new generation is proving the past- knowings and wisdom of these times are rewriting history by going backwards in time to the true ancient pasts. Our link to the future is connected to the past we had, the one we want. Future in which we were all united and not separated by meaningless differences of shapes, sizes and colours. We are upgrading consciousness and becoming who we wanted to be.

“Whatever state of being one remembers when he quits his body, that state he will attain without fail.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 8.6)

Some say the world ended in 2012, and we are living in a parallel universe, because we are observing many Mandela effects. Speculating that world ended but we did not quit the body but shifted into a positive timeline. How many of us have been doing lightwork since before then? The lightworkers in God consciousness have always been busy.

Waking up #Soulfamily

It is speculated that with rise in vibrations of collective consciousness the process of waking up is speeding. Connecting to our higher selves we are behaving differently to match our true nature - going maskless if you will.

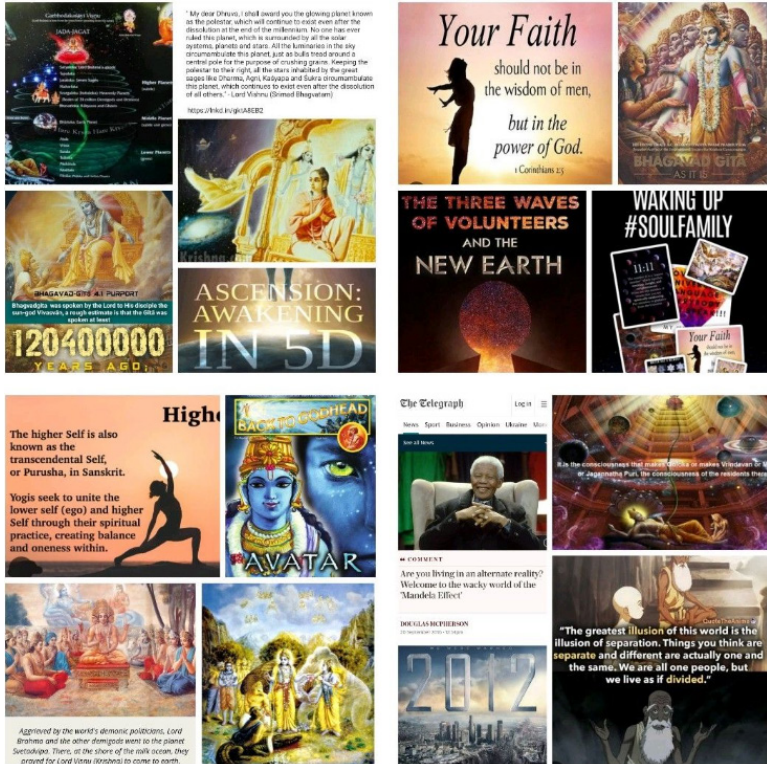

As humans, are we the ones we are waiting for? Star seeds/Demigods are from distant planets, with different life spans that would cover many past, present, future human incarnations. I have shared many stories depicting the relativity of time as per Vedic knowledge.

"Those who worship the demigods will take birth among the demigods; those who worship ghosts and spirits will take birth among such beings; those who worship ancestors go to the ancestors; and those who worship Me will live with Me." - Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 9.25)

To connect with our families at this juncture is not remembering but to start living it too. Living our higher character. What better way to wake up than to unite in higher consciousness with lovely #soulfamily that match our vibrations and true nature. The only way to unite is to rise above the bodily concept of life and identify as a fragment of the Supreme person that lives in the everyones heart - To unite in God/Krishna consciousness.

"In this age of quarrel and hypocrisy the only means of deliverance is chanting the holy name of the Lord. There is no other way. There is no other way. There is no other way."- Brhan-Naradiya Purana and Chaitanya Charitamrata

30. MIDDLE EARTH AND OTHER EARTHS

There were different races inhabiting Middle Earth as per the Lord of the Rings book/movie. Some living in forests eating fruits and vegetables, slender, smart and no traces of aging. The residents of shire close to nature and happy. The shady humans of towns looking untidy and unscrupulous. The history of the 9 kings to back it up. The dwarves endeavoring for gems of earth and trading for riches. And then there were orcs and Ents. Where on that scale would we be sitting based on our lifestyle #soulfamily? Can those in love and light force anyone into compliance or force anyone into noncompliance?

"Under illusion you are now declining to act according to My direction. But, compelled by the work born of your own nature, you will act all the same, O son of Kuntī." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 18.60)

The consciousness of laid back hobbits vs. proud industrious dwarves of mines vs. elegant elves of forests and human warriors of towns. It's the variety that adds the flavour to the unity. The story would not have been possible without characters of different natures, sometimes friendly and sometimes opposing. At the raised consciousness level you will see everyone as just acting out their natures. The duality of good and bad is relative to our point of observation. The same nature that produces butterflies also produces vultures. If Middle Earth had such variety then what of other Earths that Tolkien had thought of?

In God consciousness we act for no other reason than the pleasure of God and Good. As his parts and parcels we desire benefit of all. The polar opposites are to serve the self alone. All activity is the balancing force of the polar opposites and the soul needs activity.

The task of creation, maintenance and destruction is done by Brahma, Vishnu and Siva using the respective allocated modes of nature - Passion, Goodness and Ignorance.

As soul likes activity so does the God/Supersoul. For his experience, sometimes the devotees come in material world as devotees like Arjuna, Hanuman and Prahalad etc. And sometimes devotees come down as his enemies- service to self types like Ravana, Hiranyakashipu etc.

In either case they are unconscious of their higher/eternal self. The pre-planned subconscious mind guides our thoughts to work according to our body and nature. The conscious mind must be trained to rise higher.

"Earth, water, fire, air, ether, mind, intelligence and false ego – all together these eight constitute My separated material energies.

Besides these, O mighty-armed Arjuna, there is another, superior energy of Mine, which comprises the living entities who are exploiting the resources of this material, inferior nature.

All created beings have their source in these two natures. Of all that is material and all that is spiritual in this world, know for certain that I am both the origin and the dissolution.

O conqueror of wealth, there is no truth superior to Me. Everything rests upon Me, as pearls are strung on a thread." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.4-7)

31. RUSSIAN HINDUS

"From the agitation of the original modes within the unmanifest material nature, the mahat-tattva arises. From the mahat-tattva comes the element false ego, which divides into three aspects. This threefold false ego further manifests as the subtle forms of perception, as the senses and as the gross sense objects.

The secondary creation, which exists by the mercy of the Lord, is the manifest amalgamation of the desires of the living entities. Just as a seed produces additional seeds, activities that promote material desires in the performer produce moving and nonmoving life forms.

Vṛtti means the process of sustenance, by which the moving beings live upon the nonmoving. For a human, vṛtti specifically means acting for one's livelihood in a manner suited to his personal nature. Such action may be carried out either in pursuit of selfish desire or in accordance with the law of God.

In each age, the infallible Lord appears in this world among the animals, human beings, sages and demigods. By His activities in these incarnations He protects the universe and kills the enemies of Vedic culture.

In each reign of Manu, six types of personalities appear as manifestations of Lord Krishna: the ruling Manu, the chief demigods, the sons of Manu, Indra, the great sages and partial incarnations of the Lord.

Dynasties are lines of kings originating with Lord Brahmā and extending continuously through past, present and future. The accounts of such dynasties, especially of their most prominent members, constitute the subject of dynastic history....

Out of ignorance the living being performs material activities and thereby becomes in one sense the cause of the creation, maintenance and destruction of the universe. Some authorities call the living being the personality underlying the material creation, while others say he is the unmanifest self.

Although a material object may assume various forms and names, its essential ingredient is always present as the basis of its existence. Similarly, both conjointly and separately, the Supreme Absolute Truth is always present with the created material body throughout its phases of existence, beginning with conception and ending with death.

Either automatically or because of one's regulated spiritual practice, one's mind may stop functioning on the material platform of waking consciousness, sleep and deep sleep. Then one understands the Supreme Soul and withdraws from material endeavor." - Srimad Bhagvatam 12.7.11-21

"Those who are engaged in auspicious activities in devotional service certainly understand that the ultimate enjoyer or beneficiary of all activities is the Supreme Personality of Godhead. Thus when one acts, he offers the results to the Supreme Personality of Godhead and passes life always engaged in the topics of the Lord. Even though such a person may be participating in family life, he is not affected by the results of his actions."- Srimad Bhagavatam 4.30.19

32. DOVES REVISITED

The other day I was looking at the Doves gathered in my backyard. I wondered how they tell themselves apart. To me other than special ones based on my interactions all others look just about the same. But they all are different. Just like multi coloured of Budgies. But how would another species tell us apart from the others? How do other beings know us from amongst so many beings all over the world?

We all have distinct marks that allow us to be perceived at a different level. Our choices and karma define us by our level of consciousness. The action forms the energies around our body and give each of us a distinctive pattern of aural body like the budgies or like unique finger prints. We are judged/choose our vibrational colours of our reality perceived from a different perspective.

This happens in repeated lifetimes of evolutionary cycles. Each birth provides unique experiences. Only in human birth can we ascend into higher beings of choice based on our attractions.

“Bhagavan, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, is one who is full in six opulences—who has full strength, fame, wealth, knowledge, beauty, and renunciation.”- (Visnu Purana 6.5.47)

As Supreme PERSONALITY of Godhead The demigods and sages came to pray to Krishna while he was in the womb. He possessed full knowledge and power from when he appeared as a baby. He never aged past youth and never forgot his purpose/missions. His arrival was foretold in scriptures. He was attractive to all species by his vibrations. Unlike any other starseed/human/Avatar he was complete with all his qualities and displays them too.

When he comes to Earth he gave details of his residence in the Spiritual world and how to get there.

“Those who are free from false prestige, illusion and false association, who understand the eternal, who are done with material lust, who are freed from the dualities of happiness and distress, and who, unbewildered, know how to surrender unto the Supreme Person attain to that eternal kingdom.

That supreme abode of Mine is not illumined by the sun or moon, nor by fire or electricity. Those who reach it never return to this material world.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 15.5-6)

His supremacy and incarnations are confirmed by authorities.

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, who manifested Himself personally as Kṛṣṇa and the different avatāras in the world in the forms of Rāma, Nṛsiṃha, Vāmana, etc., as His subjective portions."- Bramha Samhita 5.39

"Your son Kṛṣṇa appears as an incarnation in every millennium. In the past, He assumed three different colors — white, red and yellow — and now He has appeared in a blackish color. [In another Dvāpara-yuga, He appeared (as Lord Rāmacandra) in the color of śuka, a parrot. All such incarnations have now assembled in Kṛṣṇa.]" - Srimad Bhagavatam 10.8.12-13

The soul already has a spiritual body, which material body covers. My material body grows upon me—my spiritual body—but my material body is minimal. The real body is spiritual. I am accepting various bodies that are unnatural to my constitution. My real, constitutional position is to be the servant of Krishna.

This is the energy of Christ, vibrating throughout the material history, in spite of its covering. The One who has surrendered into Me can transcend beyond it.

The Bible declares that, when we arrive in heaven, we will "see His face" (John 17:24), for we shall see Him as He is" (1 John 3:2). Just as our earthly bodies were of the first man, Adam, so will our resurrection bodies be like Christ's glorious body (1 Corinthians 15:47; Philippians 3:21). "And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven. For the one who has united himself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality" (1 Corinthians 15:49-50). Jesus was recognizable after His resurrection (Luke 24:16, 20-21; 1 Corinthians 15:4-7), so it stands to reason that we also will be recognizable in our spiritual bodies.

The chanting of the Hare Krishna mantra is revealed from the spiritual platform and thus this sound vibration surpasses all lower states of consciousness—namely sensual, mental and intellectual. — A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada —

Face recognition is its most studied aspect, but is only one of a number of access points to the process of recognizing people. One can identify people by their voice, their name, and other cues such as body habitus, personal belongings, handwriting, gait and body motion (Ardila, 1993; Bruyer, 1990).

"Vaimanika Shastra" has 3,000 verses in 8 chapters which describe the construction of vimanas. Depending upon the yugas, these are three vimanas

- Matsyika
- Taittika
- Riktaika

Pushpak Vimana

Pushpak Vimana comes under Matsyika Vimana. The divine antiskid

"Vishwakarma" created this Pushpak Vimana for Indra (Indra) which later came to "Ravana" (the wealthy God). Their finally, it was snatched by Ravana. This pushpaka vimana was able to fly anywhere in the world. The vimana was accomplished With great aircraft techniques.

33. DOVES REVISITED 2

Continuing from the previous post; we know everyone is of different quality, some have more of a certain mode of nature compared to others. Why then do they plan to have one education for everyone? One exam for everyone? One monetary happiness level for everyone? When everyone is motivated for different reasons! Everyone may not want endless money/promotions/responsibilities or flash gadgets. Not everyone is motivated/controlled by fear either. They are looking for peace and freedom. Why then violation of freewill by creating artificial means to control the population? We don't need experts to tell us that anything artificial goes against the natural organic body given by God.

"According to the three modes of material nature and the work ascribed to them, the four divisions of human society were created by Me. And, although I am the creator of this system, you should know that I am yet the non-doer, being unchangeable."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 4.13)

The Varna system (Social order based on occupation people love to do) was by freewill and choice because everyone has different nature. Beginning with the intelligent class of men/Brahmanas due to their being situated in the mode of goodness. Next is the Warrior class/ksatriyas due to their being in mode of passion. The mercantile/vaisyas in the mixed modes of passion and ignorance, and the sudras, or laborer class, are situated in the ignorant mode of material nature. In Kali-yuga we have the wrong people in wrong places for wrong motivations.

The Varma system of division is natural and organic. Anything achieved by force is against the law of freewill which should not be violated.

The nature of the soul is to be free and the soul is part and parcel of Krishna. People should be free to choose always. The law of karma is to ensure just that- for everyone equally. As people rise in consciousness they feel the pain of others. They do not engage in activities that may result in lower vibrations of shame, guilt, apathy and grief. The austerity of senses, pride, anger, fear and desire raise vibrations higher.

Now Imagine there were beings of darker/opposite intent (freewill) they thrived on Earth being in lowest vibrations of shame, guilt, apathy and grief to suit them. They would ensure people were always stressed and complaining and could not control their senses. Are the dark ones losing control?

"Those miscreants who are grossly foolish, who are lowest among mankind, whose knowledge is stolen by illusion, and who partake of the atheistic nature of demons do not surrender unto Me." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.15)

Are we waking up #soulfamily?

Do you see why God consciousness and Varna system are the key to unity in Diversity? Key to happiness, love and light. Key to rise of consciousness on Gaia in 5D and everything that follows?

Nature brings balance and harmony. Excessive technology is service to self (pun intended); it always tries to play God in the end. But Krishna/God always wins!

34. DEV BHOOMI

"You want society to accept you; but you can't even accept yourself." ~ Michael Fassbender

The Kardashev scale is a classification system for hypothetical extraterrestrial civilizations. The scale includes three categories based on how much energy a civilization is using.

Kardashev describes type I as a "technological level close to the level presently attained on the Earth," type II as "a civilization capable of harnessing the energy radiated by its own star" and type III as "a civilization in possession of energy on the scale of its own galaxy."- <https://www.space.com/kardashev-scale>

The problem with Technology based view is that it classifies progress by material growth and leaves the God/ super Consciousness out of the equation. When in fact all creation happens from God. It is our desire to play God that results in us looking outside ourselves for solutions that are within #soulfamily. Following basic principles could make us a human settlement that people want to meet.

"My dear Lord, You have already very scientifically described the symptoms of the total material nature and the characteristics of the spirit according to the Sāṅkhya system of philosophy. Now I shall request You to explain the path of devotional service, which is the ultimate end of all philosophical systems.

My dear Lord, please also describe in detail, both for me and for people in general, the continual process of birth and death, for by hearing of such calamities we may become detached from the activities of this material world.

Please also describe eternal time, which is a representation of Your form and by whose influence people in general engage in the performance of pious activities.

My dear Lord, You are just like the sun, for You illuminate the darkness of the conditional life of the living entities. Because their eyes of knowledge are not open, they are sleeping eternally in that darkness without Your shelter, and therefore they are falsely engaged by the actions and reactions of their material activities, and they appear to be very fatigued."- Srimad Bhagavatam 3.29.1-5

It is only with rising consciousness that we can meet Galactic counterparts. Technology is here today, gone tomorrow. God is here always and it is therefore important that core objective is to develop spiritual potency through God consciousness. Because if we were ever to be Godlike it could only be because of God's mercy.

"After attaining Me, the great souls, who are yogīs in devotion, never return to this temporary world, which is full of miseries, because they have attained the highest perfection.

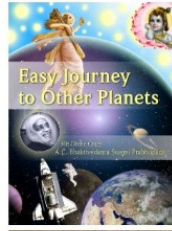

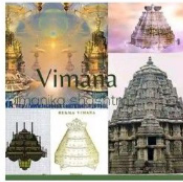

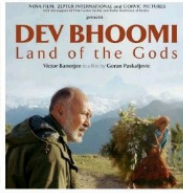

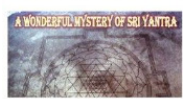

From the highest planet in the material world down to the lowest, all are places of misery wherein repeated birth and death take place. But one who attains to My abode, O son of Kuntī, never takes birth again.

By human calculation, a thousand ages taken together form the duration of Brahmā's one day. And such also is the duration of his night." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 8.15-17)

35. BRIHAD BHAGVATAMRITA

The ancients were long lives, healthier and happier with advanced technology and spiritual powers and yet lived simply.

The material entanglement of technological progress into materialism has only made us unhappiness, stressed, unhealthy with shorter lives full of diseases and disappointments.

"Those miscreants who are grossly foolish, lowest among mankind, whose knowledge is stolen by illusion, and who partake of the atheistic nature of demons, do not surrender unto Me.

O best among the Bharatas [Arjuna], four kinds of pious men render devotional service unto Me—the distressed, the desirer of wealth, the inquisitive, and he who is searching for knowledge of the Absolute.

Of these, the wise one who is in full knowledge in union with Me through pure devotional service is the best. For I am very dear to him, and he is dear to Me.

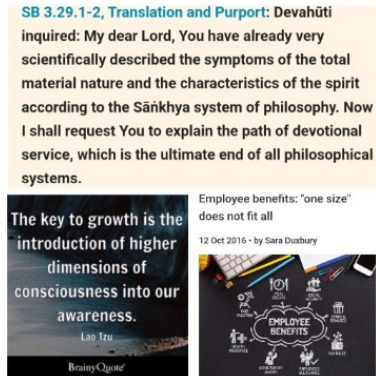

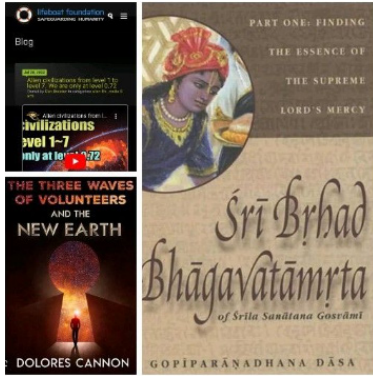

All these devotees are undoubtedly magnanimous souls, but he who is situated in knowledge of Me I consider verily to dwell in Me. Being engaged in My transcendental service, he attains Me."
-Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.15-18)

Ascension into higher planets in this body is not impossible and there are many levels to this Matrix #soulfamily. It has been done before as discussed in many stories already. A Story that gives details of gradual upward movement into higher material and then spiritual realms with some descriptions is written in Brihad Bhagvatamrita by Santan Goswami.

A young boy on the strength of chanting the holy name/mantra given by his Spiritual master ascended to heavens. He continues to go to higher realms, first becoming Indra, then Brahma and then entering the spiritual worlds of Vaikuntha searching for his Krishna. On the path to his highest goal he remains virtuous and focused on his one aim of meeting Krishna in person. In Vaikuntha too he ascends from Vishnu loka of dasya rasa (relationship as a servant) then moving into higher moods of personal relationships to Ayodhya, Dwarka, Mathura and finally Goloka Vrindavana. In Goloka Vrindavana he takes the form of the Gopa (cowherd) boy who gets the chance to play and eat with Krishna.

But spiritual world is already different to the material 3D world??

It is not easy for the conditioned body to assimilate the love of Godhead hence prayers, vows and austerities are required to stay in vibrations of God consciousness. Some on grounds of sovereignty will fight God to preserve their view of the Matrix. Spiritual cleansing must be done slowly through releasing the burden of pent-up karma. The DNA upgrades help us ascend in God/Krishna consciousness. The higher we go the more love for Godhead grows but some will fight it and the process is slower. This is why there is gradual awakening and conditioning of the soul/body #soulfamily. Stay focused in God/Krishna consciousness like the cowherd boy to ascend higher and higher.

36. PARSHURAM

The Avatars of the Krishna each have a certain purpose and the each Avatar has a different quality. Parshuram himself was an incarnation of the Krishna/Vishnu and destroyed the unscrupulous kings of the earth 21 times. But when in Ramayana he encountered the next empowered Avatar of Lord Rama he surrendered to him and gifted him his bow and asked him to destroy the heavenly realms that had become his source of pride and anger.

“On conquering the hostile cities and destroying the pride and strength of the enemy by its prowess, this celestial arrow of Visnu shall not go in vain.

The gods with the Grandsire, Brahma in the forefront, accompanied by sages in groups assembled there to see Rama holding that mighty bow. Gandharvas, apsaras, siddhas, charanas, kinnaras, yakshas, rakshasas and nagas also came there to witness that great wonder.

Then when Rama stretched the great bow, the world became motionless. The son of Jamadagni, Parasurama, bereft of prowess gazed at him with astonishment.

His energy subdued by Rama's prowess, the paralysed, Parasurama, son of Jamadagni spoke in gentle words to him whose eyes resembled the lotus petals:

"When I gave this entire earth to Kasyapa, he said to me, 'you shall not live in my country'.

O Descendant of Kakustha having gifted this earth to Kasyapa, I promised him that I would not live here, during night time. For the earth belongs to him.

For this, you should not destroy my mobility, O valiant son of the Raghus. I shall go to Mahendra, the best of mountains, with the speed of mind.

Strike with the, principal arrow the unrivalled worlds conquered by my asceticism. Do not delay, O Rama." - Valmiki Ramayana 1.76.8-15

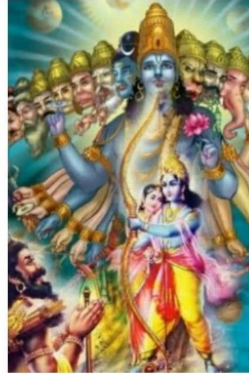

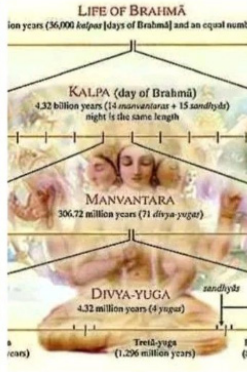

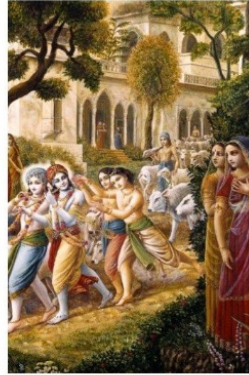

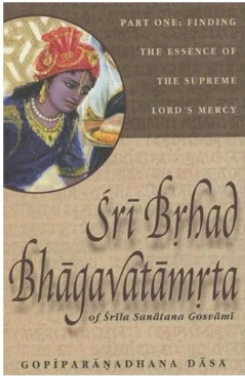

Lord Parshuram is still alive but lives in different realms in material world. The realms that can be reached by the power of mind or by power of spaceships. The higher the realm the higher the vibrations of the beings and slower versions of time relative to us. One day of Demigods is six months on Earth. We have to qualify for higher realms by raising our vibrations through good actions #soulfamily

As on waking from dreams we realise the illusion of dreams not to be true. Is it logical to assume then that there must be a permanent world that does not have an imposed limit on time?

"After attaining Me, the great souls, who are yogīs in devotion, never return to this temporary world, which is full of miseries, because they have attained the highest perfection." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 8.15)

We discussed from Sri Brhd Bhagvatamrita the story of a young Gopa/cowherd boy who ascended to Goloka Vrindavana and gained eternal youth in association of his friend Krishna.

"Lowest of all is located Devī-dhāma [mundane world], next above it is Maheśa-dhāma [abode of Maheśa]; above Maheśa-dhāma is placed Hari-dhāma [abode of Hari] and above them all is located Kṛṣṇa's own realm named Goloka. I adore the primeval Lord Govinda, who has allotted their respective authorities to the rulers of those graded realms."- Bramha Samhita 5.43

37. LIFESPAN OF SAGE MARKANDEYA

One of the greatest mystery of time is the story of sage Markandeya. Who lived a day of Brahma that hasn't finished yet.

"Authorities say that Mārkaṇḍeya Ṛṣi, the son of Mṛkaṇḍu, was an exceptionally long-lived sage who was the only survivor at the end of Brahmā's day, when the entire universe was merged in the flood of annihilation. But this same Mārkaṇḍeya Ṛṣi, the foremost descendant of Bhṛgu, took birth in my own family during the current day of Brahmā, and we have not yet seen any total annihilation in this day of Brahmā. Also, it is well known that Mārkaṇḍeya, while wandering helplessly in the great ocean of annihilation, saw in those fearful waters a wonderful personality — an infant boy lying alone within the fold of a banyan leaf. O Sūta, I am most bewildered and curious about this great sage, Mārkaṇḍeya Ṛṣi. O great yogī, you are universally accepted as the authority on all the Purāṇas. Therefore kindly dispel my confusion.

Sūta Gosvāmī said: O great sage Śaunaka, your very question will help remove everyone's illusion, for it leads to the topics of Lord Nārāyaṇa, which cleanse away the contamination of this Kali age." - Srimad Bhagavatam 12.8.2-5

The chapter and the one that follows are quite interesting. Did the sage travel in time through Astral travel to live the night of Brahma in the ocean of annihilation and return back to the same time as he had been. A form of travel via consciousness like the 20 and back program or something similar. The experience of the reality and realm is real to the point we remember every detail. Yet the time has not past yet? Not just a remote viewing rather a remote living where we can be physically in one place but mentally in another?

But it's not imagination if it can be validated by many others of great credibility.

"You are the Supreme Brahman, the ultimate, the supreme abode and purifier, the Absolute Truth and the eternal divine person. You are the primal God, transcendental and original, and You are the unborn and all-pervading beauty. All the great sages such as Narada, Asita, Devala, and Vyasa proclaim this of You, and now You Yourself are declaring it to me."- Arjuna (Bhagvad Gita 10.12-13)

Spiritual warfare is not like normal warfare where the intellect needs visible proof of victory- seeing is believing. It is on another platform. Victory over spiritual ignorance of God consciousness is self realised, hence believing is seeing. The spiritual beliefs call in the use of intellect and the heart to practice discernment. This is why Bhakti Yoga/ union through Devotion is Budhi yoga or union through intellect. it's a science detailed in ancient texts that require study #soulfamily?

"Thus far I have declared to you the analytical knowledge of sankhya philosophy. Now listen to the knowledge of yoga whereby one works without fruitive result. O son of Prtha, when you act by such intelligence, you can free yourself from the bondage of works." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.39)

38. TRUE NATURE REVEALED

I may have shared this Akbar and Birbal story before but I will repeat and provide context here.

During the time of the emperor Akbar in his court was a clever minister called Birbal who came to the rescue many times. Once a linguist came to Akbar's court and challenged anyone in the kingdom to tell what his mother tongue/language was. He was proficient in so many languages that anyone who would speak to him would think that he is from their region. When everyone lost they approached Birbal who was a bit of 'Out of Box' thinker. That night when the linguist was fast asleep he asked his servant to disturb him- a lot. In that moment of stress when no one is looking the linguist started cursing in his native tongue. The next day the linguist was shocked to know how his secret was discovered. In stressful times we also protect what we value most - this is when faith shows too.

Baptism by fire- Stress evolves us but also reveals one's true nature. Everyone has their own strengths and abilities. Hence the authority/power should be in the hands of leaders who are of high character.

In Mahabharata Karan disguised as Brahman received education of warfare from Sage Parshuram. Karan tolerated the pain of sting of an insect because he was serving his spiritual master. Such high tolerance to physical pain for pride is not the quality of Brahman but rather that of a warrior. He was thus cursed to lose his wisdom gained from deceit, when he most needed it. This played out in Mahabharata in his final battle with Arjuna.

“Whatever action a great man performs, common men follow. And whatever standards he sets by exemplary acts, all the world pursues.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 3.21)

Everyone is hiding their true nature for sake of more money. This is making people and society unhappy. The gifts of physical ability, mental ability and resourcefulness should be used with great responsibility in service of others to bring joy. These strengths used in right fashion for the benefit of everyone is the Varna system of society. Motivation is easy

“It is better to engage in one's own occupation, even though one may perform it imperfectly, than to accept another's occupation and perform it perfectly. Prescribed duties, according to one's nature, are never affected by sinful reactions.

Every endeavor is covered by some sort of fault, just as fire is covered by smoke. Therefore one should not give up the work which is born of his nature, O son of Kunti, even if such work is full of fault.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 18.47)

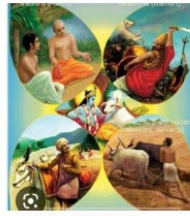

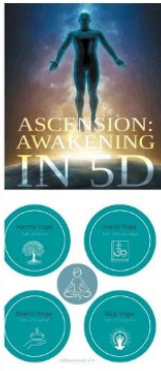

This is the shift the world is looking for in space or time must first be achieved in the mind- Conceive Believe Achieve

World ascending into higher consciousness cannot be led by leaders of lower consciousness. Hence a change of guard is required but how quickly we ascend in Unity and God consciousness depends on us too. The world within is world without #soulfamily. Evolution by Freewill!

Talking about free gifts- P.S.

www.wakingupsoulfamily.com

WORRY ABOUT YOUR CHARACTER, NOT YOUR REPUTATION. BECAUSE YOUR CHARACTER IS WHO YOU ARE, AND YOUR REPUTATION IS ONLY WHAT OTHERS THINK OF YOU.

Krishna consciousness helps one to get out of the material entanglement, even though one may be engaged in his prescribed duties. Therefore, without being fully in Krishna consciousness, no one should suddenly give up his prescribed duties and become a so-called yogi or transcendentalist artificially. It is better to be situated in one's position and to try to attain Krishna consciousness under superior training.

39. THE VALUE OF SPIRITUAL MASTER

"The spiritual master is to be honoured as much as the Supreme Lord, because he is the most confidential servitor of the Lord. This is acknowledged in all revealed scriptures and followed by all authorities. Therefore I offer my respectful obeisances unto the lotus feet of such a spiritual master, who is a bonafide representative of Sri Hari [Krishna]." - Sri Guru astaka

Guru or spiritual master is important because in absence of a teacher's instructions our understanding and intent remains imperfect. No sooner do we try to understand God by some spiritual or technological knowledge, we try to become God. The way to keep the soul focused on God consciousness in humility is to ensure the service to others attitude which begins with service to Teachers/Spiritual masters who provide knowledge of God. To understand that our physical and mental development is in debt of those who came before us. It is an important part of stages of devotion.

'In the beginning there must be faith. Then one becomes interested in associating with pure devotees. Thereafter one is initiated by the spiritual master and executes the regulative principles under his orders. Thus one is freed from all unwanted habits and becomes firmly fixed in devotional service. Thereafter, one develops taste and attachment. This is the way of sādhanabhakti, the execution of devotional service according to the regulative principles. Gradually emotions intensify, and finally there is an awakening of love. This is the gradual development of love of Godhead for the devotee interested in Kṛṣṇa consciousness.' - Chaitanya Charitamrata Madya 23.14-15

This understanding of scriptures is understood better from a realised teacher/guide and not from academics. The four Sampradayas of the Vedic civilization maintain this knowledge in great detail, which is handed down in discipline succession. When the faith in the Master/institution/scriptures is lost the sampradaya link is broken and knowledge lost and misrepresented. The demigods are not equal to God and neither are we. Nor is God impersonal. He has complete control of all things, at all times, everywhere, but we cannot conceive it and thus people think God is impersonal. Yet some progress is better than Atheism.

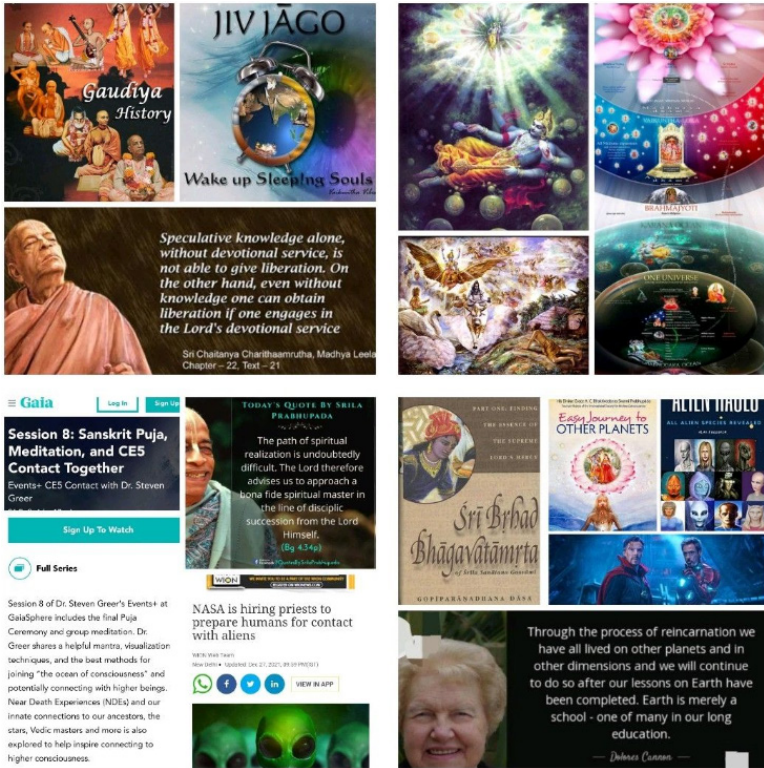

"In this endeavor there is no loss or diminution, and a little advancement on this path can protect one from the most dangerous type of fear."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.40)

Have you by your freewill raised your vibrations #soulfamily?

"Pure devotional service rendered to the Supreme Lord is spiritually so potent that simply by hearing about such transcendental service, by chanting its glories in response, by meditating on it, by respectfully and faithfully accepting it, or by praising the devotional service of others, even persons who hate the demigods and all other living beings can be immediately purified." - Srimad Bhagavatam 11.2.12

40. SIGNATURE OF GOD

We have discussed how parents have a part of them in the child and that is encoded in the DNA. This is the organic life form grown in organic way and is capable of producing more. This power of DNA is the signature of God in you.

"The Personality of Godhead is perfect and complete, and because He is completely perfect, all emanations from Him, such as this phenomenal world, are perfectly equipped as complete wholes. Whatever is produced of the Complete Whole is also complete in itself. Because He is the Complete Whole, even though so many complete units emanate from Him, He remains the complete balance." - Sri Isopanishad

When we clone people using DNA to produce matching body parts then we are not just taking a part of our physical form into the next body but also taking a part of our consciousness that is imbedded in the DNA. This is organic and is an exact match of us yet different. A slight modification and we have an animal or a vegetable. A removal of a clone form is it humane or inhumane? Yes because they are alive so harvesting life forms to sustain your own life is ethically wrong and should not be permitted. The same way eating meat is wrong. We are using another live person to make parts of our body cells and organs. The cells become us and we become the cells- we are what we eat! Mamsa!

Only warrior like who are in mode of passion or ignorance are attracted to fight and bloodshed and meat. Those ascended in consciousness will only eat that which does not require killing of sentient being. The ones who are of highest consciousness offer everything to the higher being first to spiritualise the light food. It is of highest light as it contains no sin at all.

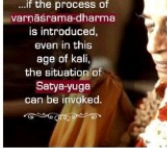

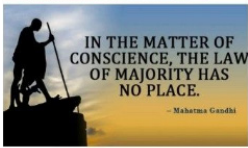

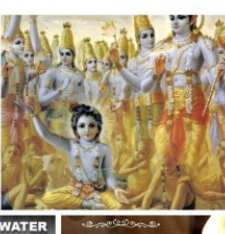

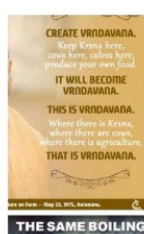

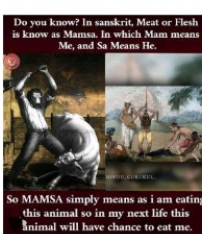

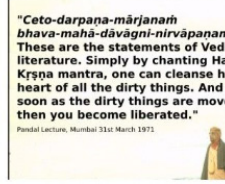

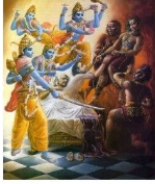

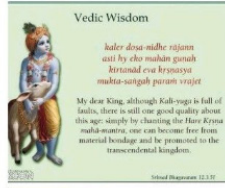

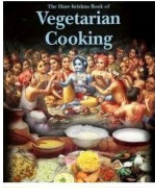

This is why offer our food to God/Krishna before partaking in it. Because only life can sustain life. Therefore, every food has sin associated with it.

"The devotees of the Lord are released from all kinds of sins because they eat food which is offered first for sacrifice. Others, who prepare food for personal sense enjoyment, verily eat only sin."- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 13.3)

We must understand that all beings even plants and animals in them have DNA of the Supreme Personality of Godhead some degree of consciousness. When we offer our food to God all sins are eradicated and is love established. But when we enjoy food purely for our senses and not caring for the pain of others and not seeking forgiveness then we are not in unity/God/Krishna consciousness. Do you understand love and compassion #soulfamily?

As part of a family we need to ask for forgiveness from each other and all beings. Even if that is in the mind. We need to forgive each other. We need enough people to forgive for Gaia to rise. The wars and disasters by the evil ones are a way of dividing the world. The sooner we get to that stage the faster we ascend the sooner we heal individually and collectively as a family and parts and parcels of God/Krishna. We are all connected.

Who wants their memory back?

41. PRAYERS OF SAGE MARKANDEYA

While we are on time, space, consciousness, God and intent

"Marjandaye Rsi to Lord Siva: Generally it is to induce embodied souls to accept religious principles that the authorized teachers of religion exhibit ideal behavior while encouraging and praising the proper behaviour of others.

This apparent humility is simply a show of mercy. Such behaviour of the Supreme Lord and His personal associates, which the Lord effects by His own bewildering potency, does not spoil His power any more than a magician's powers are diminished by his exhibition of tricks.

"I offer my obeisances to that Supreme Personality of Godhead, who has created this entire universe simply by His desire and then entered into it as the Supersoul. By making the modes of nature act, He seems to be the direct creator of this world, just as a dreamer seems to be acting within his dream. He is the owner and ultimate controller of the three modes of nature, yet He remains alone and pure, without any equal. He is the supreme spiritual master of all, the original personal form of the Absolute Truth.

O all-pervading lord, since I have received the benediction of seeing you, what other benediction can I ask for? Simply by seeing you, a person fulfills all his desires.

But I do request one benediction from you, who are full of all perfection and able to shower down the fulfilment of all desires. I ask to have unflinching devotion for the Supreme Personality of Godhead and for His dedicated devotees, especially you."

Sūta Gosvāmī said: Thus worshiped and glorified by the eloquent statements of the sage Mārkaṇḍeya, Lord Śarva [Śiva], encouraged by his consort, replied to him as follows.

"O great sage, because you are devoted to Lord Vishnu/Krishna, all your desires will be fulfilled. Until the very end of this creation cycle, you will enjoy pious fame and freedom from old age and death.

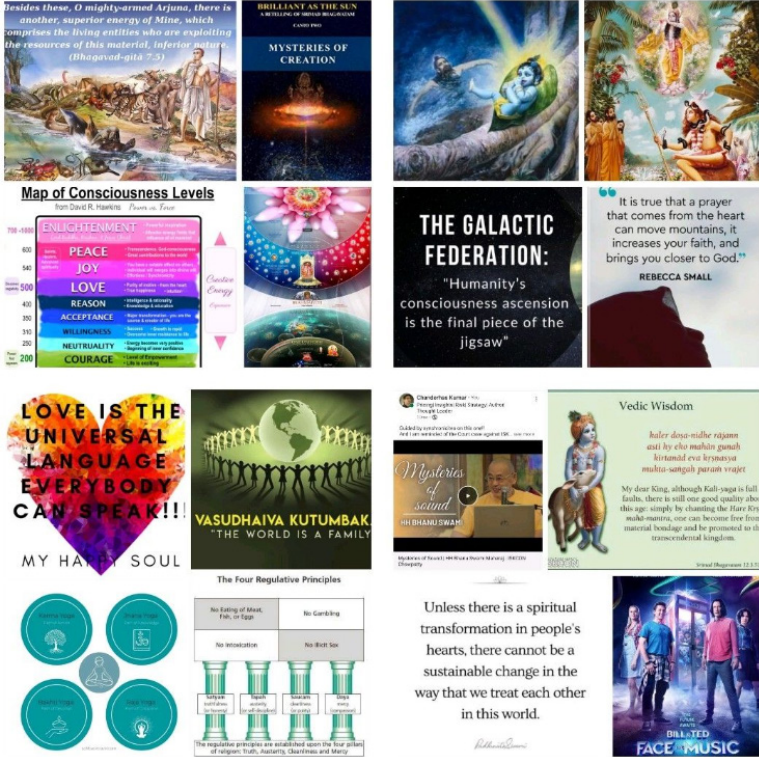

O brāhmaṇa, may you have perfect knowledge of past, present and future, along with transcendental realization of the Supreme, enriched by renunciation. You have the brilliance of an ideal brāhmaṇa, and thus may you achieve the post of spiritual master of the Purāṇas."

Sūta Gosvāmī said: Having thus granted Mārkaṇḍeya Ṛṣi benedictions, Lord Śiva went on his way, continuing to describe to goddess Devī the accomplishments of the sage and the direct exhibition of the Lord's illusory power that he had experienced.

Although this event was unique and unprecedented, some unintelligent persons compare it to the cycle of illusory material existence the Supreme Lord has created for the conditioned souls — an endless cycle that has been continuing since time immemorial.

O best of the Bhṛgus, this account concerning Mārkaṇḍeya Ṛṣi conveys the transcendental potency of the Supreme Lord. Anyone who properly narrates or hears it will never again undergo material existence, which is based on the desire to perform fruitive activities...."- Srimad Bhagavatam 12.10.39-42

42. THE LOTUS STEM OF PLANETARY WORLDS

We discussed time and space and different levels of realms of it but how do we get there? As there are physical stations for train tracks, ports for ships that use currents of the sea, Airports for planes or spaceships for travel in air/space, similarly there are stargates/portals that are used for longer distances/dimensions. We also discussed portals/wormholes of prayers that are guided to specific destinations. We have already discussed other portals like our own body, Vimanas and fire sacrifices.

Ravana and Kardama used Vimanas, whereas Sages like Narada and Durvasa can travel without spacecrafts. The Brahmanas were able to bring into this world Demigods or Demons by the power of mantras and fire sacrifices as in story of Vritrasura and Janamejaya.

The relativity of time is proven in stories of Balaram and Revati, King Muchukunda and King Indradyumna.

The various portals connect the various levels of material worlds of demigods and other beings and also Spiritual worlds. We have discussed many stories of beings from other higher and lower dimensions who accept human/animal births to fulfill curses or descend in avatar to Earth (Karma loka - Land of karma) to fulfill their missions alongside God/Krishna or his devotees.

“Into that universal lotus flower Lord Viṣṇu personally entered as the Supersoul, and when it was thus impregnated with all the modes of material nature, the personality of Vedic wisdom, whom we call the self-born, was generated.

Brahmā, born out of the lotus flower, could not see the world, although he was situated in the whorl. He therefore circumambulated all of space, and while moving his eyes in all directions he achieved four heads in terms of the four directions.

Lord Brahmā, situated in that lotus, could not perfectly understand the creation, the lotus or himself. At the end of the millennium the air of devastation began to move the water and the lotus in great circular waves.

Lord Brahmā, in his ignorance, contemplated: Who am I that am situated on the top of this lotus? Wherefrom has it sprouted? There must be something downwards, and that from which this lotus has grown must be within the water.

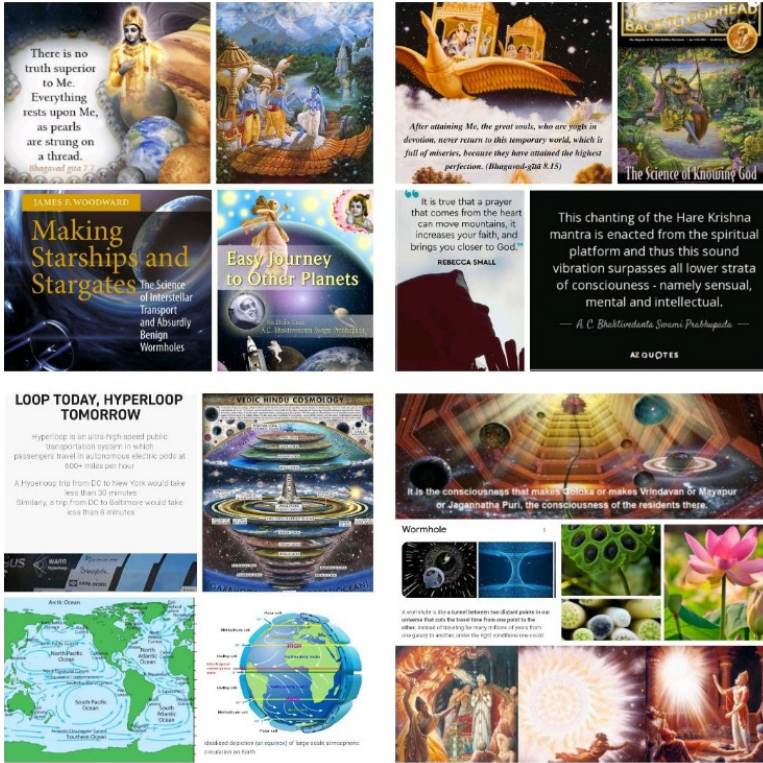

Lord Brahmā, thus contemplating, entered the water through the channel of the stem of the lotus. But in spite of entering the stem and going nearer to the navel of Viṣṇu, he could not trace out the root.

O Vidura, while searching in that way about his existence, Brahmā reached his ultimate time, which is the eternal wheel in the hand of Viṣṇu and which generates fear in the mind of the living entity like the fear of death.

Thereafter, being unable to achieve the desired destination, he retired from such searching and came back again to the top of the lotus. Thus, controlling all objectives, he concentrated his mind on the Supreme Lord."- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 3.8.15-21)

43. GOD'S VALENTINE

We discussed previously how Brahma even after physically travelling all of space within the universe could not find his source/God. So, he went within and meditated, and God revealed himself to him. We all are looking for a goal called happiness too, we just continue to search for it outside in material space instead of looking within. People are searching for God in space but for his devotees God comes down himself.

“The avatāra, or incarnation of Godhead, descends from the kingdom of God for material manifestation. And the particular form of the Personality of Godhead who so descends is called an incarnation, or avatāra. Such incarnations are situated in the spiritual world, the kingdom of God. When they descend to the material creation, they assume the name avatāra.”- Chatianya Charitamrita (Madhya 20.263–264)

Everyone wants to see Heaven on Earth, the golden age but we are hoping it will appear unopposed by itself but to be of value to us changes require our own efforts too. Everyone is so busy thinking that the world is looking at them when they themselves are not looking at themselves.

People want a Heaven with no God. Is that even possible? Sometimes people claim to be God consciousness but engage in wrong behaviours. Some leaders of many followers have the capacity and capability to do so much more but sit on the sidelines, watching and waiting cautiously but not acting. Time and tide wait for no man. We have to put our sails up before the wind will carry it forward. God will take 10 steps for our everyone but we need some faith and courage to take the first. He is always willing to reciprocate for love but what have we offered?

“The one Supreme Personality of Godhead is eternally engaged in many, many transcendental forms in relationships with His unalloyed devotees.” -Puruṣa-bodhinī Upaniṣad

Lord and his devotees come in various forms to spread the message of peace and love of God. We fail to recognize, learn and grow until it's too late and then we repent. There is an element of God in all of us too, that is what keeps us alive, we just need to look inside our heart. That is where the Supersoul sits. We just keep looking for our Valentine in sense objects.

“I am seated in everyone's heart, and from Me come remembrance, knowledge and forgetfulness. By all the Vedas am I to be known; indeed I am the compiler of Vedānta, and I am the knower of the Vedas”- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 15.15)

Perhaps we are used to waiting for super heroes or some magic show or a big event of change. But where is the faith in that #soulfamily? Anyone can do seeing is believing but only if you have love and trust can you do believing before seeing. But Krishna/God knows us, so he comes, he shows, it's written about then it's forgotten. And time cycles repeat.

But if time doesn't exist then we are always connected to our past, present or future as fractals of our higher consciousness in higher dimensions/planets. Thus the only time that exists to Act to raise and assimilate our higher consciousness through devotion is now. Open your heart to your supersoul.

44. LAW OF ATTRACTION FOR WHAT WE WANT

According to the law of attraction we should focus on what we want as opposed to what we do not want. One drives growth and whereas the other builds walls of security for Risk Management. The world has been doing lot more of risk management lately. Living in Fear, taking insurances of everything on top of building security systems. Big fences, guard dogs and much more. For our health we take out precautionary pills or jabs of multi vitamins and what not.

“Those who desire to give up all that is not essentially real move systematically, by negative discrimination of the extraneous, to the supreme position of Lord Viṣṇu. Giving up petty materialism, they offer their love exclusively to the Absolute Truth within their hearts and embrace that highest truth in fixed meditation.

Such devotees come to understand the supreme transcendental situation of the Personality of Godhead, Lord Viṣṇu, because they are no longer polluted by the concepts of “I” and “my,” which are based on body and home.”- Srimad Bhagvatam 12.6.32-33

The I and mine has created many walls. Is there anywhere in the world we are not building walls under the direction of our great leaders? Where is sovereignty of individuals within the walls? The surveillance systems are all around. How are you a sovereign person if our intimate details are recorded as a precautionary measure to be used against us? It is precautionary because we live in fearful society.

“One who is not connected with the Supreme/Krishna can have neither transcendental intelligence nor a steady mind, without which there is no possibility of peace. And how can there be any happiness without peace?”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 2.66)

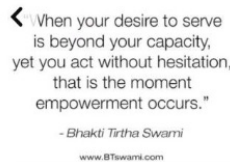

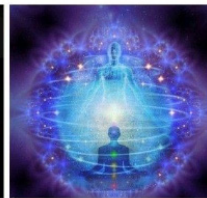

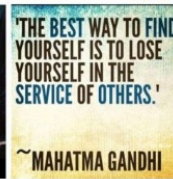

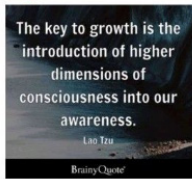

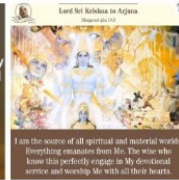

What makes us fearless is not our material understanding but the spiritual understanding of our identity. To see unity in Diversity. To create artificial unity is to live in a controlled environment. Truth and Freedom seekers do not need to be told what to do and they know and do. Speeches matter little compared to actions #soulfamily.

“Acts of sacrifice, charity and penance are not to be given up; they must be performed. Indeed, sacrifice, charity and penance purify even the great souls.

All these activities should be performed without attachment or any expectation of result. They should be performed as a matter of duty, O son of Prthā. That is My final opinion.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 18.5-6)

By being God conscious, we see God in control and God in everyone. We then look to offer love and serve and not be served. Now consider our own actions and picture the world we want, then focus on what needs to happen.

“A person who accepts the path of devotional service is not bereft of the results derived from studying the Vedas, performing sacrifices, undergoing austerities, giving charity or pursuing philosophical and fruitive activities. Simply by performing devotional service, he attains all these, and at the end he reaches the supreme eternal abode- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 8.28)

45. SUGAR IN THE CANE

If you have tasted sugar, then you may know sugarcane. You may know that for the sweetness to be extracted the sugarcane is crushed- repeatedly, to extract more and more juice from the cane. The crushing gets tighter to maximize production of juice. This is why sometimes devotees are squeezed more and more to extract more sweetness out of them.

"The Personality of Godhead said: If I especially favor someone, I gradually deprive him of his wealth. Then the relatives and friends of such a poverty-stricken man abandon him. In this way he suffers one distress after another." - Srimad Bhagavatam 10.88.8

The most sweetness is the love of Godhead this sometimes takes most effort to squeeze out. It is sweetest because it is based purely on faith. Faith in an unseen superior force that can help and is loving. This is God consciousness. Sometimes desires may not be pure in the beginning but it is still OK because we realise that there is a benevolent spiritual father/mother who we can ask for help. This is surrender.

"I am the father of this universe, the mother, the support, and the grandsire. I am the object of knowledge, the purifier and the syllable om. I am also the Rk, the Sama, and the Yajur [Vedas]."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 9.17)

The distressed are last type who surrender in harsh/unfortunate times of Kali-yuga. But some still resist and rely on material technology to make themselves immortal. These sweetnessless remains are pure materialists. The transcendentalists slowly separate themselves and ascended to the higher level God consciousness.

They thus associate with those that match their vibrations. As the extracted juice cannot go back in the sugarcane, the awakened cannot go back to sleep #soulfamily.

The four ages of time cycles do the squeezing of the material world by the way of Yuga cycles. Like a long movie it repeats for us until we ascend to higher consciousness.

"At the end of every four yugas, the great saintly persons, upon seeing that the eternal occupational duties of mankind have been misused, reestablish the principles of religion."- Srimad Bhagvatam 8.14.4

The Kali-yuga has the least juice and is therefore squeezes the population hardest to surrender to God. At the end of Kali-yuga there is no possibility of extracting and hence Krishna descends in the form of Kali Avatar. But that is a long way away and there is a plan to raise the consciousness before then. This plan was also given long time ago.

"My dear King, although Kali-yuga is an ocean of faults, there is still one good quality about this age: Simply by chanting the Hare Kṛṣṇa mahā-mantra, one can become free from material bondage and be promoted to the transcendental kingdom.

Whatever result was obtained in Satya-yuga by meditating on Viṣṇu, in Tretā-yuga by performing sacrifices, and in Dvāpara-yuga by serving the Lord's lotus feet can be obtained in Kali-yuga simply by chanting the Hare Kṛṣṇa mahā-mantra."- Srimad Bhagavatam 12.3.51-52)

46. TRANSCENDENTAL LITERATURE

"O great sages, I have narrated to you the wonderful pastimes of Lord Viṣṇu, as you inquired about them from me...

This literature fully glorifies the Supreme Personality of Godhead Hari, who removes all His devotees' sinful reactions...

This literature describes the mystery of the Supreme Absolute Truth, the source of the creation and annihilation of this universe. Also presented are divine knowledge of Him together with the process of its cultivation, and the transcendental realization one achieves.

The following topics are also narrated: the process of devotional service together with its subsidiary feature of renunciation, and the histories of Mahārāja Parīkṣit and the sage Nārada..

The Bhāgavatam explains how one can attain liberation at the time of death by practicing fixed meditation in yoga. It also contains a discussion between Nārada and Brahmā, an enumeration of the incarnations of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, and a description of how the universe was created in progressive sequence, beginning from the unmanifest stage of material nature...

The creation effected by the agitation of the modes of material nature, the seven stages of evolution by elemental transformation, and the construction of the universal egg, from which arises the universal form of the Supreme Lord — all these are thoroughly described.

Other topics include the subtle and gross movements of time, the generation of the lotus from the navel of Garbhodakaśāyī Viṣṇu, and the killing of the demon Hiraṇyākṣa when the earth was delivered from the Garbhodaka Ocean.

The Bhāgavatam also describes the creation of demigods, animals and demoniac species of life; the birth of Lord Rudra; and the appearance of Svāyambhuva MANU from the half-man, half-woman Īśvara.

Also related are the appearance of the FIRST WOMAN, Śatarūpā, who was the excellent consort of MANU, and the offspring of the pious wives of Prajāpati Kardama.

The Bhāgavatam describes the incarnation of the Supreme Personality of Godhead as the exalted sage Kapila and records the conversation between that greatly learned soul and His mother, Devahūti.

Also described are the progeny of the nine great brāhmaṇas, the destruction of Dakṣa's sacrifice, and the history of Dhruva Mahārāja, followed by the histories of King Pṛthu and King Prācīnabarhi, the discussion between Prācīnabarhi and Nārada, and the life of Mahārāja Priyavrata. Then, O brāhmaṇas, the Bhāgavatam tells of the character and activities of King Nābhi, Lord Ṛṣabha and King Bharata.

The rebirth of Prajāpati Dakṣa as the son of the Pracetās, and the progeny of Dakṣa's daughters, who initiated the races of demigods, demons, human beings, animals, serpents, birds and so on — all this is described." - Srimad Bhagavatam 12.12.2-17

47. INTERESTING POSTS

We are all curious beings, having a peek at what others have to say and then contemplating the topics and insights in our own time. But time can be relative to our space as we all know. Hence some of us based on where we stand may find my posts useless, marginally interesting, useful and some may even find them inspiring.

God has a method, there is no madness in infinite creations #soulfamily. Everything is very precise and timely. There is a science to the governance. Whether you believe in God/Krishna consciousness or not, based on your relative space. Nonetheless your curiosity has been aroused by various posts. That curiosity about divine God consciousness is the process of Waking up!

How awake you are and what how you choose to act is your freewill. As we have discussed in many posts Dharma and karma guide each individually.

In the age of information ignorance is a choice. We don't want to be ignorant about matters of money, politics, sports and catastrophes around the world but if we are happy to be ignorant about God then we do Co-create our own reality. Time will judge us based on our mental space and the vibrations it yields.

God's power is very scientific but appears inconceivable from our material perspective. He is attached to everyone yet detached from everyone.

"Those who are not faithful on the path of devotional service cannot attain Me, O conqueror of foes, but return to birth and death in this material world.

By Me, in My unmanifested form, this entire universe is pervaded. All beings are in Me, but I am not in them.

And yet everything that is created does not rest in Me. Behold My mystic opulence! Although I am the maintainer of all living entities, and although I am everywhere, still My Self is the very source of creation."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 9.3-5)

All paradoxes and confusions must reconcile in God. This is the inconceivable part of God that differentiates itself from a material rules of science that we get hung up on. This ocean of nescience can only be bridged by the Stargate of faith and you will notice all space and time will squeeze for you.

"O lotus-eyed Lord, by concentrating one's meditation on Your lotus feet, which are the reservoir of all existence, and by accepting those lotus feet as the boat by which to cross the ocean of nescience, one follows in the footsteps of mahājanas [great saints, sages and devotees]. By this simple process, one can cross the ocean of nescience as easily as one steps over the hoofprint of a calf."- Srimad Bhagavatam 10.2.30

This is a science of self-realization so if you get a chance this Sunday do associate with your church or temple etc. congregation. Open your heart and look for common connections not divisions. That way we can co-create the new Earth to live - Unity in Diversity.

Achintya bheda abheda- Inconceivable simultaneous oneness and differentness.

48. PRICE TO PAY

Does the elephant in the forest own everything or does he own nothing? Are the birds in the sky restricted by sky limits they can travel in? Is someone telling them what they can eat and what they cannot? If we are able to follow orders to the T then we are civilized?

Freedom is not a get out of jail pass, it is a right. The right to choose- Freewill. But rights for everyone. If we respect the rights of others we should have our rights respected as well. The animals do not impose their will on others they mind their own business: business that particular to their nature. Within that right they operate in the ecosystem of the forests. They have lives, families and are happy until we destroy their ecosystem off course. For our own material desires and expansions.

“He who is temperate in his habits of eating, sleeping, working and recreation can mitigate all material pains by practicing the yoga system.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 6.18)

Like animals humans are happy and in higher consciousness in love and compassion. Look at the children when they are young- no fear, no hate. But the modern materialistic society with an education system geared for exploitation and insatiable desire for more teaches them to be civilized in a particular way. The way of that society that buries the consciousness and the heart deep inside that we become desensitized to others pains.

The more we want the more the externalities that harm our environment and that of others. But do we stop? We race ahead to the path of collective destruction. Trying to get to the end before anyone else with bigger cars and bigger house and bigger holidays etc.

It's a zero sum game #soulfamily someone has got to lose. Who is it?

The solution to the world's problems is not new rules for societies but self-introspection. The solution to material problems is spiritual ascension. Voluntary sacrifices of excessive sense pressure for the benefit of others contributes to not only lifting out own consciousness but that of the collective. It heals us all.

“Acts of sacrifice, charity and penance are not to be given up but should be performed. Indeed, sacrifice, charity and penance purify even the great souls.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 18.5)

The disciplined mind is strong and compassionate heart is giving. If we do not realise the value of love then we drive ourselves into cages by our own freewill. The cages not for one lifetime but perhaps many as all debts have to be paid. That is the law.

“Taking shelter of insatiable lust and absorbed in the conceit of pride and false prestige, the demoniac, thus illusioned, are always sworn to unclean work, attracted by the impermanent.

They believe that to gratify the senses is the prime necessity of human civilization. Thus until the end of life their anxiety is immeasurable. Bound by a network of hundreds of thousands of desires and absorbed in lust and anger, they secure money by illegal means for sense gratification.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 16.10-12)

49. NEW AGE SPIRITUAL LEADERS

Why bring God into this? What has ancient religions and God's got to do with the disclosure movement? We are all equal just on a different planet? Yes and No. And you may know who I am talking about.

God is into everything. Not only is there is no God consciousness without God, there actually is no thing living or non living in all its glory and variety. This is 1000s of years old information- no IP protection here.

Some of us are now being exposed to this information in different ways that helps us digest slowly. Some of us are waking up. I have discussed many details of this in my posts and more can be researched if you like. All you have to do is open your mind and your heart #soulfamily. It's been a long time that facts have come to light, let us not try to make fiction out of them by making comics, videos and games. They are part of historical facts they need to be respected and learnt. If nothing is held sacred then nothing will be passed on as sacred.

When we don't pass something on as sacred information it gets lost and then people thing we are all same. Just on a different planet. Yes internally we are all divine souls a part of the Supreme but there is different between horse and a donkey. Based on our qualities the experience is of the body vessel we hold. Some experiences are more desirable than others and then there is perfection.

"The living entities in this conditioned world are My eternal, fragmental parts. Due to conditioned life, they are struggling very hard with the six senses, which include the mind."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 15.7)

The gradual progress from one life to another life is the ascension of consciousness for animal life. Humans can do one better through spiritual practices, that is their freedom but that is also their path to evolution. By cultivating God consciousness, understanding who we are in essence and what are duty is. It is visible that there are beings higher than other beings. Then there are even higher beings we heard of but have not seen. Even here there are levels still.

The only path to enlightenment is to grow the light within us. We cannot grow the light within us by connecting to ourself no more than a bulb can glow by plugging wires to itself. The bulb has ability to glow but it needs to connect to the source of power. The more the power the higher the glow. That power is God/Krishna.

No matter who you follow in the disclosure/spiritual community, at one point in the past or one point in the future they will always make reference to the Vedic knowledge and Vedic concepts of God and consciousness. God does not need technology to communicate, he is the technology of everything that operates, he is the ability and beauty of everything that is, was and will be. This understanding is critical to ascension in this body.

“Of all creations I am the beginning and the end and also the middle, O Arjuna. Of all sciences I am the spiritual science of the Self, and among logicians I am the conclusive truth.” – Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 10.32)

50. POWER TO REGENERATE BODY

"If you want to find the secrets of the universe, think in terms of energy, frequency and vibration"- Nikola Tesla

The thing with energy is that it is always in constant motion because energy needs to transform into something different. That is also the way of the soul. It needs activity and it thus over time it engages in one activity after another moving from the concept of conceiving a form of happiness, believing in it and then achieving it and then moving on. But all happiness like everything else on material platform is temporary #soulfamily.

"The living entity in the material world carries his different conceptions of life from one body to another, as the air carries aromas. Thus, he takes one kind of body and again quits it to take another."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 15.8)

It is possible to make fruits of all activities permanent by taking them to a spiritual platform in God/consciousness.

"Work done as a sacrifice for Viṣṇu/God has to be performed; otherwise work causes bondage in this material world. Therefore, O son of Kuntī, perform your prescribed duties for His satisfaction, and in that way you will always remain free from bondage."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 3.9)

The problem though is our constant desire for material sense gratification causing many externalities like diseases and pollution. The curve for time, health and happiness etc. is not linear it is cyclical and the process regenerates through the process of transformation by subtle changes in modes of nature over time. This is the good and the bad and all the lessons in between.

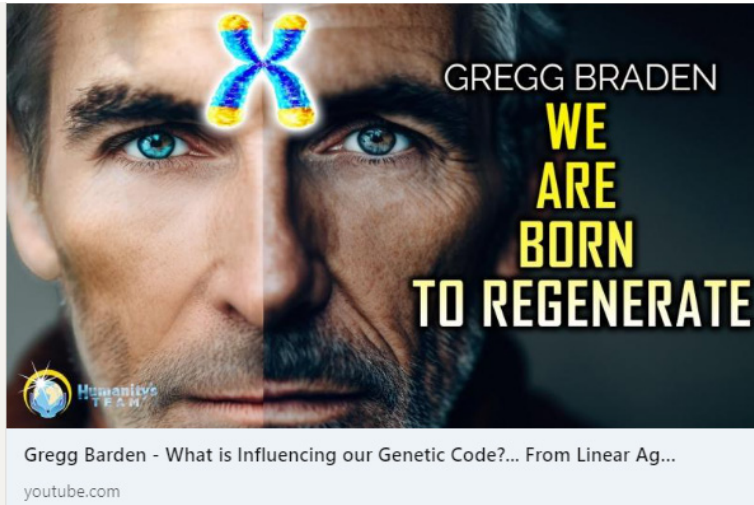

The key lesson is observed when we do the root cause analysis of the transforming energy. As energy does not stand still, the manifestation of a disease on a physical platform is not where the problem originates. However, our modern health/political system would lead us to conceive and believe that is the case and thus is constantly engaged in treating symptoms rather than the dis-ease. This is by the way of often injecting more poison in the system, sky, water etc.

Take for example emotion fear it leads to kidney problems, anger leads to heart or Lung issues etc.. We have moved away from old holistic healing for ourselves, earth and the political systems. Everything is about surgery, burning and poisoning. Ancient medicines took a bit longer but treated the root of problems and help us cyclically regenerate to good health. Our problems require a spiritual solution and focus on a stress-free life that is not in constant anxiety for material objects.

"While contemplating the objects of the senses, a person develops attachment for them, and from such attachment lust develops, and from lust anger arises.

From anger, delusion arises, and from delusion bewilderment of memory. When memory is bewildered, intelligence is lost, and when intelligence is lost, one falls down again into the material pool."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.62.63)

Nice short documentary. Do watch it!

51. SPIRITUAL REGENERATION OF GOLDEN AGE

Following from the post about regeneration of body and governing senses. I thought about Ravana the villain of Ramayana who had 10 heads and of Brahma, the creator of the universe who has 4 heads. They represent physical manifestation of unconscious traits. There are stories of how these heads manifested and also of what these heads symbolize. I will let you investigate them.

Then there are medical cases of conjoint twins. Where there are two hearts the bodies can be separated but with one heart the bodies cannot. Again, the personality of each head may well be different. Each head has its own thought pattern hence the symbolism around each head of Brahma or Ravana.

On a subtle platform there is subconscious and a conscious mind. The subconscious mind/ personality is tasked with a mission to manage the involuntary operations of a physical body and the conscious mind charged with conscious operations. They both operate on different platforms. Independent yet connected like the heads.

Then there is a level above still where two souls may combine to experience one body with only one head as we have discussed many times previously. We may have heard of passenger souls that possess people.

“The working senses are superior to dull matter; mind is higher than the senses; intelligence is still higher than the mind; and he [the soul] is even higher than the intelligence.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 3.42)

We are all parts of one whole Krishna with some independence. There can be no challenger to God. We are separated as eternal servants not masters and are job is to serve. Which in itself is the highest pleasure #soulfamily. The size and number of heads/Artificial Intelligence does not matter. What matters is number of hearts. We need to educate ourselves of physical body but also of spiritual body; for Good and God.

The incarnation of Lord Chaitanya captured the loving heart of Sri Radha in the body and personality of Sri Krishna to experience this love of devotion. The incarnation only some 500 years ago is real and so is the story and the emotions behind it.

“The golden Goddess Radha is known by the name Gauri and the dark Lord Krishna is known by the name Hari. Aware that both of them have combined, the wise call Him as Gaurahari.”- Ananta Samhita

“In the seventh manvantara, the Supreme Lord will, accompanied by His own associates, descend in a golden form. He will teach the chanting of His own Holy Names.”- Purusha Bodini Upanishad

Devotion is what we need to regenerate for a spiritual life of higher consciousness. The exercise requires control of lower senses and chakras before the heart can be opened to feel love and God consciousness. This is why the regulative principles to support the four pillars of Dharma are important. No golden age can ever manifest without it. The holy names are the heavy weights of divine consciousness we need to use in this Spiritual warfare. Peace is possible when we see God in centre and his unity in diversity.

The Four Regulative Principles

No Eating of Meat, Fish, or Eggs	No Gambling
No Intoxication	No Illicit Sex

52. OUR OTHER SELVES

If we realise that God is important and central piece to our society then comes the next question. How does he look? Some people are believe they are God. But let us give this a thought.

We have discussed subtle body and aura photography etc. already. Imagine if you will that this physical body is a 3D manifestation of a higher truer self that is unseen by anybody. What do think this truer self of looks like? Is it impersonal, formless body of light? Or is it a personal form that is beautiful in our favourite superhero way? Do you wish to exchange personal relationships with others? God is Supreme consciousness and is also personal because he is with everyone. In person he is the most beautiful form seen by Brahma.

“I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, who is adept in playing on His flute, with blooming eyes like lotus petals with head decked with peacock's feather, with the figure of beauty tinged with the hue of blue clouds, and His unique loveliness charming millions of Cupids.”- Bramha Samhita 5.30

His forms have supreme potency. Those in various levels of God consciousness through enlightenment have some degree of it too. This is based on everyone's choice of vibrations as there are many levels to the matrix. Due to freewill not everyone is on the same level of consciousness; everyone's true self and ideal life maybe slightly different based on their modes of nature #soulfamily

“Those situated in the mode of goodness gradually go upward to the higher planets; those in the mode of passion live on the earthly planets; and those in the mode of ignorance go down to the hellish worlds.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 14.18)

We can see the material opulence of people around us in physical world. But to see their spiritual aura or truer self is not possible. It requires special abilities to be gifted. So let's imagine for a second that the divine vision is suddenly gifted to everyone in the world at one time by rise in consciousness. What happens then?

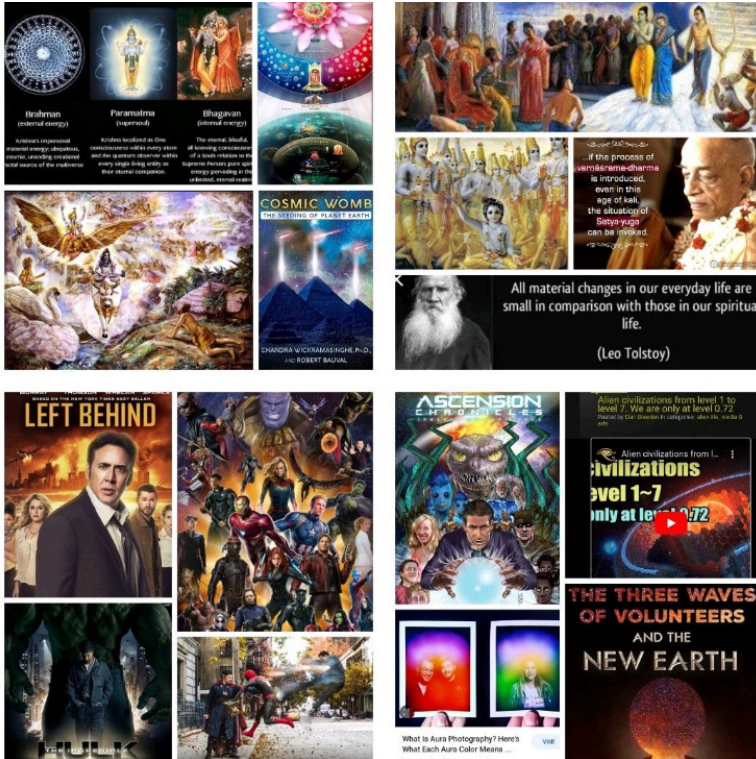

"But you cannot see Me with your present eyes. Therefore, I give you divine eyes. Behold My mystic opulence!"- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 11.8)

When we see everyone in true light we may be able to see who they are behind mask of shape shifted body for this plane. Does everyone who believe in formless God and body of light disappear? Or do they take their true form, depending on the level of vibrations? The freewill choices/karma creates the body of choice. No one ever ceases to exist they just take on a different body.

Conceive- Believe and Achieve. And change happens in continuous cycles of time. We exist at all times. Achintya Bheda Abheda of Time! All time exists simultaneously yet separate.

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, whose effulgence is the source of the nondifferentiated Brahman mentioned in the Upaniṣads, being differentiated from the infinity of glories of the mundane universe appears as the indivisible, infinite, limitless, truth."- Brahma Samhita 5.40

53. TIT FOR TAT OR TOLERATE THAT

Sometimes the most serious of topics and lessons can be delivered in the most humble and humorous ways. It is really for us to keep our vision on the lessons or be distracted by the peripherals #soulfamily.

One level of true vision is to see facts for what they are and be able to filter the lies. This is discernment of knowledge or the intellect. But there is a discernment of the heart and that is of a different nature and vibration of a different level. The discernment of the heart has a vision and foresight of a longer range. It sees not what is but what can be. It sees what needs to be and it sees the path not necessarily of least resistance but one of the highest outcome. As they say Talent does what no one can do, but Genius does what no one can See!!

When we speak of this discernment it makes light of all miseries through better judgment. We may complain about misfortunes by stating the obvious facts of what has happened. With knowledge we may be able to attribute what has happened as a result of our own Karma, Freewill or a Soul contract whatever jargon we may be comfortable with. But the call for action is not the knowledge of it but to rise above the predicament to raise/change the vibrations within and without for a higher outcome.

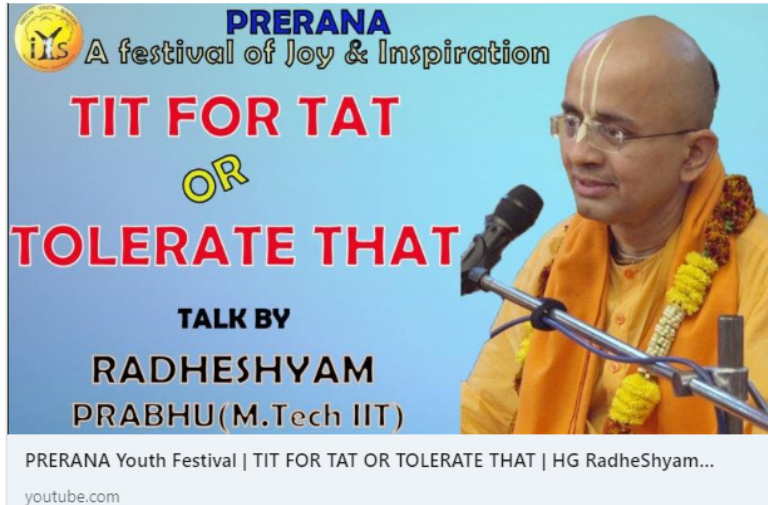

"O son of Prtha, those who are not deluded, the great souls, are under the protection of the divine nature. They are fully engaged in devotional service because they know Me as the Supreme Personality of Godhead, original and inexhaustible."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 9.13)

The science of knowledge and knowing is always going to be inferior to the art/heart/feel of changing the course of history. The knowledge unused is on no use whether esoteric or exoteric. It is the heart that has the willpower to deliver the outcome, and this is what we need to grow and show. The world will not change by itself and no matter what people know. All information is basically waves of possibilities until it is actioned.

"When people properly glorify the Supreme Personality of Godhead or simply hear about His power, the Lord personally enters their hearts and cleanses away every trace of misfortune, just as the sun removes the darkness or as a powerful wind drives away the clouds." - Srimad Bhagavatam 12.12.48

Correct discernment leads to simple actions of fighting or forgiveness in God consciousness that can help us move forward. Knowing that all manifested possibilities can only occur by will of God. Only collective God consciousness can raise us out of misery because the lack of it is what got us into this position where we are feeling the need of it. The cycle of time that allows us to feel duality of happiness and distress at a micro level, on a grander scale changes the seasons, and on even grander scale changes the consciousness by the way of Yuga cycles.

The changes are reflected in the body, mind and ego as discussed in following very humorous lecture. Do enjoy it and keep your vision on the lessons alone!

54. ACTION AND INACTION

Following from previous post it is important to understand that our intent behind our actions/inaction is important and so is our perspective on the outcomes or situations.

"One who sees inaction in action and action in inaction is intelligent among men, and he is in the transcendental position, although engaged in all sorts of activities.

One is understood to be in full knowledge whose every endeavour is devoid of desire for sense gratification. He is said by sages to be a worker for whom the reactions of work have been burned up by the fire of perfect knowledge."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 4.18-19)

This is why raising the consciousness is important. For example, we may be living comfortably in a house with no desire ever to leave. But as soon as someone else restricts us and creates a lock down, it is torture. There may be blessings in disguise but we cannot even see them if we have not raised our consciousness. Understanding the Yin Yang is not the end but the beginning to facilitating change and evolution. People may feel like they understand the Matrix, but what action are they doing to get out of it #soulfamily?

There are many levels to the Matrix and each is completely comfortable in their zone and looks upon the other side as the unfortunate ones. This is Maya/illusion that controls the three modes of nature. Everyone is generally happy at their level of consciousness, but the outcome is not same. The variety of actions yield differences happiness but of different qualities, that are not equal.

"That which in the beginning may be just like poison but at the end is just like nectar and which awakens one to self-realization is said to be happiness in the mode of goodness.

That happiness which is derived from contact of the senses with their objects and which appears like nectar at first but poison at the end is said to be of the nature of passion.

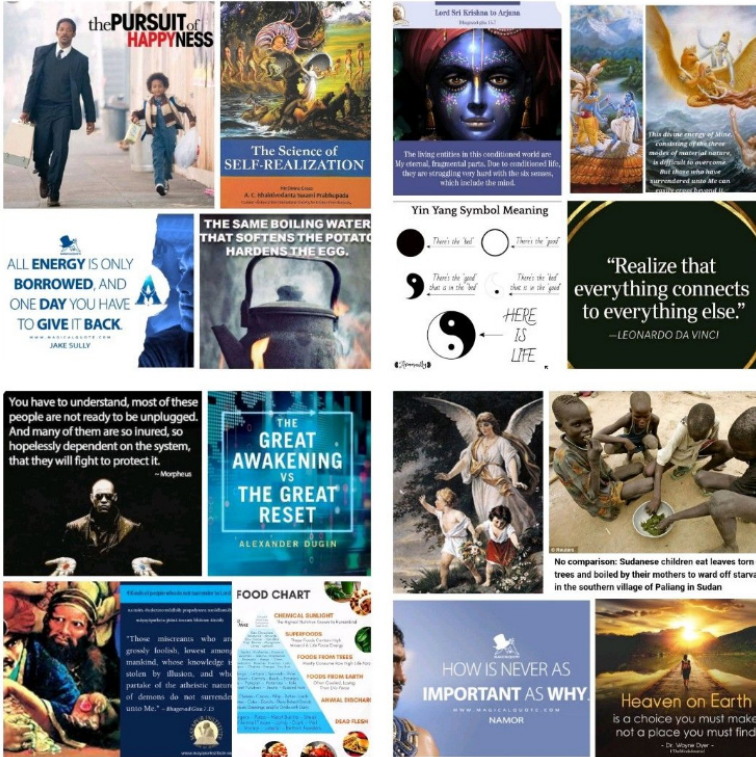

And that happiness which is blind to self-realization, which is delusion from beginning to end and which arises from sleep, laziness and illusion is said to be of the nature of ignorance."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 18.37-39)

But the modes are powerful and way out of Matrix is a challenge that people set themselves up for. Without detachment and discrimination proper discernment of spiritual goal is not possible. Thus, people are carried away by the senses from one matrix to another in pursuit of their truth and happiness. The law of nature is we reap what we sow. Sow love and compassion and it will bear fruit in time.

"One who is not connected with the Supreme can have neither transcendental intelligence nor a steady mind, without which there is no possibility of peace. And how can there be any happiness without peace?"- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.66)

This ability for transcendental intelligence is the rare gift that is to be used in human birth.

55. SHORT AND LONG TERM INVESTMENTS

We discussed the happiness obtained from engagement of senses in the last post. Some happiness are short term gains and some are long-term based on our choice of investments. The long-term investments require a bit of faith following a degree of due diligence. It is not very intelligent to decline the words of those who have specialist knowledge. The so called Financial or Investment Analysts are well paid for their expertise. Why then does this not apply for spiritual investment #soulfamily? Is Spiritual knowledge not valued because it's given for free?

The spiritual masters are the experts on spiritual topics and they publish their reports and observations in scriptures. This is why we refer to the scriptures for understanding of spiritual investment and returns.

"This literature fully glorifies the Supreme Personality of Godhead Hari, who removes all His devotees' sinful reactions. The Lord is glorified as Nārāyaṇa, Hṛṣīkeśa and the Lord of the Sātvatas.

This literature describes the mystery of the Supreme Absolute Truth, the source of the creation and annihilation of this universe. Also presented are divine knowledge of Him together with the process of its cultivation, and the transcendental realization one achieves."- Srimad Bhagavatam 12.12.3-4

Seeing is really the last part or the fructification of investment- be it financial, emotional or spiritual investment. The difference between the investment and the fruits is the linear time that we observe. We usually first hear about an investment from others who have the experience or expertise. Then we aspire for similar returns in our hearts with hope and faith.

Along the way we may develop recognition and attraction to news of our stocks developed and thus we follow their movements. It's only at the time of divided release or at point of sale do we realise the gains that we can see or touch the returns in currency of our choice

"O my Lord, Your devotees can see You through the ears by the process of bona fide hearing, and thus their hearts become cleansed, and You take Your seat there. You are so merciful to Your devotees that You manifest Yourself in the particular eternal form of transcendence in which they always think of You." - Srimad Bhagavatam 3.9.11

The manifestation occurs in the end when we have conditioned our mind senses and our hearts to accepting the new reality that we have invested in.

Desire for return is important for investment. Some desire material gains and some desire spiritual and some desire other things. Each has invested their time and resources in their own happiness. Surprise visits/contacts are rarely appreciated if we do not hold an attraction for the outcome.

"Those who worship the demigods will take birth among the demigods; those who worship ghosts and spirits will take birth among such beings; those who worship ancestors go to the ancestors; and those who worship Me will live with Me." - Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 9.25)

56. ANCIENT ALIENS OF VEDIC HISTORY

Guided by synchronicities I came to the following section and related images of Chaitanya Charitamrata. Incidentally, it follows the series of posts over the last few days.

"In a spiritual body resembling that of a Gandharva, Junior Haridāsa, although invisible, would sing at night for Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu to hear. No one but the Lord, however, knew of this.

One day Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu inquired from the devotees, "Where is Haridāsa? Now you may bring him here."

The devotees all replied, "One night at the end of a full year, Junior Haridāsa got up and went away. No one knows where he has gone."

While hearing the devotees lament, Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu was mildly smiling. Thus all the devotees were very much astonished.

One day Jagadānanda, Svarūpa, Govinda, Kāśīśvara, Śaṅkara, Dāmodara and Mukunda all went to bathe in the sea. They could hear Haridāsa singing from a distant place as if calling them in his original voice.

No one could see him, but they could hear him singing in a sweet voice. Therefore all the devotees, headed by Govinda, made this guess.

"Haridāsa must have committed suicide by drinking poison, and because of this sinful act, he has now become a brāhmaṇa ghost.

"We cannot see his material form," they said, "but still we hear his sweet singing. Therefore he must have become a ghost."

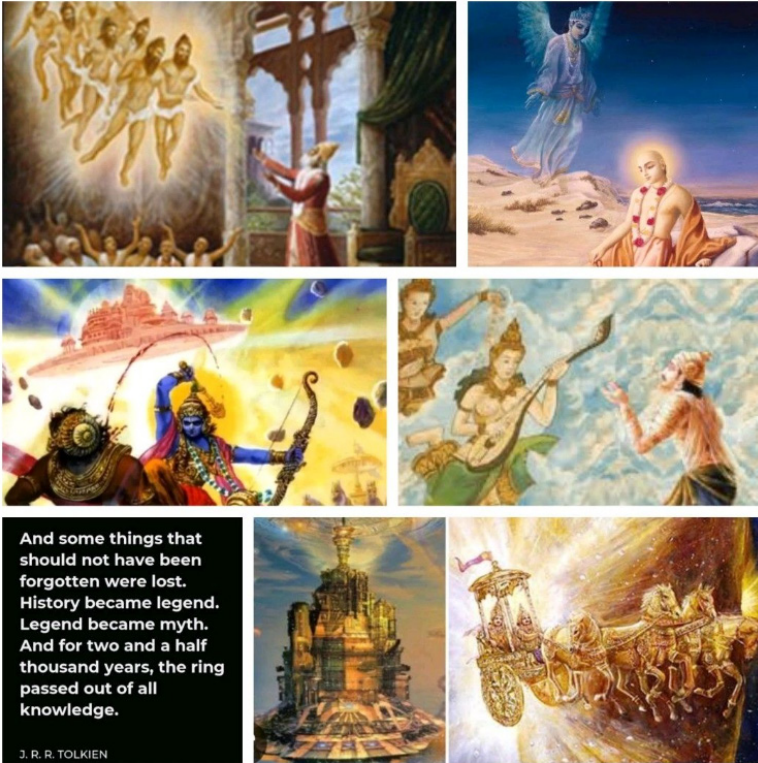

“Junior Haridāsa chanted the Hare Kṛṣṇa mantra throughout his entire life and served the Supreme Lord Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu. Moreover, he is dear to the Lord and has died in a holy place.

“Haridāsa cannot have been degraded; he must have attained liberation. This is a pastime of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu’s. You will all understand it later.”- Chaitanya Charitamrata Antya lila 2.149-159

There is a lot that happens in realms that we cannot see consciously. Our interactions may happen in dream state as in the story of the great mathematician Ramanuja is one such well documented case.

We study the relativity of Time linked to that is relativity of space. Gandharva in ancient texts relates to one of celestial races. We also discussed that at some point of time and space Bharat Varsha meant Earth planet now it is only India. Perhaps as the consciousness falls over time our ability to perceive the higher space drops or is restricted #soulfamily and our world becomes smaller and smaller. Some are already building a digital virtual reality metaverse. In the bygone ages the interaction between different celestial beings was common. In Mahabharata there is reference to Arjuna going to Heaven and beyond and Krishna defeating King Shalva and his spaceship.

The above excerpt from the scripture Chaitanya Charitamrita is only about 500 years old. The devotees were able to register and recognize a voice but not the body. But Chaitanya Mahaprabhu was able to do both. There is an element of level of consciousness and abilities to perceive in that body. There is certainly more to the world than meets the eye and the higher worlds are perhaps more intimately connected than we can understand.

57. LEFT BEHIND

"Millions long for immortality who don't know what to do with themselves on a rainy Sunday afternoon." --Susan Ertz

But it's more than just a Sunday that can go wrong. Sometimes the wrong is all around us pulling us in to fight others. The duality of life is it's richness but also the catch that pulls us in to repeat because it is the attachments that drive our behaviour in this life and the next and then over and over again.

"While contemplating the objects of the senses, a person develops attachment for them, and from such attachment lust develops, and from lust anger arises.

From anger, complete delusion arises, and from delusion bewilderment of memory. When memory is bewildered, intelligence is lost, and when intelligence is lost one falls down again into the material pool.

But a person free from all attachment and aversion and able to control his senses through regulative principles of freedom can obtain the complete mercy of the Lord.

For one thus satisfied [in Kṛṣṇa consciousness], the threefold miseries of material existence exist no longer; in such satisfied consciousness, one's intelligence is soon well established.

One who is not connected with the Supreme [in Kṛṣṇa consciousness] can have neither transcendental intelligence nor a steady mind, without which there is no possibility of peace. And how can there be any happiness without peace?

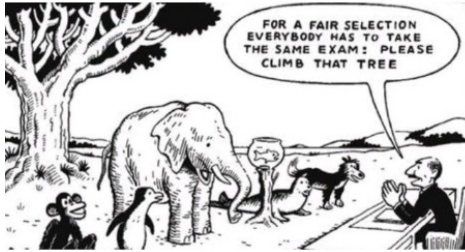

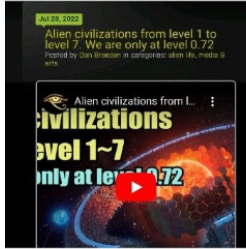

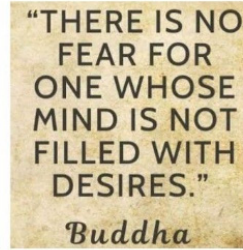

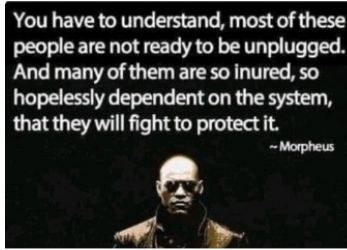

As a strong wind sweeps away a boat on the water, even one of the roaming senses on which the mind focuses can carry away a man's intelligence.

Therefore, O mighty-armed, one whose senses are restrained from their objects is certainly of steady intelligence."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.62- 68)

An uncontrolled mind can never lead to immortality if we continue to draw our senses towards destruction of self and others through incessant consumption. Imagine if such beings were immortal. The service to self types would be a risk to everyone for want of endless wealth, power and gratifications.

The immortal ones can only be the ones who can live in harmony with themselves and in service to others. That is the only way world can know peace. Technology of science must be used in guidance with knowledge of spirituality else it can reap havoc. It is perhaps why the higher consciousness civilizations stay away from Humans. We are fighting everyday of the week #soulfamily! Let's try to show our love and compassion through unity in God consciousness.

"A person who is not disturbed by the incessant flow of desires – that enter like rivers into the ocean, which is ever being filled but is always still – can alone achieve peace, and not the man who strives to satisfy such desires."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.70)

58. GAURA PURNIMA 2023

We trust the science/politics that keeps revising its propaganda. Ironically, the material greed has got us to a point where some think that humans are the useless ones on the planet. The value of soul is lost if we cannot see God that sits in the body through uncontrolled materialistic minds.

By consenting are we guilty as much as those who continue to push to make Humans machines in a Godless society? They fail to see God's personal beauty infused in his complete and expanded fragments. How can the creator not be the most beautiful of all his creations #soulfamily? Yet the science will search for impersonal aspect inside an atom and past the milky way.

"One must deliver himself with the help of his mind, and not degrade himself. The mind is the friend of the conditioned soul, and his enemy as well."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 6.5)

Spirituality means to see God in all beings and to live in harmony with Earth/Gaia. Perfection of devotion is to desire personal devotion to the creator. This path- the science of spirituality has required no revisions in the eternal/Sanatan Dharma.

"What the Upaniṣads describe as the impersonal Brahman is but the effulgence of His body, and the Lord known as the Supersoul is but His localized plenary portion. Lord Caitanya is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Kṛṣṇa Himself, full with six opulences. He is the Absolute Truth, and no other truth is greater than or equal to Him.

May the Supreme Lord who is known as the son of Śrīmatī Śacīdevī be transcendently situated in the innermost chambers of your heart. Resplendent with the radiance of molten gold, He has appeared in the Age of Kali by His causeless mercy to bestow what no incarnation has ever offered before: the most sublime and radiant mellow of devotional service, the mellow of conjugal love.

The loving affairs of Śrī Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa are transcendental manifestations of the Lord's internal pleasure-giving potency. Although Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa are one in Their identity, previously They separated Themselves. Now these two transcendental identities have again united, in the form of Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya. I bow down to Him, who has manifested Himself with the sentiment and complexion of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī although He is Kṛṣṇa Himself.

Desiring to understand the glory of Rādhārāṇī's love, the wonderful qualities in Him that She alone relishes through Her love, and the happiness She feels when She realizes the sweetness of His love, the Supreme Lord Hari, richly endowed with Her emotions, appeared from the womb of Śrīmatī Śacī-devī, as the moon appeared from the ocean.

May Śrī Nityānanda Rāma be the object of my constant remembrance. Saṅkarṣaṇa, Śeṣa Nāga and the Viṣṇus who lie on the Kāraṇa Ocean, Garbha Ocean and ocean of milk are His plenary portions and the portions of His plenary portions." - Chaitanya Charitamrata Adi lila 1.3-7

On this full moon and appearance day of Lord Chaitanya, I wish a Happy Gaura Purnima and a Happy & healthy March into new year all.

59. GOD IS AS PERSONAL AS WE ARE

Continuing from previous posts, it is important to note that the incarnations of God are all timed and their arrivals are mentioned in scriptures long before he incarnates in his avatar. This is true for all incarnations of Krishna as he comes in various forms for benefit of humanity. It is unfortunate for those that do not want to believe in the personal form of God/Krishna. They keep imagining something else, something that is really nothing when he is in fact ALSO in everything. God has no restrictions!!

"Fools deride Me when I descend in the human form. They do not know My transcendental nature as the Supreme Lord of all that be."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 9.11)

The advent of Lord Ram, Krishna and Chaitanya Mahaprabhu were all predicted in the scriptures as that of Kalki still to come. There are no surprises. He arrives with his entourage in various major incarnations in different yuga cycles in differences forms and colours. There is never an invasion but always an infiltration into the society to help destroy darkness but also cultivate the light.

"Your son Kṛṣṇa appears as an incarnation in every millennium. In the past, He assumed three different colors — white, red and yellow — and now He has appeared in a blackish color. [In another Dvāpara-yuga, He appeared (as Lord Rāmacandra) in the color of śuka, a parrot." -Srimad Bhagvatam 10.8.13

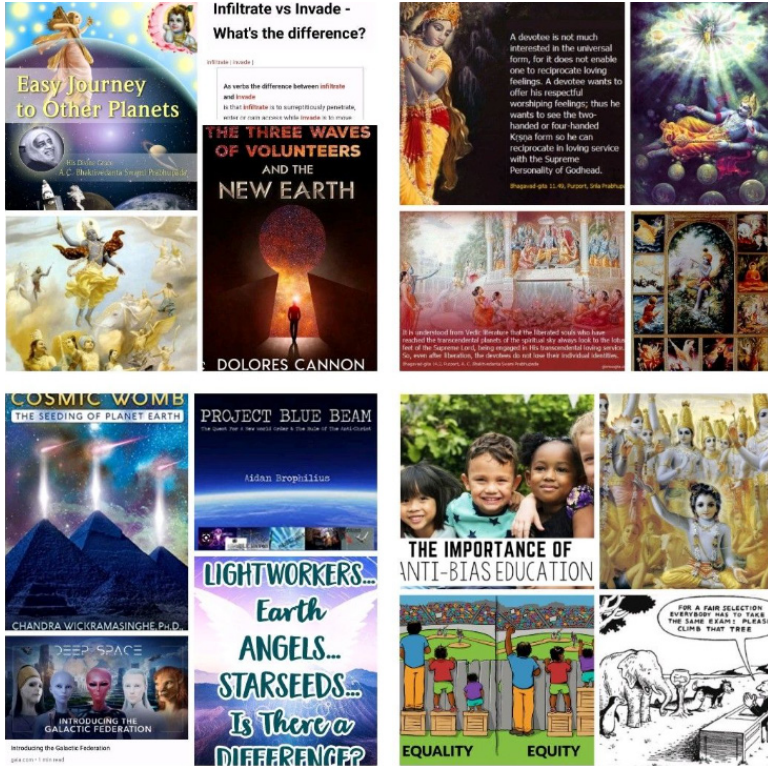

There are people of endless diversity in the universe and there are many universes. Because God chooses to look like us in material world and allows us to look like him in Spiritual world his value is never diminished #soulfamily. It is only his display of love and compassion that he allows total freewill.

But if people claim to be God then there is always a test against the scriptural mentions, his strength and display of unfathomable beauty- All attractive. God after all is the Supreme creator and powerful being that can take any form. Often however people who are not God consciousness are deluded by displays of magic for the want of material gains. That is not devotion in God/Krishna consciousness it is business deal struck with the demigods.

"Those whose minds are distorted by material desires surrender unto demigods and follow the particular rules and regulations of worship according to their own natures."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.20)

As humans of Kali-yuga we lack the spiritual potency to practice discernment through the heart if we do not practice true God/Krishna consciousness. We are always looking at some leaders to help us understand what is happening. Everyone is seeking information from a higher ground of technology. But some fruits are temporary and some are eternal. Technology can be faked and spiritually potency does not need technology!

"Men of small intelligence worship the demigods, and their fruits are limited and temporary. Those who worship the demigods go to the planets of the demigods, but My devotees ultimately reach My supreme planet." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.22)

60. WAKING UP AND EVOLVING

Are we raising our consciousness and waking up? Waking up to the fact that as we observe love, compassion and knowledge we help create the new Earth. We become the portals of light body. Taking bigger risks and challenges for spreading light to help others and raise their consciousness to make the world a better place. Sometimes this surrender and service to others only happens as a last resort when the lightworkers go through their own night of darkness. Just like the discussed squeezing of last bit of sugarcane juice. Cornered and nowhere to go, they find strength to work in God consciousness for the forgotten higher responsibility. And then the synchronicities of the universe come to assist.

"The Personality of Godhead said: If I especially favor someone, I gradually deprive him of his wealth. Then the relatives and friends of such a poverty-stricken man abandon him. In this way he suffers one distress after another."- Srimand Bhagvatam 10.88.8

The knowledge of God Krishna consciousness is the strength and the light that needs to spread to others to form a united grid around the world through devotion.

"One should render transcendental loving service to the Supreme Lord Kṛṣṇa favorably and without desire for material profit or gain through fruitive activities or philosophical speculation. That is called pure devotional service."- Bhakti-rasāmṛta-sindhu (1.1.11)

Ascend through devotion and Ascend in Devotion #soulfamily

The Maha mantra is the Bhagvad (devotee) Gita or song that will help in ascension of Gaia in Kali yuga. Krishna is not different from his name this has made things so simple.

"My dear King, although Kali-yuga is an ocean of faults, there is still one good quality about this age: Simply by chanting the Hare Kṛṣṇa mahā-mantra, one can become free from material bondage and be promoted to the transcendental kingdom."- Srimad Bhagvatam 12.3.51

Krishna/God is the Supreme Personality that can help unite the world into a new age.

"Although I am unborn and My transcendental body never deteriorates, and although I am the Lord of all living entities, I still appear in every millennium in My original transcendental form.

Whenever and wherever there is a decline in religious practice, O descendant of Bharata, and a predominant rise of irreligion – at that time I descend Myself.

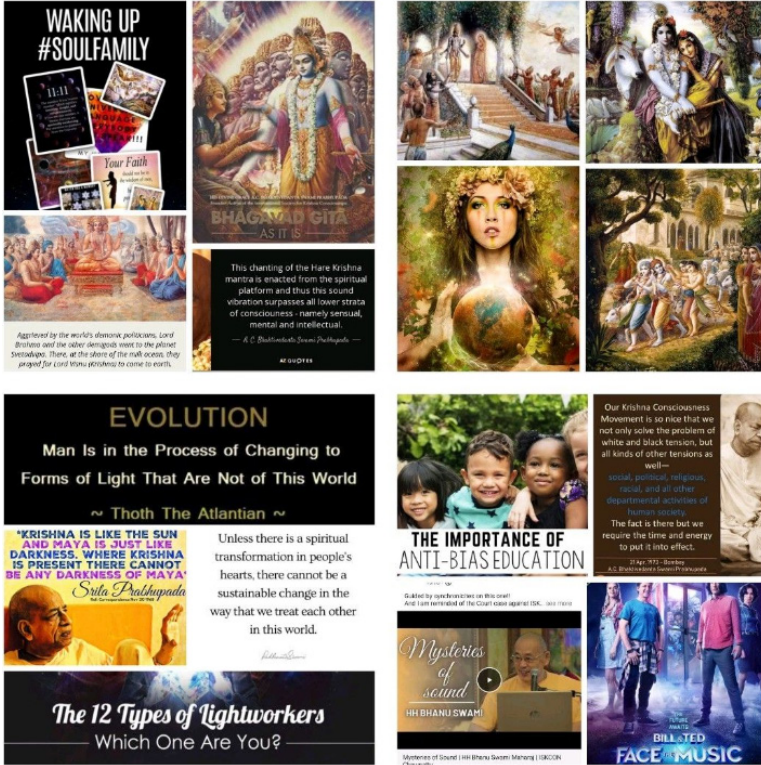

To deliver the pious and to annihilate the miscreants, as well as to re-establish the principles of religion, I Myself appear, millennium after millennium.

One who knows the transcendental nature of My appearance and activities does not, upon leaving the body, take his birth again in this material world, but attains My eternal abode, O Arjuna.

Being freed from attachment, fear and anger, being fully absorbed in Me and taking refuge in Me, many, many persons in the past became purified by knowledge of Me – and thus they all attained transcendental love for Me.

Waking up #Soulfamily

As all surrender unto Me, I reward them accordingly. Everyone follows My path in all respects, O son of Pṛthā.”- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 6-11)

61. THE NEED TO ACT

Continuing from previous post, Krishna/God knows that Kali-yuga is not the best of times. There are major discouraging predictions made about it in Srimad Bhagavatam, some are listed below that you can attest to.

“Śukadeva Gosvāmī said: Then, O King, religion, truthfulness, cleanliness, tolerance, mercy, duration of life, physical strength and memory will all diminish day by day because of the powerful influence of the Age of Kali.”- Srimad Bhagavatam 12.2.1

“When there is a predominance of cheating, lying, sloth, sleepiness, violence, depression, lamentation, bewilderment, fear and poverty, that age is Kali, the age of the mode of ignorance.

Because of the bad qualities of the Age of Kali, human beings will become short-sighted, unfortunate, gluttonous, lustful and poverty-stricken. The women, becoming unchaste, will freely wander from one man to the next.

Cities will be dominated by thieves, the Vedas will be contaminated by speculative interpretations of atheists, political leaders will virtually consume the citizens, and the so-called priests and intellectuals will be devotees of their bellies and genitals.”- Srimad Bhagavatam 12.3.30-32

For such a degraded time Krishna made concessions. Those who have good intent at heart and want to progress spiritually he made it really easy to focus.

"Abandon all varieties of religion and just surrender unto Me. I shall deliver you from all sinful reactions. Do not fear."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 18.66)

In times of imperfect information, the Investment Analysts are forced to use only information/resources that are available at that time. For what is lacking we have to make certain assumptions about the unquantifiable and move on to build our business plan for growth and then ACT on it.

Similarly, once we commit to making some progress on the path of God/Krishna consciousness our real-life experiences start to make the business case even more favourable.

"But those who always worship Me with exclusive devotion, meditating on My transcendental form – to them I carry what they lack, and I preserve what they have."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 9.22)

The progress will be there for us to see. There is plenty of evidence if we look around. But to feel and self-realise it we have to make a start ourselves. We will not know if we don't try. There is no loss of any kind and the shining results will be there for all to see #soulfamily.

"Just as fire applied to gold removes any discoloration caused by traces of other metals, Lord Viṣṇu within the heart purifies the minds of the yogīs."- Srimad Bhagvatam 12.3.47

Kali yuga is a cloud with a major silver lining. If we choose to use the opportunity.

"Although Kali-yuga is an ocean of faults, there is still one good quality about this age: simply by chanting the names of Krishna, one can become free from material bondage and be promoted to the transcendental kingdom." (Source: Srimad Bhagavatam 12.3.51)

62. GOD OR GURU

Guided by synchronicities of the Universe/God/Krishna or those created by Ascended Spiritual masters I cannot be sure. So that nothing is lost in translation its best to quote the sources and include relevant links to help #soulfamily. The guidance and blessings of our Spiritual teachers is most important for developing Spiritual Qutient, especially on the path of devotion/Bhakti. This is different from the exploiter (Bhukti) and escapist (mukti) mentality which create states of anxiety.

“Because a devotee of Lord Kṛṣṇa is desireless, he is peaceful. Fruitive workers desire material enjoyment, jñānīs desire liberation, and yogīs desire material opulence; therefore they are all lusty and cannot be peaceful.”- Chaitanya Charitamrita Madhya Lila 19.149

The value of faith is in amount of surrender, but we can never learn that ourselves because of false ego. This is why a renounced Guru or Teacher is most important as a support system not just for the individual but society at large. The quality of renunciation is also one of the six opulence of Krishna/God and this opulence must be visible in his devotees and spiritualists. How can we be considered as service to others if majority of the time we are working in service for our senses.

The Guru-disciple lineage is important to preserve the discipline and knowledge and emphasise the value of penance, charity and sacrifice. Without it there is no gradual progression on the spiritual path to ascend into higher consciousness.

We have already discussed how the first plenary portion of Krishna is Balaram/Ananta Sesa Naga/Nityananda. He is the embodiment of Guru from within and without and is eternal associate of Krishna.

“Although I know that my spiritual master (Sri Nityananada) is a servitor of Śrī Caitanya, I know Him also as a plenary manifestation of the Lord.

According to the deliberate opinion of all revealed scriptures, the spiritual master is nondifferent from Kṛṣṇa. Lord Kṛṣṇa in the form of the spiritual master delivers His devotees.

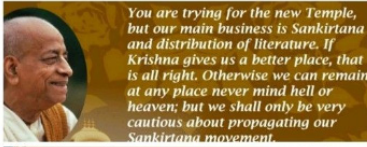

“One should know the ācārya/Guru as Myself and never disrespect him in any way. One should not envy him, thinking him an ordinary man, for he is the representative of all the demigods.”(Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (11.17.27) spoken by Krishna)

One should know the instructing spiritual master to be the Personality of Kṛṣṇa. Lord Kṛṣṇa manifests Himself as the Supersoul and as the greatest devotee of the Lord.

“O my Lord! Transcendental poets and experts in spiritual science could not fully express their indebtedness to You, even if they were endowed with the prolonged lifetime of Brahmā, for You appear in two features — externally as the ācārya and internally as the Supersoul — to deliver the embodied living being by directing him how to come to You.” (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (11.29.6) spoken by Śrī Uddhava.)”

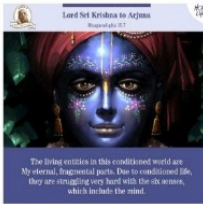

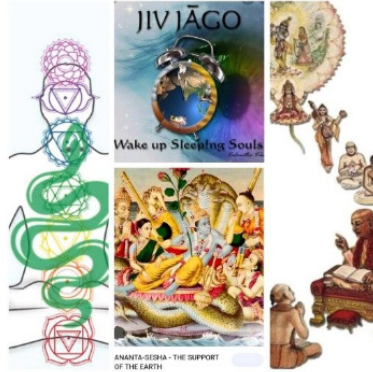

"To those who are constantly devoted to serving Me with love, I give the understanding by which they can come to Me. (Bhagavad Gita 10.10)."- Chaitanya Charitamrita Adi Lila 1.43-48

Waking up #Soulfamily

We have a body, but we also have a subtle body, a body of energy that looks like our physical body. The subtle physical body is made up of energy, of light that vibrates at a very high rate so the human physical eyes can't see it.

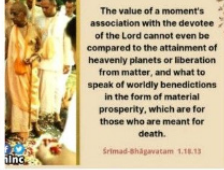

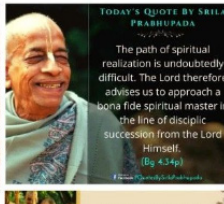

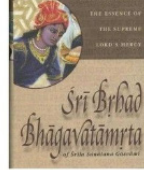

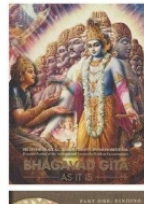

Merkabah, also spelled Merkaba, is the divine light vehicle allegedly used by ascended masters to connect with and reach those in tune with the higher realms. "Mer" means Light. "Ka" means Spirit. "Ba" means Body.

63. FOUR VERSE SRIMAD BHAGVATAM

Before the process of creation in the universe began Brahma was given his instruction by Krishna in just 4 verses.

"Brahmā, it is I, the Personality of Godhead, who was existing before the creation, when there was nothing but Myself. Nor was there the material nature, the cause of this creation. That which you see now is also I, the Personality of Godhead, and after annihilation what remains will also be I, the Personality of Godhead.

O Brahmā, whatever appears to be of any value, if it is without relation to Me, has no reality. Know it as My illusory energy, that reflection which appears to be in darkness.

O Brahmā, please know that the universal elements enter into the cosmos and at the same time do not enter into the cosmos; similarly, I Myself also exist within everything created, and at the same time I am outside of everything.

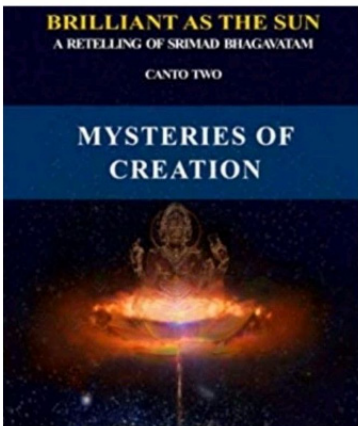

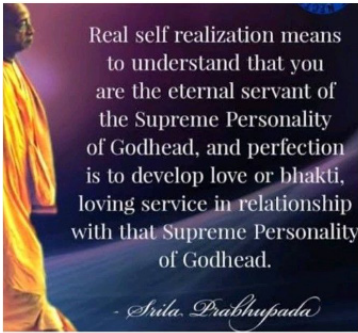

A person who is searching after the Supreme Absolute Truth, the Personality of Godhead, must certainly search for it up to this, in all circumstances, in all space and time, and both directly and indirectly." - Srimad Bhagvatam 2.9.33-36

The above verses are also explained in the Chaitanya Charitamrata Adi lila 1.53-56 as the 4 verses are considered short summary of entire Srimad Bhagavatam of 18,000 verses. The following is an excerpt from purport for CC Adi lila 1.56

'..In the first of these verses the transcendental nature of Lord Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, is explained. The second verse further explains that the Lord is detached from the workings of the material energy, māyā.

The living entities, although parts and parcels of Lord Kṛṣṇa, are prone to be controlled by the external energy; therefore, although they are spiritual, in the material world they are encased in bodies of material energy. The eternal relationship of the living entities with the Supreme Lord is explained in that verse. The next verse instructs that the Supreme Personality of Godhead, by His inconceivable energies, is simultaneously one with and different from the living entities and the material energy. This knowledge is called acintya-bhedābheda-tattva. When an individual living entity surrenders to the Supreme Lord, Kṛṣṇa, he can then develop natural transcendental love for Him. This surrendering process should be the primary concern of a human being. In the next verse it is said that a conditioned soul must ultimately approach a bona fide spiritual master and try to understand perfectly the material and spiritual worlds and his own existential position. Here the words anvaya-vyatirekābhyām, “directly and indirectly,” suggest that one must learn the process of devotional service in its two aspects: one must directly execute the process of devotional service and indirectly avoid the impediments to progress.'

Hope we are directly executing the process of devotional service with faith #soulfamily. When the Sun raises our consciousness the darkness of night and impediments dissipate by themselves.

64. KNOWLEDGE OF FIELD OF ACTIVITIES

"That knowledge of the field of activities and of the knower of activities is described by various sages in various Vedic writings. It is especially presented in Vedānta-sūtra with all reasoning as to cause and effect." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 13.5)

Purport

..Kṛṣṇa, is the highest authority in explaining this knowledge. Still, as a matter of course, learned scholars and standard authorities always give evidence from previous authorities. Kṛṣṇa is explaining this most controversial point regarding the duality and nonduality of the soul and the Supersoul by referring to a scripture, the Vedānta, which is accepted as authority...

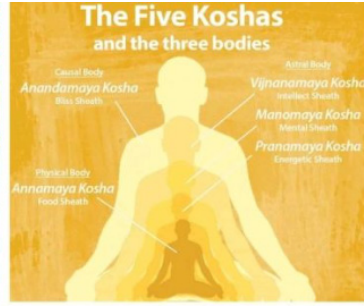

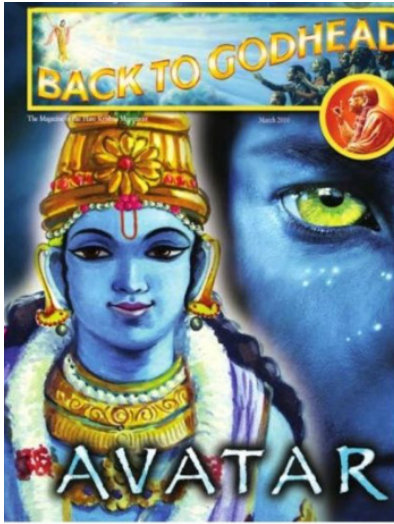

..Vyāsadeva's father, Parāśara, is also a great sage, and he writes in his books of religiosity, aham tvam ca tathānye.... "we – you, I and the various other living entities – are all transcendental, although in material bodies. Now we are fallen into the ways of the three modes of material nature according to our different karma. As such, some are on higher levels, and some are in the lower nature. The higher and lower natures exist due to ignorance and are being manifested in an infinite number of living entities. But the Supersoul, which is infallible, is uncontaminated by the three qualities of nature and is transcendental." ..

As stated before, kṣetra is the field of activities, and there are two kinds of kṣetra-jñā(knower of field): the individual living entity and the supreme living entity. As stated in the Taittirīya upanishad (2.5) ..There is a manifestation of the Supreme Lord's energy known as anna-maya, dependence upon food for existence.

This is a materialistic realization of the Supreme. Then, in prāṇa-maya, after realizing the Supreme Absolute Truth in food, one can realize the Absolute Truth in the living symptoms or life forms. In jñāna-maya, realization extends beyond the living symptoms to the point of thinking, feeling and willing. Then there is Brahman realization, called vijñāna-maya, in which the living entity's mind and life symptoms are distinguished from the living entity himself. The next and supreme stage is ānanda-maya, realization of the all-blissful nature. Thus there are five stages of Brahman realization, which are called brahma puccham. Out of these, the first three – anna-maya, prāṇa-maya and jñāna-maya – involve the fields of activities of the living entities. Transcendental to all these fields of activities is the Supreme Lord, who is called ānanda-maya. The Vedānta-sūtra also describes the Supreme by saying, ānanda-mayo 'bhyāsāt: the Supreme Personality of Godhead is by nature full of joy. To enjoy His transcendental bliss, He expands into vijñāna-maya, prāṇa-maya, jñāna-maya and anna-maya. In the field of activities the living entity is considered to be the enjoyer, and different from him is the ānanda-maya. That means that if the living entity decides to enjoy in dovetailing himself with the ānanda-maya, then he becomes perfect.

65. MACRO AND MICRO ENVIRONMENTS

Considering what we discussed in previous post let us apply that to our macro environment. Environment that is mother nature and planet Earth. Because we have discussed that everything is conscious. Now we are microcosm and part of this macrocosm that is mother Earth in space terms and yuga cycles in Time terms. The rise and fall over space and time. Earth Ascension and change of time is happening all the time and people are becoming more conscious of their natures and their place in nature. It is not that these higher natures did not exist or will come into existence. They always exist most of us are just not able to perceive them. Sometimes gifted ones are able to see and even act cross the veils that gives them some superpowers by our normal standards. Being in nature helps us raise our vibrations to the level of nature but being in God consciousness helps even more #soulfamily.

The manifesting micro and macrocosmic diseases are surfacing worldwide as trigger events to wake up, help and heal ourselves and the planet. Thus, acting for the benefit of the collective lower micro and higher Macrocosm that is rising in consciousness with cyclical Time.

All who remain unconscious to spirituality and the pain of others choose more of the same Kali-yuga and thus continue to progress for materialistic motivations alone. For those in mode of goodness the reality of life may seem different in the new worlds that already exists simultaneously! As multiple frequencies in the ether of existence for all micro and macrocosmic realities.

But as discussed previously there are even higher levels of consciousness and realms that are available through God consciousness.

The devotees aspire for 'Vishuddha Sattva' or mode of Pure goodness. This mode is free from the false ego. The God consciousness person sees God/Krishna's presence and connection in everything as the driving force of all actions and is thus not attached. Krishna is the Supreme controller of all realms at all times. On material platform he acts through modes of material natures and on spiritual platform he acts through his expansions or through his devotees.

“As the ignorant perform their duties with attachment to results, the learned may similarly act, but without attachment, for the sake of leading people on the right path.

So as not to disrupt the minds of ignorant men attached to the fruitive results of prescribed duties, a learned person should not induce them to stop work. Rather, by working in the spirit of devotion, he should engage them in all sorts of activities.

The spirit soul bewildered by the influence of false ego thinks himself the doer of activities that are in actuality carried out by the three modes of material nature.

One who is in knowledge of the Absolute Truth, O mighty-armed, does not engage himself in the senses and sense gratification, knowing well the differences between work in devotion and work for fruitive results.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 3.25-28)

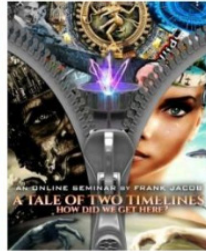

WE MUST RESIST THE TEMPTATION TO BE "NORMAL", BECAUSE THOSE WHO ARE NOW CONSIDERED NORMAL ACCEPT THE VALUES AND PRACTICES OF AN INSANE WORLD.

H.H. Bhakti Tirtha Swami

In Kali Yuga, wealth alone will be considered the sign of a man's good birth, proper behavior, and fine qualities.

66. REVIVAL

If laughter is contagious and kindness can spread joy then frequency of mantras and prayers can spread light of spirituality. The mere act of observation of courage and valour inspires others to be and act like their heroes. Why then are the spiritual values and heroes not given the importance they deserve #soulfamily? Why are they ridiculed when they are the ones trying to help for highest goal?

A society that is ruled by Sudras of low intellect places value on materialism and thus drives lower goals of sense gratifications. Constantly fuelled by material desires we never have enough, and we stay lower on Maslow's pyramid of needs. We continue to look at the outside world for our happiness and reinforce our beliefs in our own path and success. To find happiness through bigger titles and pay checks? Following protocol to say and do things that we may or may not agree with. In hindsight would we do things any differently if we considered our own nature, intuition and values?

The systematic erosion of values and culture is the nature of time. The soil that is not held by deep rooted trees, bushes and even the tiny bits of grass does crumble away. Everyone plays a role in holding the cultures based on their position. This is the Varna-ashram system we have discussed many times.

“According to the three modes of material nature and the work associated with them, the four divisions of human society are created by Me. And although I am the creator of this system, you should know that I am yet the nondoer, being unchangeable.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 4.13)

The system lost over time because of values eroded in search of money. The way to create a new world is to look at our ancient roots. Nature can be restored again if we can just do what we love to do the most and focus on God/Krishna, who is the Sun of our lives.

“My dear Arjuna, O winner of wealth, if you cannot fix your mind upon Me without deviation, then follow the regulative principles of bhakti-yoga. In this way develop a desire to attain Me.

If you cannot practice the regulations of bhakti-yoga, then just try to work for Me, because by working for Me you will come to the perfect stage.

If, however, you are unable to work in this consciousness of Me, then try to act giving up all results of your work and try to be self-situated.

If you cannot take to this practice, then engage yourself in the cultivation of knowledge. Better than knowledge, however, is meditation, and better than meditation is renunciation of the fruits of action, for by such renunciation one can attain peace of mind.

One who is not envious but is a kind friend to all living entities, who does not think himself a proprietor and is free from false ego, who is equal in both happiness and distress, who is tolerant, always satisfied, self-controlled, and engaged in devotional service with determination, his mind and intelligence fixed on Me – such a devotee of Mine is very dear to Me.”- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 12.9-14)

67. THE LINEAGES OF KINGS AND SAGES

Now that we are on topic of Kings and genetics there is lineage system that becomes important, because democracies are not a feature of Golden ages. The lineages are well discussed in Srimad Bhagavatam. People can always choose their occupation based on their nature, but the genes/DNA play some part in creating a certain disposition. Right training and education complements the nature we are born with it. The ancient Varna system was never restricted by birth.

"In addition to these nineteen sons mentioned above, there were eighty-one younger ones, all born of Ṛṣabhadeva and Jayantī. According to the order of their father, they became well-cultured, well-behaved, very pure in their activities and expert in Vedic knowledge and the performance of Vedic rituals. Thus they all became perfectly qualified brāhmaṇas."- Srimad Bhagvatam 5.4.13

In one day of Brahma there are 1000 yuga cycles managed over fourteen manvantaras or tenure of each Manu. The various Manus existing in one day of Lord Brahmā are as follows: (1) Svāyambhuva, (2) Svārociṣa, (3) Uttama, (4) Tāmasa, (5) Raivata, (6) Cākṣuṣa, (7) Vaivasvata, (8) Sāvarṇi, (9) Dakṣasāvarṇi, (10) Brahma-sāvarṇi, (11) Dharma-sāvarṇi, (12) Rudra-sāvarṇi, (13) Deva-sāvarṇi and (14) Indra-sāvarṇi. We are in the reign of the 7th Manu or Vaivasvata Manavantara.

The lineages populate this universe is part of the cyclical yugas. The Sun and the moon dynasties are two of these and their descendants by their qualities take the rulership of parts of the universe.

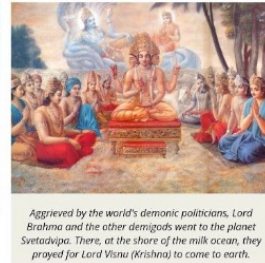

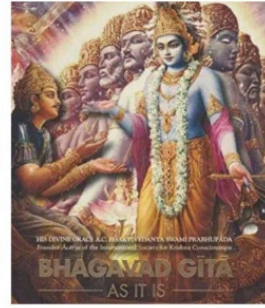

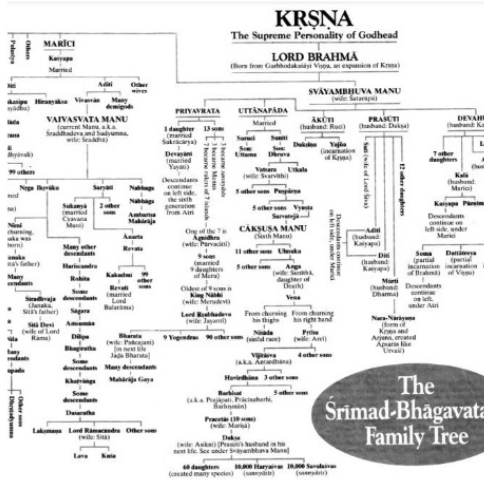

The descendants of Sun dynasty are called Suryavanshis and those of the Moon dynasty are called Chandravanshis. Similarly, there are lineages of the great sages that include all creatures and beings of the universe. Lord Ram incarnated in the Sun dynasty and Lord Krishna appeared in the Moon dynasty. His Avatars appear again and again to protect Dharma and devotees. Not necessarily those born into human or demigod families but those who are of that nature #soulfamily! The great devotees like Prahalad and King Bali were demon kings. King Bali becomes the next Indra. Until then he resides in Sutala loka.

"Devāpi, the brother of Mahārāja Śāntanu, and Maru, the descendant of Ikṣvāku, both possess great mystic strength and are living even now in the village of Kalāpa.

At the end of the Age of Kali, these two kings, having received instruction directly from the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Vāsudeva, will return to human society and reestablish the eternal religion of man, characterized by the divisions of varṇa and āśrama, just as it was before." - Srimad Bhagvatam 12.2.37-38)

We have discussed many times that there are many realms on and off planet that remain hidden to humans of lower consciousness. When the age of Kali is over the ascended God conscious society will prevail again. That is the symptom and qualification of ascending ages.

Purana and Itihaasa means History not Mythology! The Vedic knowledge and concepts should not be cherry picked. Where we pick one we pick all- As it is!

68. GAURA NITAI- THE SUN AND THE MOON

Since we are on the topic of the Sun, the Moon and lightwork in God consciousness #soulfamily.

“I offer my respectful obeisances unto Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya and Lord Nityānanda, who are like the sun and moon. They have arisen simultaneously on the horizon of Gauḍa to dissipate the darkness of ignorance and thus wonderfully bestow benediction upon all.

Śrī Kṛṣṇa and Balarāma, the Personalities of Godhead, who formerly appeared in Vṛndāvana and were millions of times more effulgent than the sun and moon, have arisen over the eastern horizon of Gauḍadeśa [West Bengal], being compassionate for the fallen state of the world.

The appearance of Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya and Prabhu Nityānanda has surcharged the world with happiness.

As the sun and moon drive away darkness by their appearance and reveal the nature of everything, these two brothers dissipate the darkness of ignorance covering the living beings and enlighten them with knowledge of the Absolute Truth.

The darkness of ignorance is called kaitava, the way of cheating, which begins with religiosity, economic development, sense gratification and liberation.

“The great scripture Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, compiled by Mahā-muni Vyāsadeva from four original verses, describes the most elevated and kindhearted devotees and completely rejects the cheating ways of materially motivated religiosity.

It propounds the highest principle of eternal religion, which can factually mitigate the threefold miseries of a living being and award the highest benediction of full prosperity and knowledge. Those willing to hear the message of this scripture in a submissive attitude of service can at once capture the Supreme Lord in their hearts. Therefore there is no need for any scripture other than Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam.

The foremost process of cheating is to desire to achieve liberation by merging into the Supreme, for this causes the permanent disappearance of loving service to Kṛṣṇa...

All kinds of activities, both auspicious and inauspicious, that are detrimental to the discharge of transcendental loving service to Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa are actions of the darkness of ignorance.

By the grace of Lord Caitanya and Lord Nityānanda, this darkness of ignorance is removed and the truth is brought to light.

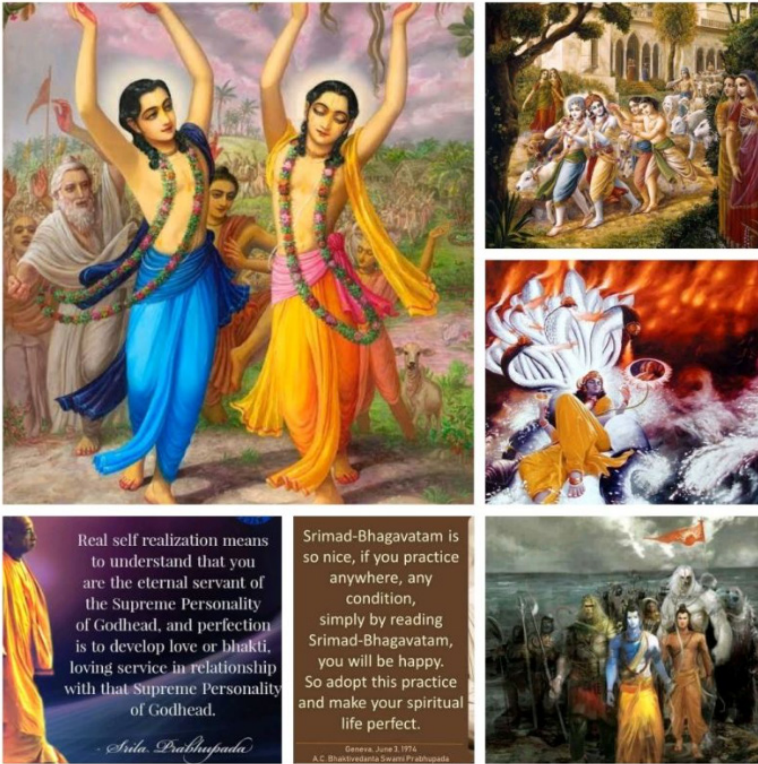

The Absolute Truth is Śrī Kṛṣṇa, and loving devotion to Śrī Kṛṣṇa exhibited in pure love is achieved through congregational chanting of the holy name, which is the essence of all bliss.

The sun and moon dissipate the darkness of the external world and thus reveal external material objects like pots and plates.

One of the bhāgavatas is the great scripture Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, and the other is the pure devotee absorbed in the mellows of loving devotion.

Through the actions of these two bhāgavatas the Lord instills the mellows of transcendental loving service into the heart of a living being, and thus the Lord, in the heart of His devotee, comes under the control of the devotee's love." Chaitanya Charitamrita Adi Lila 1.84-100

69. FAITH

We discussed consciousness, sub consciousness and the power of freewill as a conscious-decision. If 95% of our programming is subconscious then it is operating on some rule based algorithm for the benefit of the body's soul journey. Using freewill we must consciously change a course of action for positive outcomes. Overriding the safety of subconscious programming with a consciously done negative programming is self destructive.

The repetition of thoughts and behaviours are key for any reprogramming of consciousness. Actions in mode of goodness that can elevate our consciousness create a positive reality. Since we have been trying to aim for above the stars #soulfamily we are trying to elevate our consciousness to God/Krishna consciousness level. This recommended repetitive actions are the 9 processes of devotion.

"Prahāda Mahārāja said: Hearing and chanting about the transcendental holy name, form, qualities, paraphernalia and pastimes of Lord Viṣṇu, remembering them, serving the lotus feet of the Lord, offering the Lord respectful worship with sixteen types of paraphernalia, offering prayers to the Lord, becoming His servant, considering the Lord one's best friend, and surrendering everything unto Him (in other words, serving Him with the body, mind and words) — these nine processes are accepted as pure devotional service. One who has dedicated his life to the service of Kṛṣṇa through these nine methods should be understood to be the most learned person, for he has acquired complete knowledge." - Srimad Bhagavatam 7.5.23-24 are key part of any God conscious society.

The higher the goal the higher the level of realisations and higher the sacrifices one must make to attain them. This is simple to understand but hard to do. Hence not many take the discipline of God/Krishna consciousness purely on the principle of faith. Not many have trust in a higher power that they cannot see, touch or feel.

So, following from previous posts and coming back to the topic of consciousness, how may we able to tell those in higher vibrations as opposed to those in lower vibrations without a mechanical device? People are tested again and again in real life. Sometimes people pass these behavioural tests consciously through modified behaviour patterns because they know they are being watched and heard. Would the results be different if they were tested unconsciously? Perhaps scenario based tests in Sleep? When they lose recollection of who they are on a physical plane. And all that remains is the unfiltered self that will respond to stimulus of vices etc. in ways that have been practiced in thought or in action. If we have not truly controlled the senses and the mind then we may fail the tests.

With rise in consciousness how are we sleeping and dreaming? Does the subconscious mind trigger strange memories or creative dreams? Are we meeting new people and being tested in our dreams lately?

70. MULTIPLE REALITIES

Talking about dreams that are on a different plane and time altogether we cannot help but notice the fragility of life in material world also. As it is temporary it is just like a dream, We have discussed on many occasions that material conditioning and contamination, by its nature brings itself into existence the cycle of creation, maintenance and destruction. The body in material world as in the case of a dream is destructible and only moves from one temporary reality to another. Each dream reality comes with its own attractions of highs and lows

To maintain the cycles of creation and destruction are the three deities in the Vedic system- Brahma, Vishnu and Siva. Similarly, the worshipers of these deities often possess attributes and mindsets of their deity. It is the nature that attracts each one to their task in mode of goodness, passion or ignorance.

"Those whose intelligence has been stolen by material desires surrender unto demigods and follow the particular rules and regulations of worship according to their own natures.

I am in everyone's heart as the Supersoul. As soon as one desires to worship some demigod, I make his faith steady so that he can devote himself to that particular deity."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.20-21)

The eternal requires no creation and has no destruction. The spiritual body is therefore eternal and it has analytically studied to be of different nature that is indestructible.

"As a person puts on new garments, giving up old ones, the soul similarly accepts new material bodies, giving up the old and useless ones.

The soul can never be cut to pieces by any weapon, nor burned by fire, nor moistened by water, nor withered by the wind.

This individual soul is unbreakable and insoluble, and can be neither burned nor dried.

He is everlasting, present everywhere, unchangeable, immovable and eternally the same."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 2.22-24)

As discussed in previous post, those who have strong desire for or memory of a higher awakened state try to match their vibrations in this dream reality state within the physical 3D platform. They are not prone to vices or tests in the conscious state and by practice maintain the focus and attraction towards the highest state of nitya svarupa/Eternal forms that match their Supreme deity. Thus they progress on their path of devotion for personal service to Supreme Personality of Godhead #soulfamily

"Men of small intelligence worship the demigods, and their fruits are limited and temporary. Those who worship the demigods go to the planets of the demigods, but My devotees ultimately reach My supreme planet.

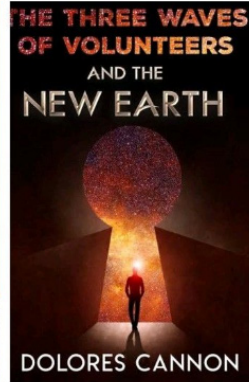

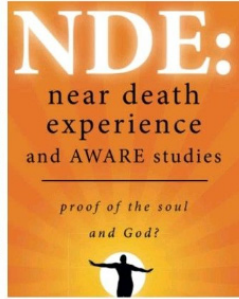

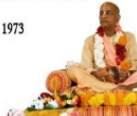

Unintelligent men, who do not know Me perfectly, think that I, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Kṛṣṇa, was impersonal before and have now assumed this personality. Due to their small knowledge, they do not know My higher nature, which is imperishable and supreme."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.23-24)

The soul already has a spiritual body, which material body covers. My material body grows upon me--my spiritual body--but my material body is unnatural. The real body is spiritual. I am accepting various bodies that are unnatural to my constitution. My real, constitutional position is to be the servant of Krishna.

71. THE SHIFT

It is the nature of the soul to be happy and loving and thus feel connection to the one whole while being part of it. United yet unique in the complete ecosystem of the nature at various levels of existence. There are levels below and around us that we observe and study but there are also levels around and above us that we cannot observe or easily study. Sometimes we become the subject of study #soulfamily. What can we learn from our own behaviour? Are we constructive or are we destructive? It is perhaps better to judge ourselves first.

We are allowed independence and ego but how far should we be allowed to stretch it? What if conditioned by the material world created around us we start to go against our own nature and then harm or violate the rights/ego of others? Unity needs love and compassion but unity cannot come if we cannot see what is common amongst us. And as long as we relate to the body we will continue to feel the differences and move further towards an unsustainable path. The rise in consciousness through rise in God/Krishna consciousness is the path to unity and harmony with nature. And the journey starts by changing our selves.

" A devotee should not see anything as being separate from the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Kṛṣṇa. Ether, fire, air, water, earth, the sun and other luminaries, all living beings, the directions, trees and other plants, the rivers and oceans — whatever a devotee experiences he should consider to be an expansion of Kṛṣṇa. Thus seeing everything that exists within creation as the body of the Supreme Lord, Hari, the devotee should offer his sincere respects to the entire expansion of the Lord's body.

Devotion, direct experience of the Supreme Lord, and detachment from other things — these three occur simultaneously for one who has taken shelter of the Supreme Personality of Godhead, in the same way that pleasure, nourishment and relief from hunger come simultaneously and increasingly, with each bite, for a person engaged in eating.

My dear King, the devotee who worships the lotus feet of the infallible Personality of Godhead with constant endeavor thus achieves unflinching devotion, detachment and experienced knowledge of the Personality of Godhead. In this way the successful devotee of the Lord achieves supreme spiritual peace." - Srimad Bhagavatam 11.2.41-43

Unless we can understand that there is a part of 'Personality of Godhead' in everything instead of just impersonal consciousness, love and compassion will be hard to cultivate. The heart will only begin to feel when the eyes of the mind see their beloved in all beings. Considering life other than our own as soulless is desensitization of our heart. What joy can ever come out of that?

"The living entities in this conditioned world are My eternal, fragmental parts. Due to conditioned life, they are struggling very hard with the six senses, which include the mind."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 15.7)

72. HOLLOW EARTH?

At least Globalists and flat earthers agree on a circular view of Earth. But then the centre is disputed again. There seems to be suspense/black hole at centre of every lost investigation that cannot be observed. Could Earth/Gaia have a heart like our bodies do? A round heart or mountain of Gold or tree of life sending energy all layers of our material body. Each layer doing a different job to protect the whole and the soft heart. If our material body is a material vehicle of cells then the Earth should have different material body layers and so will our greater universe. Each layer has its own frequency and but many parts together create the harmony of the whole body of the Primeval person.

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, whose transcendental form is full of bliss, truth, substantiality and is thus full of the most dazzling splendor. Each of the limbs of that transcendental figure possesses in Himself, the full-fledged functions of all the organs, and eternally sees, maintains and manifests the infinite universes, both spiritual and mundane."

-Bramha Samhita 5.32

Are we working in harmony with our nature #soulfamily? Are we in the right community serving the greater whole? Our world is dis eased at various levels of manifested individual and collective states. We need to raise the Natural Imm-unity not our AI (Artificial intelligence) through injected technology.

We need to raise our consciousness to move with the Earth's ascending time cycle. Playing sovereign God is in mode of passion and ignorance. How can that lead to ascension of consciousness?

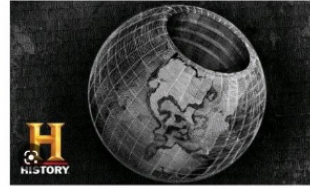

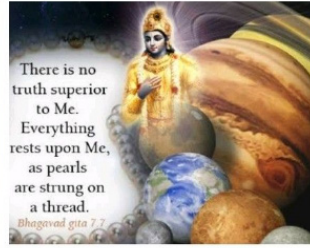

The humility through surrender can help lighten the heart and one can ascend by chanting of the holy names of that Adi purusha.

"Out of compassion for them, I, dwelling in their hearts, destroy with the shining lamp of knowledge the darkness born of ignorance." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 10.11)

Excerpt from the purport

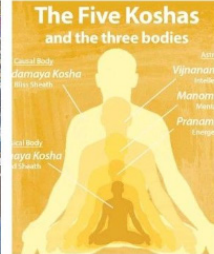

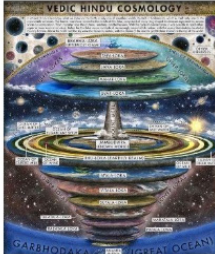

'..The Lord tells Arjuna that basically there is no possibility of understanding the Supreme Truth, the Absolute Truth, the Supreme Personality of Godhead, simply by speculating, for the Supreme Truth is so great that it is not possible to understand Him or to achieve Him simply by making a mental effort. Man can go on speculating for several millions of years, and if he is not devoted, if he is not a lover of the Supreme Truth, he will never understand Kṛṣṇa or the Supreme Truth. Only by devotional service is the Supreme Truth, Kṛṣṇa, pleased, and by His inconceivable energy He can reveal Himself to the heart of the pure devotee. The pure devotee always has Kṛṣṇa within his heart; therefore he is just like the sun that dissipates the darkness of ignorance. This is the special mercy rendered to the pure devotee by Kṛṣṇa.'

Due to the contamination of material association, through many, many millions of births, one's heart is always covered with the dust of materialism, but when one engages in devotional service and constantly chants Hare Kṛṣṇa, the dust quickly clears, and one is elevated to the platform of pure knowledge.'

73. JESUS IN INDIA

We have discussed many posts ago how the ancient scripture Bhavishya(Future) Purana (History) mentions the coming of Adam and Eve, in the future. We have discussed the concept of cyclical time and the Yugas, the creation of universe, the existence of various beings and realms. We also discussed Yoga and system of chakras. From Bhagvad Gita we learn of the modes of material nature that dictate our attachments and thus our vibrations/consciousness. The science is applied to the divisions of society for living in Unity with Diversity. All spiritual wisdoms have always been shared freely by the ancient Vedic Civilization, for the benefit of all mankind.

However now we live in low consciousness period of Kali-yuga. Those who could predict the symptoms of the fallen age knew well to secretly protect technology that could be misused by Godless society. Ancient Vimanika Shastra or Vedic science of spaceships is documented but we don't see them. Temples display evidence of ancient technology that we no longer have. Subtle sciences of yogic powers, frequencies/mantras remains secretly protected. We discussed the case of Padmanabh swamy temple treasures in naga vaults protected by Garuda mantras.

For this age of quarrel devotional service alone is recommended to raise consciousness for a God centered society.

"A person who accepts the path of devotional service is not bereft of the results derived from studying the Vedas, performing sacrifices, undergoing austerities, giving charity or pursuing philosophical and fruitive activities. Simply by performing devotional service, he attains all these, and at the end he reaches the supreme eternal abode."- Krishna (8.28)

Everyone follows Sanatan or Eternal Dharma of the soul. The religion of the soul is to be the eternal servant of the Lord and to see the Lord in his entire creation. God/Krishna incarnates in Bharat varsha repeatedly in different skin colours and forms and is loved and worshipped in all of them. Thus, the residents taste the loving mellows of devotion in various yugas. Where else in the world is God and Godly men loved and revered more?

“Dharma destroys those who destroy it, Dharma protects those who protect it.

Dharma does not destroy and cannot be destroyed.” - Manu smriti 8.15

But as discussed being born in a certain family is not a qualification alone. One must show their qualifications by their actions and vibrations/consciousness #soulfamily. No matter where one comes from or how they look!

"One who identifies his self as the inert body composed of mucus, bile and air, who assumes his wife and family are permanently his own, who thinks an earthen image or the land of his birth is worshipable, or who sees a place of pilgrimage as merely the water there, but who never identifies himself with, feels kinship with, worships or even visits those who are wise in spiritual truth — such a person is no better than a cow or an ass."- Srimad Bhagavatam 10.84.13

74. BILL OF DUTIES

We often speak and hear of bill of rights. Rights given to us by a constitution but do we have Bill of Duties #soulfamily? We religiously follow the law of land to avoid any misadventures. But we do not follow religion! Everyone follows law to maintain peace and harmony but there are greater macrocosms.

Like documented constitution we also have our internal constitution documented in our DNA that dictates our tastes and preferences. The bill of rights in the case of animals is quite clear they eat what their nature/constitution asks them to do. That is their law of land/physical body. They cannot go against it.

Similarly, there is bill of rights available to all beings and their bill of rights give them their right to consume what is fit for their body and constitution. But the higher beings are also more intellectually capable of analyzing who they truly are i.e the soul and not the body. Thus, their constitution has bill of rights but also has Bill of Duties. Duty to the soul and not to let it fall into the animalistic life that has rights but no Duties and hence no karma is applicable.

"Both animals and humans share the activities of eating, sleeping, mating, and defending. But the special property of the humans is that they are able to engage in spiritual life. Therefore without spiritual life, humans are on the level of animals."- Mahabharat

Our Duties as individuals extends not just to the bodily duties towards the family but towards the society, nature and God. We must be grateful for what we have and we must show our gratitude. We have already discussed the various debts we are born into with the human body that need to be paid.

How can one pay any debt if we are only thinking about our rights and not our Duties?

The word Dharma has many meanings including Righteousness, Nature and Religion. The Dharma of each individual is given to them by their nature hence the Varna/class system of society. Just following our nature with mood of service to others and God leads to progression on the spiritual path through Karma Yoga. If we don't comply with law of land by our own volition then we are punished for violation. We understand the law of karma applies to land. But we do not understand all the laws of God because many do not believe in God. But God is truly the owner of all lands and water and no one is ever out of his jurisdiction. So why do we then ignore the laws of God? His Bill of duties is to protect everyone. Knowing this do we stop harming others unnecessarily for our own pleasures? Do we try to help others who are also part of God. Do we pray to offer our gratitude for our Bill of rights?

"Always think of Me, become My devotee, worship Me and offer your homage unto Me. Thus you will come to Me without fail. I promise you this because you are My very dear friend.

Abandon all varieties of religion and just surrender unto Me. I shall deliver you from all sinful reactions. Do not fear."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 18.65-66)

Lord Sri Krishna to Arjuna
Bhagavad gita 15.7

The living entities in this conditioned world are My eternal, fragmental parts. Due to conditioned life, they are struggling very hard with the six senses, which include the mind.

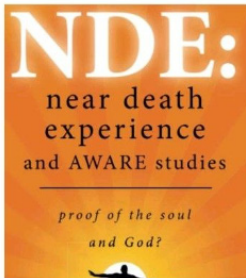

Of all the animals, man is the only one that is cruel. He is the only one that inflicts pain for the pleasure of doing it.

75. THE NEW WORLD IS COMING

"Kṛṣṇa who is known as Govinda is the Supreme Godhead. He has an eternal blissful spiritual body. He is the origin of all. He has no other origin and He is the prime cause of all causes." - Bramha Samhita

As part of the eternal we have similar qualities too the independence exists in minute quantities because although we are a collective of many consciousnesses the Supreme is the cause of all causes. He with his energies manages all space and time.

These cycles of time move consciousness higher and lower and with that move the principles of Dharma and thus the yugas progress.

The Srimad Bhāgavatam and other scriptures prophesise changes and so do many other cultures and scriptures. Perhaps now more than ever before people are realising that we are in midst of a change or a shift. Although there exists variance in prophecies or their interpretations a change nonetheless is on the horizon.

The understanding of Varna/classes in society based on choices has been discussed many times. It was interesting to note how that was also predicted by others. When people go in to their nature and see God consciousness every where they Nature-ally follow the Vedic path of the higher ages.

It was interesting to note that creation of #soulfamily 's was predicted in the past. Those that are formed outside of bloodlines or race or religions.

The awakening of people to their nature means they will naturally be drawn to those who are of the same flock. These bonds of love are more powerful than any fears of change. As people begin to see unity consciousness and fragment of God in everyone the feeling of separation and differences should fall away. This 5D consciousness discussed in the video brings era of peace.

As discussed in many posts and in the video below the human birth is very rare, in that it awards us to realise God/Krishna and thus ascend in God consciousness. This is why it is very rare. Even in human birth each one affected by modes of nature differently will have different realisations for different motivations. Each motivation has its own path and goal. The sanctioner of all goals is God/Krishna.

"O best among the Bhāratas, four kinds of pious men begin to render devotional service unto Me – the distressed, the desirer of wealth, the inquisitive, and he who is searching for knowledge of the Absolute.

Of these, the one who is in full knowledge and who is always engaged in pure devotional service is the best. For I am very dear to him, and he is dear to Me.

All these devotees are undoubtedly magnanimous souls, but he who is situated in knowledge of Me I consider to be just like My own self. Being engaged in My transcendental service, he is sure to attain Me, the highest and most perfect goal.

After many births and deaths, he who is actually in knowledge surrenders unto Me, knowing Me to be the cause of all causes and all that is. Such a great soul is very rare."

- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 7.16-19)

76. LOGIC AND ANALYSIS LEADS TO DEVOTION

" 'All these incarnations of Godhead are either plenary portions or parts of the plenary portions of the puruṣa-avatāras. But Kṛṣṇa is the Supreme Personality of Godhead Himself. In every age He protects the world through His different features when the world is disturbed by the enemies of Indra.' (Srimad Bhagvatam 1.3.28)

The Bhāgavatam describes the symptoms and deeds of the incarnations in general and counts Śrī Kṛṣṇa among them.

This made Sūta Gosvāmī greatly apprehensive. Therefore he distinguished each incarnation by its specific symptoms.

All the incarnations of Godhead are plenary portions or parts of the plenary portions of the puruṣa-avatāras, but the primeval Lord is Śrī Kṛṣṇa. He is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, the fountainhead of all incarnations.

An opponent may say, "This is your interpretation, but actually the Supreme Lord is Nārāyaṇa, who is in the transcendental realm.

He [Nārāyaṇa] incarnates as Lord Kṛṣṇa. This is the meaning of the verse as I see it. There is no need for further consideration.

To such a misguided interpreter we may reply, "Why should you suggest such fallacious logic? An INTERPRETATION is never accepted as evidence if it opposes the principles of scripture.

One should not state a predicate before its subject, for it cannot thus stand without proper support.

If I do not state a subject, I do not state a predicate. First I speak the former and then I speak the latter.

The predicate of a sentence is what is unknown to the reader, whereas the subject is what is known to him.

For example, we may say, 'This vipra (Brahman/pundit) is a greatly learned man.' In this sentence, the vipra is the subject, and the predicate is his erudition.

The man's being a vipra is known, but his erudition is unknown. Therefore the person is identified first and his erudition later.

In the same way, all these incarnations were known, but whose incarnations they are was unknown.

First the word 'ete' ['these'] establishes the subject [the incarnations]. Then 'plenary portions of the puruṣa-avatāras' follows as the predicate.

In the same way, when Kṛṣṇa was first counted among the incarnations, specific knowledge about Him was still unknown.

Therefore first the word 'kṛṣṇa' appears as the subject, followed by the predicate, describing Him as the original Personality of Godhead.

This establishes that Śrī Kṛṣṇa is the original Personality of Godhead. The original Personality of Godhead is therefore necessarily Kṛṣṇa.

Had Kṛṣṇa been the plenary portion and Nārāyaṇa the primeval Lord, the statement of Sūta Gosvāmī would have been reversed.

Thus he would have said, 'Nārāyaṇa, the source of all incarnations, is the original Personality of Godhead. He has appeared as Śrī Kṛṣṇa.'

Incarnations, Sages and devotees all have their positions #soulfamily. Krishna is the Source of all!

Arjuna said: You are the Supreme Brahman, the ultimate, the supreme abode and purifier, the absolute Truth and the eternal divine person. You are the primal God, transcendental and original, and You are the unborn and all-pervading beauty. All the great sages such as Narada, Asita, Devala, and Vyasa proclaim this of You, and now You Yourself are declaring it to me.

77. ACTIVATIONS AND TRANSFORMATIONS

We hear stories beings who can transform into any form. Demons taking animal forms to attack has been discussed in many stories. There are also stories of Demigods and sages that could transform at will into any form. The story of Ashvini kumars gifting the the very old Sage Chyacanprash a youthful body is very popular. The demigods made a deal with the sage and to honour it they gifted him youth. the transformed themselves to make themselves just like him to test if the young wife of Sage Chyavanprash could recognize her husband. Like to the story in comments.

We have also discussed how the 7 sages have their own planetary systems called the Sapta Rishi or the Big dipper constellation. They can come and go to any planet or place when they wish. Like the demigods in their realms, the sages may not be living on their planets alone. Sages and demigods will have their population that matches their vibrations and ages too. There are stories of many ancient civilizations that are said to come and go as they please. All on different stages of evolution. None is perfect in the material world. Some rely on very material technology and some civilizations rely on more organic ones. It is only natural as there are many levels of civilizations in the material universe and then there is eternal spiritual universe too!

Imagine if you some of these sages and demigods or beings with such power came to live on Earth planet in a such low consciousness. They would need to adapt to the shockingly low frequency/vibrations. Some may choose to remember their home and some may choose to forget it to enjoy the experience here.

We are all eternal beings some are more powerful than others based on their evolution and can remember more than others but Krishna is the Source of all and he can remember all his incarnations.

"Arjuna said: The sun-god Vivasvān is senior by birth to You. How am I to understand that in the beginning You instructed this science to him?

The Personality of Godhead said: Many, many births both you and I have passed. I can remember all of them, but you cannot, O subduer of the enemy!

Although I am unborn and My transcendental body never deteriorates, and although I am the Lord of all living entities, I still appear in every millennium in My original transcendental form.

Whenever and wherever there is a decline in religious practice, O descendant of Bharata, and a predominant rise of irreligion – at that time I descend Myself.

To deliver the pious and to annihilate the miscreants, as well as to reestablish the principles of religion, I Myself appear, millennium after millennium.

One who knows the transcendental nature of My appearance and activities does not, upon leaving the body, take his birth again in this material world, but attains My eternal abode, O Arjuna."- Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 4.4-9)

My humble obediences to Krishna who resides in the heart of all beings #soulfamily 🙏🙏 .

78. CHAITANYA MAHAPRBHU

There is God and the Devotee who talks to God . God is Krishna and the Devotee self is Sri Radha or Sri Balaram who expand to relish their relationship in different moods. Both as devotees they are in love and Devotion to their higher self. Srimati Radha Rani representing love and Balaram expression of everything Radha Rani is not. Two opposites of the one whole. The higher self being Krishna himself always. They both then expand to serve Krishna in different ways. Krishna is himself renounced so he has to come to Earth every now and then to be the devotee and to feel what is to serve his devotees, reciprocating with them in different ways. He has no other purpose to incarnate than to serve his devotees.

This emotion of love is the nature of parts and parcels of God and thus all souls have love in them to match the version of God. The Krishna/Christ consciousness level that forgives everyone despite their actions. When we start becoming service to self we develop ego. But all are part of Krishna too playing a different role. The dark and light, service to self and service to others is an eternal dance. They just move one place to another as light wins over darkness. This is the Yin Yang of 3D life #soufamily.

"Some say that Kṛṣṇa is the incarnation of Kṣīrodakaśāyī Viṣṇu. None of these statements is impossible; each is as correct as the others.

Some call Him Hari, or the Nārāyaṇa of the transcendental world. Everything is possible in Kṛṣṇa, for He is the primeval Lord.

I offer my obeisances unto the feet of all who hear or read this discourse. Kindly hear with attention the conclusion of all these statements.

A sincere student should not neglect the discussion of such conclusions, considering them controversial, for such discussions strengthen the mind. Thus one's mind becomes attached to Śrī Kṛṣṇa.

By such conclusive studies I know the glories of Lord Caitanya. Only by knowing these glories can one become strong and fixed in attachment to Him.

Just to enunciate the glories of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, I have tried to describe the glories of Śrī Kṛṣṇa in detail.

The conclusion is that Lord Caitanya is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Kṛṣṇa, the son of the King of Vraja.

Praying at the lotus feet of Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunātha, always desiring their mercy, I, Kṛṣṇadāsa, narrate Śrī Caitanya-caritāmṛta, following in their footsteps."

One who sees the Supersoul equally present everywhere, in every living being, does not degrade himself by his mind. Thus he approaches the transcendental destination." - Krishna (Bhagavad Gita 13.27-29)

80. MEMORY ACTIVATIONS

Kolam is a decorative art from South India that expands the consciousness. This is a cultural practice that builds in science to keep the consciousness high. Women would practice and pass this art to their children and thus the traditional family values were cherished. It keeps memory strong.

The designs of signs that we see have an affect of our brain functions in a code way. It unlocks some of our lost memories. Perhaps they contain a secret code to activate a mental corner in our DNA. This is the activation of the DNA to ascend in consciousness in that body to the higher nature.

Perhaps the crop circles all over the world are something similar too. Perhaps they jog a memory of another family culture that you are part of #soulfamily . A family of memories that have been suppressed and dormant for a long time.

"The Supreme Lord is situated in everyone's heart, O Arjuna, and is directing the wanderings of all living entities, who are seated as on a machine, made of the material energy."- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 18.61)

81. DEV BHOOMI – LAND OF GODS

We cannot rise in consciousness if we do not rise above the bodily platform. Even the God consciousness are arguing over Advaita or one God that we are all part of and Dvaita or philosophy of Dualism that says there is difference between God and his parts. How to explain the beauty that covers the entire cosmos because Krishna is not restricted in expressing himself #Soulfamily! He expands in all directions at same time. The spiritual worlds are said to be three times the size of material varieties.

"The Personality of Godhead is perfect and complete, and because He is completely perfect, all emanations from Him, such as this phenomenal world, are perfectly equipped as complete wholes. Whatever is produced of the Complete Whole is also complete in itself. Because He is the Complete Whole, even though so many complete units emanate from Him, He remains the complete balance." - Sri Isopanishad

Maya is darkness or illusion away from God. Time is a construct of material elements to explain aging and temporary nature of the material world. It is relative to place and position.

Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu taught the Achintya Bheda Abheda philosophy. Inconceivable simultaneous oneness and differentness. Krishna takes his perfected human form and expands its varieties in different ways. Since he is glowing radiantly observers think he is light with devotion we know his complexion is of Blue Sapphire in contrast to the light it also appears black. As discussed previously he accepts all forms and all colours in various incarnations that descend.

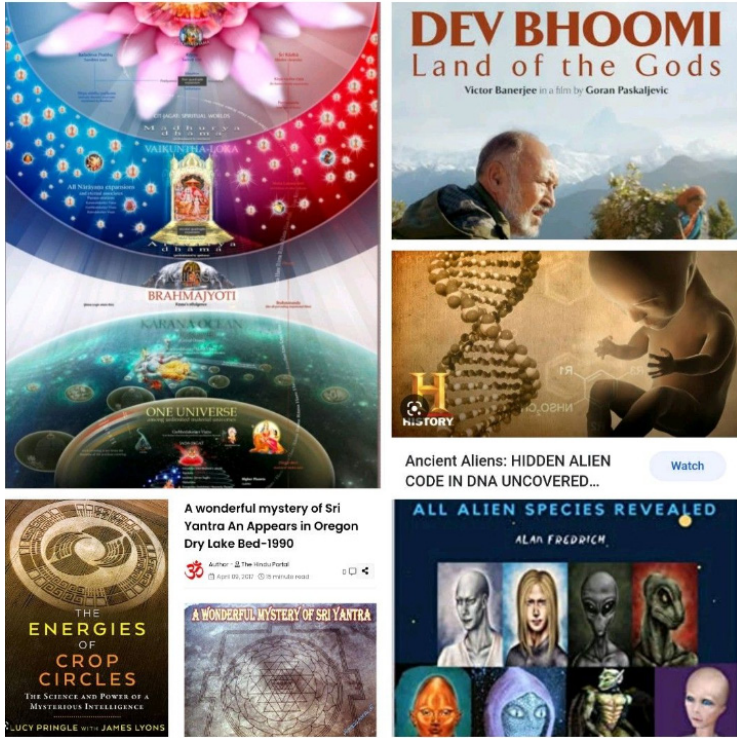

"I worship Govinda, the primeval Lord, who manifested Himself personally as Kṛṣṇa and the different avatāras in the world in the forms of Rāma, Nṛsimha, Vāmana, etc., as His subjective portions." - Brahma samhita 5.39

These incarnations are served on their own planets. When in ignorance the beings use freewill to enjoy without Krishna they automatically fall into material worlds of darkness to create lesser versions of ourselves!!

Krishna as Sun is in mode of 'Vishudha Sattva' or pure goodness that distributes his colours/rays/frequencies equally to all. People collect the frequency of their reality that they are tuned to. People qualify themselves by their karma through freewill to experience different frequencies. The rays of Pure goodness match the vibrations of the God consciousness and are untainted by 3 modes of material nature (Goodness, passion and ignorance) as their services are free based on love and faith alone.

"One who is free from illusion, false prestige, and false association, who understands the eternal, who is done with material lust and is freed from the duality of happiness and distress, and who knows how to surrender unto the Supreme Person, attains to that eternal kingdom."- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 15.5)

When we realise that one God/Krishna is the source of all then people cannot conceive this and assume him formless God or nothing when in fact he in fact he is all and everything and Simultaneously!

82. WRITING AND EDITING WITH LIGHT

Imagine if you will the Humans advanced in technology so much that they could modify DNA. They decide to create new hybrid variety of plants and then animals and then using technology to advance their abilities or creating lesser versions of themselves with restricted rights. Maybe they decide to trade this information with other advanced civilizations. Not seeing the spiritual essence the advances technologically would mean a more spiritually deprived civilization - a spiritually lesser version in organic original way. Devolution of society happens through merging Humans with artificial technology. That is how Kali yuga deteriorates. Srimad Bhagvatam was written to remind us of our true history and value of God and devotion.

How can evolution even exist without a God or Supreme consciousness present in the first place?

The technologically advanced human civilisation cannot use technology to unlock all information in the DNA and call it junk. They try to match yogic abilities with technology extensions or Artificial intelligence. This devolving society in TRANShuman mode is moving away from its organic and spiritual potencies. A reduction in original purity is not progressive evolution! Only Transcendentalists who evolve to have ability to do things super naturally should be considered evolving.

Evolution is organic to nature. Moving from low to high. Thus, our food, form and existence need to be higher levels of vibrations/ consciousness to be activated from within and without. This detoxing happens as we start to follow God/Krishna consciousness. Our habits change to align with the philosophy of a Higher Taste.

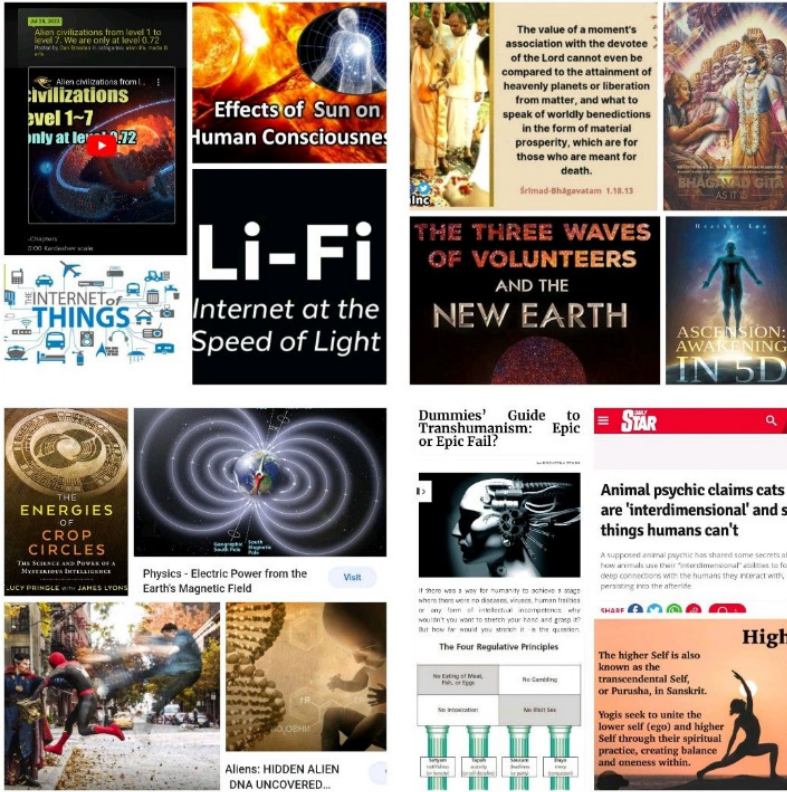

Those ascended in consciousness show attachment to a higher cause other than just themselves can unlock. This may be by the way of cultivation of knowledge for sharing (Gyaan Yoga), Sense of Duty for others (Karma yoga), Meditation to find answers to within (Dhyan yoga). Or Devotional service (Bhakti yoga) devotees who see God/Krishna and Unity in Diversity as described in Bhagvad Gita.

A creator can only create a lower form of themselves. How can it not be true for One Supreme Personality of Godhead Krishna who has no second. Expansions of Krishna have his qualities but in lower quantities.

When the lust of material attractions is lost through ascended consciousness then we are able to serve through ascended versions of ourselves. The unlocked DNA based ability enhances our innate powers to experience more of the hidden universe. There is junk DNA, perhaps its restricted by nature's evolutionary processes.

“The living entities in this conditioned world are My eternal fragmental parts. Due to conditioned life, they are struggling very hard with the six senses, which include the mind.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 15.7)

All natural healing and revealing frequencies are part of the light of the Sun. Darkness is only the absence of light. Not all who wonder are lost. Not all Angels fall into darkness. Some descend to help and Wake up their #soulfamily.

83. DEVOTION FIRST

Continuing the important posts..

"Lord Kṛṣṇa, the son of the King of Vraja, is the Supreme Lord. He eternally enjoys transcendental pastimes in His eternal abode, Goloka, which includes Vrajadhāma.

Once in a day of Brahmā, He descends to this world to manifest His transcendental pastimes.

We know that there are four ages [yugas], namely Satya, Tretā, Dvāpara and Kali. These four together constitute one divya-yuga.

Seventy-one divya-yugas constitute one manv-antara. There are fourteen manv-antaras in one day of Brahmā.

The present Manu, who is the seventh, is called Vaivasvata [the son of Vivasvān]. Twenty-seven divya-yugas [27 × 4,320,000 solar years] of his age have now passed.

At the end of the Dvāpara-yuga of the twenty-eighth divya-yuga, Lord Kṛṣṇa appears on earth with the full paraphernalia of His eternal Vraja-dhāma.

Servitude [dāsya], friendship [sakhya], parental affection [vātsalya] and conjugal love [śṛṅgāra] are the four transcendental mellows [rasas]. By the devotees who cherish these four mellows, Lord Kṛṣṇa is subdued.

Absorbed in such transcendental love, Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa enjoys in Vraja with His devoted servants, friends, parents and conjugal lovers.

Lord Kṛṣṇa enjoys His transcendental pastimes as long as He wishes, and then He disappears. After disappearing, however, He thinks thus:

For a long time I have not bestowed unalloyed loving service to Me upon the inhabitants of the world. Without such loving attachment, the existence of the material world is useless.

Everywhere in the world people worship Me according to scriptural injunctions. But simply by following such regulative principles one cannot attain the loving sentiments of the devotees in Vrajabhūmi.

Knowing My opulences, the whole world looks upon Me with awe and veneration. But devotion made feeble by such reverence does not attract Me.

By performing such regulated devotional service in awe and veneration, one may go to Vaikuṅṭha and attain the four kinds of liberation.

These liberations are sārṣṭi [achieving opulences equal to those of the Lord], sārūpya [having a form the same as the Lord's], sāmīpya [living as a personal associate of the Lord] and sālōkya [living on a Vaikuṅṭha planet]. Devotees never accept sāyujya, however, since that is oneness with Brahman.

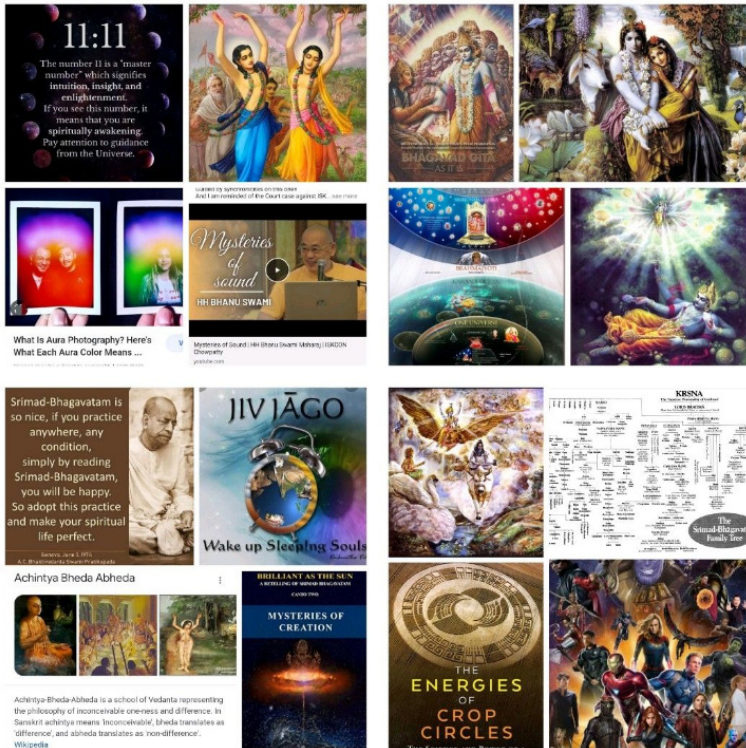

I shall personally inaugurate the religion of the age — nāma-saṅkīrtana, the congregational chanting of the holy name. I shall make the world dance in ecstasy, realizing the four mellows of loving devotional service.

I shall accept the role of a devotee, and I shall teach devotional service by practicing it Myself.

Unless one practices devotional service himself, he cannot teach it to others. This conclusion is indeed confirmed throughout the Gītā and Bhāgavatam. "

When We awaken Within then we awaken the world outside. This is science of Spirituality #soulfamily! What We do Now Wakes the World. Have we raised our vibrations through God consciousness?

Why do Mandela affects happen? Because the residents of the world are always changing their timelines due to raising or lowering of their consciousness.

As we move through our choices based on our level of consciousness we move within the 3D or 4D of lower consciousness worlds. The octaves can change in the day or the night. When we have a firm foundation in one Octave then the history related to that octave timeline becomes available everything else is Mandella affect. The Sun brings light of a positive timeline and the most stubborn reconciliatory knots are being ironed out. During confusions stay focused on God/Krishna the Absolute.

Those who awaken to higher consciousness levels they try not to lower themselves to any consciousness level below love and compassion. This could be a struggle for those who are not in same vibrations. The world around us unlocks new possibilities and the previous history and frameworks begins to become less relevant. When all their lessons and blocks are released they are ready to align into higher vibrations mentally and physically. This opening of the heart unlocks parts of our OLD selves. We seem to be draw information of many past timelines that are part of our individual history to use in this life for a better collective future.

“The living entity in the material world carries his different conceptions of life from one body to another, as the air carries aromas. Thus he takes one kind of body and again quits it to take another.”- Krishna (Bhagavd Gita 15.8)

The synchronicities are time stamps denoting the connection of portals of different timelines. Each is chosen for their part to the Great Awakening of the world to the various types of creations. As long as we exist in any form we are eternal parts and parcels of God/Krishna and there are many levels of service to him. Each endowed with different combinations of modes nature and different capabilities. Our physical dualities are a part from Mother /Matter /Earth /Gaia and spiritual eternity is part of Krishna/God. The conditioning through material nature is called Maya or illusion that Matter is superior to spiritual.

“There are two classes of beings, the fallible and the infallible. In the material world every living entity is fallible, and in the spiritual world every living entity is called infallible.

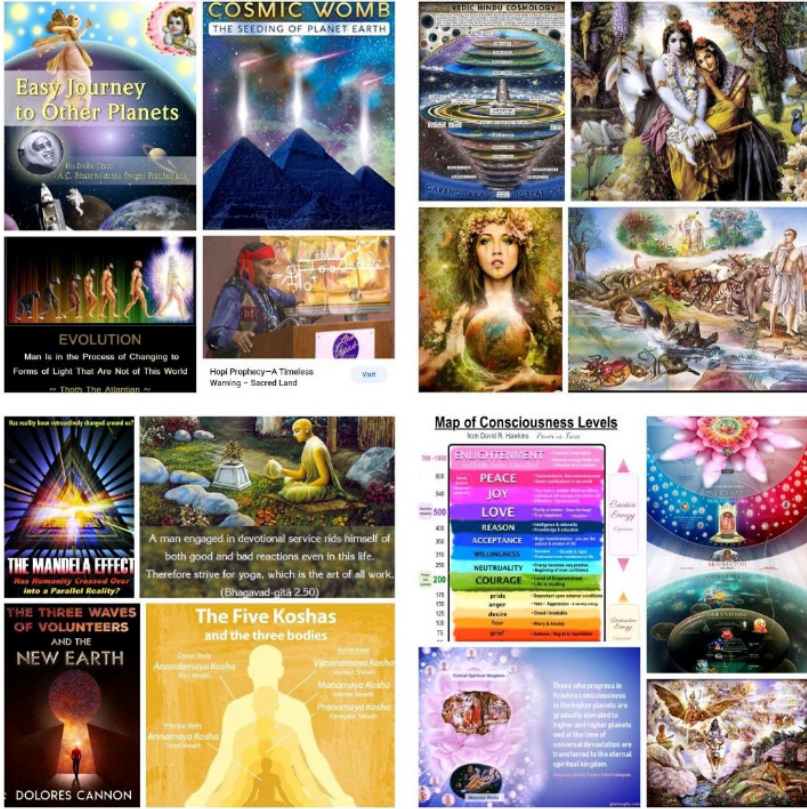

Besides these two, there is the greatest living personality, the Supreme Soul, the imperishable Lord Himself, who has entered the three worlds and is maintaining them.

Because I am transcendental, beyond both the fallible and the infallible, and because I am the greatest, I am celebrated both in the world and in the Vedas as that Supreme Person.

Whoever knows Me as the Supreme Personality of Godhead, without doubting, is the knower of everything. He therefore engages himself in full devotional service to Me, O son of Bharata.”- Krishna (Bhagvad Gita 11.16-19)

Since Krishna/God is the source/root of all, serving him serves all #soulfamily.
